AL OPENS FIGHT TO WIN WEST IN OMAHA SEPT. 18

Farm Relief Topic; No Date Set Here.

BY JAMES O'DONNELL BENNETT.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—Gov. Smith will open his presidential campaign in Omaha Tuesday evening, Sept. 18, with a speech on farm relief.

On Thursday evening, Sept. 20, he will speak in Oklahoma City, emphasizing but not confining himself to the subject of religious tolerance.

On Saturday evening, Sept. 22, he will speak in Denver, probably with special emphasis on water power and conservation.

By Sunday night, Sept. 30, he will be in Rochester, N. Y. On the following day, Monday, Oct. 1, he will speak on state and national issues to the Democratic state convention, assembled to nominate a candidate for governor to succeed Smith.

May Go to Pacific.

Itinerary and speeches for the eight days between the Denver speech of Sept. 22 and the Rochester speech of Oct. 1 have not been decided.

As a campaigner, Al Smith has always been quick to think and prompt to act. He seizes the immediate situation instead of waiting for remote possibilities to develop. If he thinks that California, which won Woodrow Wilson his second presidency, can be swung into the Democratic column this year by a dramatic dash to San Francisco and a speech there, he will make that dash and that speech.

One of the possibilities of his first tour of the country is a speech in Chicago on Saturday evening, Sept. 29.

The governor, however, is in favor of making his Chicago speech late in the campaign, and would prefer an October rather than a September date for it.

He now plans to give the last two weeks of the campaign to the Atlantic coast states.

All Speeches at Night.

All his speeches will be made at night and in halls. He says his voice can no longer withstand the strain of open air speaking. He will make train platform appearances and give greetings from the platform, but make no speeches there. In all cities where it is possible his speeches will be broadcast by extensive radio hookups.

At first he scheduled himself for "about fifteen speeches," but that estimate was made in the languid July days, when fighting for the presidency seemed to be the most remote of his intentions. Always he warms up to campaign work, and his apparent lethargy early in the battle has frequently put his party colleagues in a fright. Some of them are now developing symptoms of panic.

He allays their apprehensions by saying, "The people like a short, sharp campaign. You can wear them out by dragging it out. And you can wear out your candidates so that they are not at their best when they should be—and that's the last two weeks."

He'll Go When He Starts.

When he does start his campaign he will start a red hot one. That is a promise. In making it he quotes with relish two sentences which he uttered in Elmira on Oct. 25, 1922, when whisperers were releasing innuendos about his life and his religion.

Those two sentences were:

"If there is any one thing during all the eighteen campaigns I have been through that has helped to contribute to any of the political success I have achieved, it is a reputation that I am afraid of nobody and that I am afraid of no question. I will unfold my career before the whole country any time."

The governor repeated that with relish, adding: "That still goes. I will answer the whisperers when I reach them."

Milwaukee Will Hear Him.

New York, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Gov. Smith's western speaking tour scheduled to open Sept. 18 at Omaha, will take the nominee only as far west as Helena, Mont., and will include a total of six addresses, John J. Raskob, chairman of the Democratic national committee, announced tonight.

The governor will speak at the Montana state fair at Helena, Sept. 24; in Minneapolis, Sept. 27, and in Milwaukee Sept. 29, Mr. Raskob announced, in addition to the three speaking dates announced in Albany today by the governor. He said that at present no plans are being made for the Democratic nominee to go to California.

EXHIBITORS AND UNIONS AGREE ON MUSICIANS

Get Together After All Night Parley.

BULLETIN.

At 7:30 o'clock this morning the motion picture exhibitors and representatives of the unions, after a continuous parley since early yesterday agreed on all the points in dispute and entered into a contract for another year. The last few hours of wrangling were over the number of weeks five theaters should employ musicians. It was agreed that the time should be as follows: Marquette, 20 weeks; Oakland Square, 10 weeks; Twentieth Century, 10 weeks; Commodore, 10 weeks, and one Lubliner & Trinz house (not named), 15 weeks.

Peace between the motion picture exhibitors and the unions was in sight at 3 o'clock this morning. It appeared that a general tieup of the picture theaters in and about Chicago had been averted and that the strike of musicians which had affected some 300 of the smaller outlying theaters since last Monday was also at an end.

The end of the controversy appeared near when the exhibitors in a final conference with the unions submitted a proposition which settled the differences on all but five of the theaters in which the musicians had been on strike. This meant that the exhibitors had agreed to employ the minimum of four musicians demanded by the unions in 27 out of the 32 theaters involved in the final discussions. At the same time the musicians also had made a concession in that they had agreed on a cut in the period, ranging from 35 to 44 weeks in the year, during which the musicians were to be employed.

Stand on Five Houses.

Exhibitors were declining to employ any musicians except an organist in the five theaters which still remain in controversy. They told the union heads no musicians were needed in these houses and that the owners could not afford to employ four men. The union officials went into an executive board meeting to discuss the proposition and it was believed they would finally accept the exhibitors' whole proposition and call it a victory.

The apparent end of the tense situation in which Thomas Maloy and George Browne, business agents respectively of the motion picture operators' and stage hands' unions, had joined with James C. Petrillo, president, and other officials of the Chicago Federation of Musicians, came suddenly after it was believed a strike that would close all the motion picture houses could not be averted.

Near Peace in Late Parley.

At 1 o'clock in the morning, after an all day meeting, the exhibitors and union heads had retired to separate rooms in the Hotel Sherman, where the parley was on, and it seemed they were farther apart than ever. In the hour and a half that followed, however, Maloy and Browne got together with Attorney Joseph B. Fleming, for the exhibitors, John Balaban of Balaban & Katz, and Jack Miller, president of the exhibitors' association. And out of that meeting came the move that promised peace.

Hold All Day Session.

Meetings between the representatives of the theater owners and the unions had started early in the morning and continued all day.

Early in the evening an attempt had been made to deal with the 52 theaters in the controversy individually and their owners were called in so they might be questioned and consulted. This move gained no headway, however.

The owners, who have claimed they could not afford to employ the minimum of four musicians in such theaters as the unions demanded, offered to employ accountants to check their ticket sales and agreed if they made more than $300 a week to submit to the unions' demands and make no further fight.

"We are not interested in that proposition," Malloy is said to have retorted. "What you make is your problem, not ours."

Then arbitration was proposed and this also was turned down after more than an hour of discussion. The union men said there were rules against such arbitration in the constitution of the American Federation of Musicians or in the international

PARIS, Sept. 6.—Prince Nicholas of Roumania, second son of Queen Marie and one of the three crown regents acting for his little nephew, King Michael, has disappeared from Bucharest and from his country.

Like his brother, Carol, who, however, had the throne to lose, Nicholas has run off with one of the easy ladies of Bucharest. He has come to Paris on a sort of unofficial honeymoon.

In so doing he has struck at the foundations of the present Roumanian régime, the regency's prestige hanging by a thread, anyway.

Stirbey on Trail.

It is learned authoritatively that so seriously is Nicholas' "elopement" viewed in Bucharest that Premier Vintila Bratiano, who is trying frantically to fill his dead brother's shoes, has set Prince Barbu Stirbey, for many years one of Queen Marie's chief consolations and the richest, perhaps the most powerful, man in Roumania, on the trail of the twenty-five year old prince.

Prince Barbu arrived in Paris yesterday and set every possible agency in motion to apprehend Nicholas. He has a second mission, which is to try again to raise a loan.

Acting on the advice of friends in Vienna, who recognized the couple when they drove through the Austrian capital, I located Nicholas and his companion mystery woman just as they were leaving a fashionable hotel in the suburbs of Paris on an automobile trip incognito around France.

Woman Hides Face.

Nicholas looks no older than when he was in the United States two years ago with his mother and Ileana and seems even more unstable. His feminine companion seems slightly older and, although she hid her face, she seemed not unattractive.

I am told that she is well known in the night life of Bucharest, and that Marie has done her utmost in recent months to keep the susceptible Nicholas from getting too deeply involved, following the twice repeated example of his elder brother. I am further informed that his absurd position in the regency council with two political figureheads under the irksome domination of his mother and the prince and the Bratiano crowd has so gone against the grain with Nicholas that his nerves are completely wrecked.

BRIDE SHOT TO DEATH AS MATE SHOWS OFF GUN

William Clay, 22 years old, and his wife Helen, 20 years old, tucked their infant daughter into her crib at their home, 701 West 31st street, last night. Then they sat down to talk over their brief married life. Clay took a chair. Mrs. Clay sat in his lap.

The bride—they had been married only a year—told her husband that sometimes she became frightened when she was alone with the baby. To reassure her Clay reached into a table drawer and pulled out an automatic pistol.

"I'll show you how to operate this," he said.

He removed the clip from the weapon, and playfully pointed it at Mrs. Clay. He pulled the trigger. There was a cartridge in the chamber. The bullet struck the young wife in the heart and killed her. A little later Clay told the police that he didn't know the pistol was loaded.

Lowden Passes Through City; Silent on Politics

Mr. Buddesk Demands His Lodger Pay Up

John Buddesk, at the age of 40, found that a reasonable observance of small profits here and there adds to one's income. So he rented a room in his habitation at 4351 Honore street to Peter Sazymonski, it being the understanding that Peter should punctually pay for this service on each Saturday.

Last Saturday came and Peter, approaching his landlord as usual, offered an apology and explanation. Times had been a little tough and would Mr. Buddesk permit the matter of rental to pass until the next day. Well, Mr. Buddesk scratched his head and said he reckoned he might let things run on that long anyhow, but it wasn't the best practice.

Things Run On and On.

Things ran on until yesterday. It was midweek and the first thing Mr. Buddesk might expect of his tenant was that the rent would be two weeks overdue, so he spoke about it.

"It's a week and a half," he reminded his lodger. "Things can't run on like this. How about it?"

"I'm sorry," said Mr. Sazymonski, "but I'll have to ask you to let it go for a day or so, maybe."

"Not a chance," retorted Mr. Buddesk. "Are these your clothes?"

He didn't wait for Mr. Sazymonski to reply, but snatched up the wardrobe and tossed coats, pants, vests and what-not over on the neighboring gas stove.

Orders Mr. Sazymonski Out.

"Now," said Mr. Buddesk, "get out. The clothes stay here until you come back with the money."

Mr. Sazymonski departed and Mr. Buddesk threw himself upon his bed and slept.

Last night Mr. Sazymonski returned to pay his rent and fetch away his clothes. The door was locked. He hunted up the owner of the building and together they entered. A hem in one of Mr. Sazymonski's garments, tossed so contemptuously aside by Mr. Buddesk, was found caught on a gas burner on the stove and there was a strong smell of gas.

And Mr. Buddesk was dead.

Mrs. Knapp Resigned to Serve Out 30 Day Term

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—Mrs. Florence E. S. Knapp, former secretary of state, who is serving a thirty day term in the Albany county jail for grand larceny, is not expected to make an appeal. Mrs. Knapp, it is said, has made up her mind to accept the situation and spend the remainder of her sentence in as comfortable manner as she can.

Blast Wrecks Residence of Luke Garrick

The home of Capt. Luke Garrick, recently transferred to DesPlaines street police station to clean up the crime in that district, was bombed shortly after 4 o'clock this morning. The entire lower part of the house was wrecked. Capt. Garrick's wife, Emma, under the care of a physician who had left her bedside two hours before, was hurled from her bed and cut and bruised. She has been an invalid with heart disease for several months and it was feared the shock would cause her death. She was taken to the Lakeview hospital. The Garrick home is at 1473 Summerdale avenue.

The bomb, supposed to have been of dynamite, was placed under the front part of the two-story house. The living room and the bedroom in front were almost completely wrecked. The stairway leading from the hall and the front rooms upstairs were badly damaged.

Baby Buried in Debris.

Mrs. Garrick, with her nurse, Miss Fay Morgenson, was in the front bedroom. In a crib in the same room slept Colletta Klauke, 7 months old, daughter of Frank J. Klauke, son-in-law of Capt. Garrick. The baby was buried under plaster and debris, and was not found until after a lengthy search. She was severely cut about the head.

Klauke and his wife, Madeline, slept in another room on the first floor with their 3-year-old son, Francis. Capt. Garrick slept in a room off the kitchen. Neither of these was injured. On the second floor live John Smith and his wife, their son John, a deputy sheriff, and a daughter, Phyllis, 4 years old. With them lived John Donovan, a brother-in-law of Capt. Garrick. All these were uninjured.

Lays It to Gangsters.

Capt. Garrick refused to discuss the bombing further than to say he believed it was the result of his rigid enforcement of the law since he was sent to Des Plaines street. When William F. Russell was made chief of police early in August he transferred the force there from cellar to garret to other stations, and assigned new police to Capt. Garrick to clean up the district.

Late last night Capt. Garrick raided the gambling house at 522 South Halsted street, operated by "Dago" Lawrence Mangano, and arrested 64 men. He declared he was confident the bombing was the direct result of the raid. Shortly after the bombing Mangano was arrested and taken to the detective bureau for questioning.

Miss Morgansen told the police she saw two men approach the house just a few minutes before the explosion.

The Des Plaines street station is in the home ward of Homer Galpin, which, like Morris Eller's ward, was the scene of many disturbances on primary election day.

Pilot Killed; 4 Hurt When Plane Crashes

Rockford, Ill., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—M. E. Headley, pilot, of Warren, O., was killed and four passengers injured, one probably fatally, this afternoon when a Stinson-Detroiter monoplane crashed into Rock river about five miles north of here.

The injured:

Horace H. Tuck, possible internal injuries.

Paul Charn, ribs fractured.

An eye witness said the landing gear of the plane hit a high tension wire about thirty feet from the ground and the machine flipped over, falling on its back into the river.

The passengers were rescued from the wings of the plane, by boys and men in canoes.

The plane was towed across the river by sheriff's deputies and Headley's body recovered from the wreckage about an hour and a half later.

Headley flew the plane, known as the "Miss Packard," and similar to Bert Hassell's "Greater Rockford," from Des Moines, Ia., this morning. He was accompanied by N. A. Wolcott, president, and B. N. McGregor, sales manager of the Packard Electric company of Warren, O. They were on their way home from a 10,000 mile coast to coast trip, visiting representatives of their company.

Headley, who was 32, was formerly a lieutenant in the Twenty-Eighth pursuit squadron, A. E. F. He was married and the father of a 3 year old daughter.

HOME RULE AND COST-SERVICE IN NEW CAR PLAN

Give Out Details of Ordinance.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

Major features of the new Chicago transportation plan, in tentative form, were made public yesterday.

The basis principles underlying the scheme were agreed upon by the drafting subcommittee headed by Ald. E. I. Frankhauser and those principles have been applied in ordinance form by Maj. R. F. Kelker Jr., engineering adviser of the council local transportation committee. These fundamentals are service at cost, provision for progressive purchase by the city, home rule through a local commission, jurisdiction of local transit facilities limited to end of transit lines in Cook county and an indeterminate franchise to be terminated by completion of city purchase.

Plans Combine of Lines.

The plan contemplates a consolidation of the surface and elevated lines, building of limited subways and the installation of feeder busses. The purchase price, or the capitalized valuation of these properties, is not fixed in the tentative ordinance nor is the return specified on that capital investment.

Those two factors are left for the aldermen to determine after negotiations with the companies. In the conversations of the subcommittee yesterday both $250,000,000 and $260,000,000 were used for purposes of illustration.

Under the plan it is represented that all of this capitalization plus $365,000,000 more for extensions and improvements and another $65,000,000 for subways can be paid off in about 40 years. It is also contended that all of this can be absorbed on a fare of 7 cents on the surface lines and 8 1-3 cents on the elevated with a transfer charge of 2 cents for a continuous ride involving both systems.

Hope to End Transfer Fee.

It is reckoned that beginning with the sixteenth year of operation the transfer charge can be completely eliminated and the fare reduced to 7 cents for a continuous ride on surface lines, elevated, subways and feeder busses combined.

While the total invested capital in the combined properties will reach an aggregate, under the estimates submitted, of $690,000,000, the largest amount of securities outstanding in the hands of the public at any one time will be $304,000,000 at the end of the nineteenth year, when the down grade will be hit. That is less than 17 per cent greater than the present capitalization, if the surface lines are put in at $164,000,000 and the elevated lines at $96,000,000.

Based on Passengers.

The basis of these projected financial results are the estimates of passengers and of the expense of operation. Maj. Kelker has been more conservative than other forecasters in predicting increases in numbers of cash fares. He assumes that the number of cash passengers will be 1,130,000,000, the number at present, and that they will increase at an average of 25,000,000 a year for the first ten years; 30,000,000 a year in next five years; 35,000,000 annually in the fourth five year period, then drop back to 30,000,000 in the fifth five year period and be reduced to 25,000,000 annually for the remaining years.

In the last 20 years the surface lines alone have increased slightly in excess of 25,000,000 annually. Income other than transit receipts is placed by Maj. Kelker at $750,000 a year for the first five years, $1,000,000 in the second five; $1,250,000 in the third five and $1,500,000 thereafter.

On operating expenses Kelker is also credited with a conservative view. These, including taxes, he places at 79 per cent of the gross receipts during the first two years; at 78½ per cent in the second two years; 78 per cent in the third two years; 77½ per cent in the fourth two years and 77 per cent thereafter.

On these two foundations—amount of patronage and the cost of operation—has been built the financial skeleton of the plan.

First has been applied the service at cost principle. The Major has defined that term explicitly. In the cost of service shall be included only operating expenses, including taxes, payment of eight per cent of the gross receipts into the renewal and depreciation fund, three per cent into the damage reserve fund, the cost of money in the initial purchase price, cost of money for extensions and additions, compensation of one mill per passenger to the company as compensation and payments into the company sinking fund to retire bonds of one-half of one per cent of the bonds outstanding.

$7,000,000 Surplus in Year.

After paying all of these items it is estimated that in the first year there will be a surplus of about $7,000,000, which will go to the city to reduce the investment or reduce fares. That is to continue from year to year until all of the investment has been wiped out.

On the fare schedule indicated above the surplus earnings will, it is forecast, completely erase all capital investment in about 40 years. Some of the features of the service at cost have been adapted from the Lisman plan. Attorney John Maynard Harlan, attorney for that plan, listened attentively to the unfurling of the committee program yesterday.

The machinery and method for carrying out these results has been set up with the aid of Assistant Corporation Counsel John G. Drennan and are therefore assumed by the aldermen to be constitutional, although additional legislative authority is needed.

Two Trustees Are Planned.

In the initial capitalization the plan contemplates that at least 60 per cent of the $250,000,000 or $260,000,000 shall be in bonds and the remainder in stock. The company will have a trustee under the ordinance plan and the city will have a trustee. The company trustee among other things will handle the sinking fund, which is small and created only to aid the companies in financing sale of securities.

To the city's trustee is first turned over the city's $53,000,000 transit fund. This cash is invested in first mortgage bonds of the company. Next the trustee receives the $16,000,000 in the companies' renewal and depreciation fund, which is also invested in first mortgage bonds. The interest on these bonds is held also by the trustee. The city trustee also receives the surplus earnings, estimated at $7,000,000 for the first year, and a smaller amount for the second year when subway construction is started.

Under the financing plan the entire cost of the subways will be paid by the city which will own them. They will be operated, however, by the merged company. But the estimated $65,000,000 cost of the subways never gets into the capitalization of the transit system.

No Influence from Mayor.

Another governing agency separates the aldermen and mayor from influence in the company management. The control and regulation of the company is to be in a local commission appointed by the mayor with the advice and consent of the city council.

This commission will have all of the powers and authority of the Illinois commerce commission and also all the duties and responsibilities of the present board of supervising engineers. It will determine what extensions, improvements, and additions shall be made, what the service shall be, and what the fare shall be, except that it is mandatory to increase the fare whenever the income falls below a certain level. Neither the mayor nor the aldermen can decrease fares. The safeguards to be thrown around the commission are not available for publication because that part of the ordinance has not been completed.

But if the revenues ever fall below a point where every item of the cost of service cannot be met then the city trustee must supply the needed cash from the surplus earnings, even selling securities to the public if necessary.

Upon the issuance of any new securities the first offer by the companies must be to the city trustee, who shall be permitted to buy all he is able. In the first ten years $135,000,000 is to be spent for extensions and improvements.

Estimates of surplus earnings are such that it is now predicted that only $90,000,000 of these bonds will be sold to the public, while the other $45,000,000 will be taken by the city trustee. Another $100,000,000 is to be spent for improvements in the second ten years, making $235,000,000 for the first 20 years. Of this total the city trustee is expected to buy $110,000,000 and the public $125,000,000.

Under the plan no securities are canceled until the city purchases the entire property. After securities have been purchased by the city trustee he receives the interest yearly.

Another Meeting Monday.

No attempt has been made to explain the involved features in the financial plan and consequently some of the statements regarding financial results are only approximately correct. To get the intricate details in mind, the aldermen will have another meeting next Monday morning. The companies were sent a copy of the tentative ordinance and a summarized statement of the financial plan yesterday. They will probably be asked to discuss the subject with the aldermen next Tuesday or Thursday.

Germany Would Wean Rail Workers Away From Rum

BERLIN, Sept. 6.—(AP)—The federal railway administration has ordered that milk markets be installed at strategic points to enable railwaymen to quench their thirst.

The administration will soon send out a special train to show the workers, from scrub women to division managers, graphically the injurious effects of drink and the necessity for abstinence. In a letter to employés the administration stated that in view of attempts to improve the speed of trains, it was absolutely essential that workers be sober.

Some of the cars have been converted into class rooms and others contain exhibits. The railway workmen of cities and towns along the way will be required to report for instruction.

In connection with the plan a suggestion involving the prohibition of liquor selling in railroad canteens has not yet been acted upon. Heretofore employés have been allowed to drink beer and wine when off duty.

Wets, Drys Fight in League.

GENEVA, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Wine producing countries and those seeking to suppress alcoholism fought a skirmish in the committee of social problems of the league of nations today.

The committee yielded to the French request that action on a resolution calling for the appointment of a commission of experts to study all aspects of alcoholism be held up until the return of Louis Loucheur, French minister of labor and public health, who is in Paris.

Senator Pams of France expressed hope that the discussion would leave wines severely alone, as it would engender an acrimonious dry-wet debate. Senhor Vasconcellos of Portugal, another wine producing country, protested against the assumption that wines, as spirits, are harmful to humanity.

Belgium, Czecho-Slovakia, and Denmark are now supporting the proposal for an investigation by experts which was introduced by Finland, Sweden, and Portugal.

Has "Cure" for U. S. Drinking.

HAVANA, Cuba, Sept. 6.—[U. P.]—Adolpho Franko read of the offer made by W. C. Durant, American motor car manufacturer, of $25,000 for a solution of the prohibition problem in the United States.

He announced he had sent in the following solution:

"The only way to insure that none of the inhabitants of the United States will ever drink a drop of liquor will be to kill every one of them, Americans and foreigners, old and young, and male and female as well. Any other plan or formula will be a total failure, I am sure. Trusting to hear from you, inclosing check for $25,000, and please mail same before everybody is dead."

Uncrowned Queen of Monte Carlo Slain in Berlin Home

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Sept. 6.—"Pussy Uhl," demimondaine, for many years called the uncrowned queen of Monte Carlo, where she associated with kings, princes and the world's millionaires, was found dead in her Berlin home today with the lover of her old age, Flight Lieut. Beese. The airman is believed to have shot her and then committed suicide. Another shooting took place in her home a month ago, in which a jealous lover was involved.

"PROSPERITY" IS RULE AS MAYOR RETURNS TO CITY

Mayor Thompson returned to Chicago yesterday, spent three hours in the city hall in conference with cabinet members, visited his suite of rooms in the Hotel Sherman, and then went to his Sheridan-road home. His health seemed good. His interviews were brief.

"Feeling much better, thank you," he said to Ald. John S. Clark, who chanced to meet him in the city hall.

"Build the town. Prosperity," he said to the newspaper reporters who asked his plans.

When asked if he contemplated any changes in his cabinet, he answered:

"Don't talk about those things. Build the town. Prosperity."

"Have you any new policies to take up with the city council?" he was asked.

Policies?. "Build the Town!"

"Tell the people I'm back to build the town and work for prosperity," he said once more.

He amplified this but slightly while he was being shaved and manicured in his hotel room.

"I heard some bad news while coming home," came the words from under a hot towel. "Three thousand families have left Minneapolis because of hard times. We can't let anything like that happen in Chicago. I'm here to build up the city's business and prosperity and I'm feeling better than I've felt for years."

Ignores Morris Eller.

Going into an elevator he brushed aside Morris Eller, city collector, who sought to welcome him. Other cabinet members joined him in his fifth floor office. Corporation Counsel Samuel A. Ettelson, Building Commissioner Christian P. Paschen, President Michael Faherty of the board of local improvements, Police Commissioner William F. Russell, Health Commissioner Arnold H. Kegel, and County Treasurer George F. Harding were among those present. Each said there was nothing to be made public as a result of the talk with the mayor and there were protestations that nothing important had been said or done.

2 QUARTS DOWN THE TUBE AND GEORGE IS READY

George Klunk, 32 years old, 5668 Washington boulevard, cannot swallow a drop and so it takes two quarts of whisky to put him in fighting fettle, he explained from his cell in the county jail yesterday, where he is waiting trial for assaulting a policeman with a heavy timber.

"You see, four years ago I swallowed a bottle of lye by mistake," he explained. "My throat was burned out and a tube placed in my stomach. All food is taken in liquid form and is poured directly to my stomach via the tube.

"It is very direct and satisfactory," he said. "I have to take about two quarts of liquor before I get in proper trim. The other day I saw this policeman, and because I did not like him I poured in my two quarts of liquor and that gave me the courage to go out and fight with him. All I did was hit him with a club."

RULING ON ELLER TRUE BILLS TO BE GIVEN TOMORROW

End Arguments to Quash Indictments.

Morris Eller, city collector and boss of the 20th ward; his son, Judge Emanuel Eller of the Superior court, and 12 of their henchmen will know tomorrow whether legal technicalities will save them from facing a Criminal court jury. They are under indictment in 22 counts for conspiracy to murder and to commit various infractions of the election laws at the April primary.

Judge John M. O'Connor, who was brought from the Appellate court to sit in judgment on the Ellers and such of their followers as have been indicted, announced that his decision on matters argued for the last two days by a battery of defense lawyers would be ready at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Face Trial on Sept. 17.

If the judge denies the defense motions, the Ellers will start to trial on Sept. 17 unless other moves are made in their behalf. The prosecution, under the direction of Special Assistant Attorney General Frank J. Loesch, is ready and eager to proceed with the trial, it was announced yesterday.

Attorney Michael Ahern, who has been leading the battle of technicalities on behalf of the defense, bitterly denounced the special prosecutors in court yesterday.

"Dishonest, unethical and hypocritical," were some of the words he applied to Prosecutor Loesch and his assistants, Edwin J. Raber, David Stansbury and Fred Fake, "because they had, by deception and fraud," he said, "taken advantage of Morris Eller." He criticized the prosecutors because he said the grand jury withdrew a true bill previously voted against Eller to allow him to testify and after he did so revoted the document.

Attacks Legality of Tactics.

Had Eller been informed of this situation he would not have testified, the attorney said. He characterized the prosecution tactics as a violation of Eller's constitutional rights and said it has "made the blood of every lawyer boil."

But when Attorney Ahern concluded his denunciation Judge O'Connor dismissed this point with the following curt statement:

"This motion is to quash the indictment and not to pass on the ethics of the case. If you have any authority showing that such move has a bearing on the validity of the indictment I would be glad to hear it."

"There are no authorities on the point," said Ahern. "I don't suppose lawyers ever before stooped to such tactics."

Immunity Waived by Eller.

"Your client, Morris Eller, demanded to go before the jury and waived immunity on his own volition and can make no complaint because he was unable to convince the grand jury of his innocence," retorted Prosecutor Raber.

Morris Eller was not present to hear his attorneys tell the court "how he had been deceived by the prosecutors." He had left the room accompanied by part of his retinue, including Dr. Samuel Epstein, who was recently dropped as a coroner's physician. The three sons, however, Judge Emanuel, William, and Jack, remained to hear the speech.

But Two Women in Crowd.

Just outside of the rail where they were seated with the younger Ellers' cousins, Abe (Humpy) and Martin Klass, were many spectators. Among them were some of their co-defendants. In the entire crowd, which filled the room, were only two young women.

Attorney William S. Forrest, a veteran lawyer of the old school, took up the morning session of the hearing with a technical attack on the verbiage of the indictment. The phraseology was wrong in some counts, and in others the prosecutors were not specific enough in their allegation, he argued.

Questions Rights of Five.

Attorney Ahern took up the argument again with a new series of motions. First the indictment was illegal because five unauthorized persons were constantly in the grand jury room, he said. He said the stenographer had no right to be present, neither had the prosecutors, because they had failed to take an oath of office after the second jury was impanelled, he insisted.

"I think the stenographer was a necessity," commented the judge.

Next came the motion that Attorney General Carlstrom had no right to delegate his powers to others, "and anyhow he and his assistants must be paid by the state," Attorney Ahern argued, and not from private funds.

The Rock Island, Ill., case, a situation similar to that now existing in Chicago, was cited by Ahern. The Supreme court in that case condemned such practice, he said.

"Suppose they did?" said the judge. "It was not held that the indictment should be quashed. I do not think the salary question is a legal proposition."

Plays "Trump" Card.

Attorney Ahern then played what he intended to be his trump card, the unfolding of grand jury secrets about the fact that Eller had been named in a true bill prior to his testimony.

This point went the way of many others by the judge's commenting that it was not a legal proposition affecting the validity of the indictment.

Johnny Genero, south side gangster, jointly indicted with the Ellers, was turned over to the sheriff yesterday when he appeared in the Municipal court. The charges in the Municipal court were dismissed because he has been indicted since on the same charges.

Girl Ocean Flyer Sued for Divorce

"HE MIGHT HAVE LET ME KNOW," RUTH'S PLAINT

Womack Files Suit to Divorce Aviatrix.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Hollywood, Cal., Sept. 6.—Ruth Elder has received no word confirming reports that her husband, Lyle Womack, has carried out an announced intention to sue her for divorce in the Panama Canal Zone, but the aviatrix-actress said today that the news did not "stun" her.

"He might have let me know in advance what he was going to do and what grounds he would give," she said. "I would have done that much for him."

She had nothing to say about her attitude toward a divorce action. If Mr. Womack starts proceedings, it will be Miss Elder's second divorce.

Womack Files Suit.

BALBOA, Canal Zone, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Lyle Womack today filed suit in the courts here for divorce from his wife, Ruth Elder, who attempted to cross the Atlantic in an airplane.

Cruelty is the charge in the petition, which says Mr. Womack's "weight has been reduced, efficiency for work lessened, and health and reason endangered."

In addition, the aviatrix's husband charges that his wife caused him many sleepless nights by her trans-Atlantic flight attempt, and much embarrassment in New York when she failed to kiss him upon her return.

Her words at the time, said in an undertone, he charges, were, "Don't be a fool."

"Have No Other Course."

In a statement after the petition was filed, he said: "Ruth chose a career rather than to be a housewife, and I have no other course.

"I would be delighted if she would return to me, but I begged her innumerable times and she always refused."

Mr. Womack said he understood the suit will not be contested, although an interlocutory decree may be obtained in December. Under the laws here a full divorce may not be granted before June of next year.

Thinks Ruth Is Mean.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BALBOA, Sept. 6.—Mr. Womack bitterly resented Miss Elder's newspaper articles which local papers published, alleging that her adverse criticism was mean and uncalled for. Linton Wells, author and director of a movie film featuring Miss Elder, here from Hollywood en route to New York, stated that Ruth surprised them all and is a big success.

HE'S OVERLOOKED IN LOOT DIVISION, TALKS TO POLICE

Kenneth Hedrick's first venture as a confederate of safeblowers was a success for his partners, but a total failure so far as he was concerned. They stole $26,300 from the Sears Roebuck retail store at 6153 South Western avenue on Aug. 27, but they didn't give him his share.

As a result Hedrick, who is 22 years old and lives at 5340 Winthrop avenue, talked to the police last night and two more alleged members of the band are under arrest. They are Frank (Nervo) Mann, 35 years old, of 6110 Harper avenue, and Charles Geraci, 28, of the Surf hotel.

Hedrick left the employ of Sears Roebuck several months ago. He said that he met the other men in a saloon and that they had him give them accurate details on how to reach the safe. But they failed to meet him and give him a share of the loot afterward, he complained. He was taken into custody by Lieut. William Cusack and told his story after several hours of questioning. His explanation of his part in the crime was that he was unable to make a living for his wife and baby. Two more who were involved in the plot are being sought.

Mother and Daughter Die of Cleaning Fluid Burns

Mrs. Fannie Wagner, 36 years old, who, with her daughter, Rachel, 7, was burned on Wednesday night while cleaning furniture with benzine and naphtha at their home, 3059 West 19th street, died yesterday in St. Anthony's hospital. The child had died of her injuries earlier in the day.

SUIT IS STARTED BY VICTIM OF POLICE BULLETS

Suit for $50,000 was filed yesterday against former Police Commissioner Michael Hughes, Policemen Benjamin Sunnill and Richard Corcoran, and James Curran, superintendent of the House of Correction, by Charles Repp, 1810 South Peoria street, who claims to have been crippled for life as a result of being shot by the two policemen.

Attorney Mark Kasan said Repp was shot last April, when he ran after being accosted by the policemen. Then, the attorney said, despite the protests of Repp's parents, who came out of the house on hearing the shots, the wounded man was taken to the House of Correction hospital and kept there without a warrant, although one was obtained next day charging him with disorderly conduct.

The lawyer said Repp was in a hospital three months and that since his recovery one leg is shorter than the other.

Big Fire Threatens Entire Block in Downtown Denver

Denver, Colo., Sept. 6.—(AP)—All available fire fighting equipment was called out tonight to fight a fire that threatened to destroy the entire loop market block in downtown Denver. Fire Chief Healy, hearing that several employés of the company were in the basement, ordered rescue crews into the blaze, but they were unable to penetrate the flames. It was believed that any one in the building must have been killed.

FOUR ARRESTED IN SLAYING AND POLICE SHOOTING

Detective bureau squads led by Lieut. William Cusack and Lieut. Andrew Barry raided the headquarters of the Commission Drivers, Chauffeurs and Helpers union at 1425 South Racine avenue yesterday and arrested four men who are accused of killing Al Pratt and wounding Policeman Walter Hoder in a garage at 556 North Clark street.

They are Thomas McElligott, 734 South Kenneth avenue; Thomas Cawley, 2722 West Jackson boulevard; Joseph Murphy, 3537 Augusta street, and William Davis, 4857 Concord place. All, according to the police, have records as terrorists.

Hoder was shot on Saturday morning. On Monday the same men who wounded him returned and tried to kill John Brown, colored mechanic, who witnessed the first shooting. Pratt, also a mechanic in the garage, was killed in the second fusilade and Brown escaped with a slight wound. At the Henrotin hospital Hoder announced that he believed those under arrest were his assailants. Another witness, Joseph Sterling of Lemont, declared that Murphy shot Hoder and that Davis was the slayer of Pratt.

CHARGES AT TAX HEARING CALLED VAGUE; EXPUNGED

Public Testimony of Coal Salesman Halted.

The Illinois revenue commission yesterday held another session in the city hall investigating taxation in Chicago. Two witnesses testified that various members of the board of review and board of assessors were interested in coal companies, but the more sensational charges made by the second witness were ordered expunged from the record by State Senator John Dailey, chairman, as "vague and unsupported by proof."

At the morning session Gordon Strong, capitalist, real estate dealer, questioned regarding the board of review's action in reducing the valuation of the building at 320-23 South Franklin street from $262,812 to $106,000, said that the reduction had been ordered by Edward R. Litsinger, member of the board, after a hearing. Strong declared he purchased some coal from the Wright Coal company following a note of introduction from Mr. Litsinger and that he had contributed $1,250 to the Litsinger campaign at the last primary.

Halts Witness' Testimony.

William O'Rourke, 9434 South Loomis street, coal salesman, made the charge at the afternoon session that all members of the board of assessors, except John E. Conroy "and possibly Charles Ringer," were engaged in the coal business. He declared further that an independent coal salesman could not attempt to sell coal in the loop because all the business had been contracted for by coal companies affiliated with members of taxing bodies.

Chairman Dailey then called a halt on O'Rourke's testimony. State Representative Thomas O'Grady, member of the commission, asserted that O'Rourke was "seeking publicity by making wild charges." O'Rourke is a minor politician, it was brought out, who ran for four state offices at the last election.

Executive Session Planned.

"We will listen with reluctance to charges like these, because they are not specific and are not supported by proof," said Senator Dailey. "The commission will go into executive session with Mr. O'Rourke in order to find out just what facts he has to support his statements."

The chairman later ordered O'Rourke's statement stricken from the record. Meyer Cossman, chief clerk of the board of review, was ordered to produce more records of cuts in loop building valuations at today's session.

RAIL UNIONS AT STANDSTILL IN WAGE DISPUTE

Yesterday's conference between officials of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors at the Great Northern hotel produced no apparent progress toward a decision in their demand for wage increases from 55 western railroads.

Officials of the two unions, which are asking increases of 10 and 15 per cent, refused to announce the results of their conference, although it is understood that they have the returns of a ballot of the 70,000 railroad men affected. The men are reported to favor a strike, but no official announcement was made. The conference will be resumed today.

BANDITS GET LOAD OF CANDY.

Two masked men held up Albert Meyerhoffer, driver for the Motor Transport company of Aurora, yesterday at 47th street and Archer avenue and took his truck, which was loaded with more than a ton of candy.

WOLFF WARNED TO CUT INQUEST TESTIMONY COST

Protests were made at a meeting of the finance committee of the county board yesterday over the court reporting expenses incurred by Coroner Oscar Wolff. The cost of taking and writing testimony at coroner's inquests has doubled in the last six months, J. L. Jacobs, efficiency expert, stated, and the county commissioners served notice on Coroner Wolff it would have to be reduced.

The charge was formerly 45 cents a page, Jacobs said, and at present 65 cents is being charged with an additional attendance fee of $1 per inquest. Coroner Wolff was told he would have to get along with 45 cent work, and shorten his inquests, although he declared the city and other official agencies were paying 80 cents a page.

A letter to City Controller George K. Schmidt charged the city was paying excessive prices for court reporting and was being billed for work not done. Corporation Counsel Ettelson inquired and found the city was paying 65 cents a page, which was said by court reporters to be the rate charged all lawyers. Mr. Ettelson said he would make an investigation and make public the findings.

CHILD, 6, ON WAY TO SCHOOL, IS KILLED BY TRUCK

Stanley Niszynski, 6 years old, of 1511 McHenry street, on his way to school yesterday morning, was killed in front of 1255 West North avenue, by a truck driven by John Bosch, 3753 North Mozart avenue.

The other deaths raised the Cook county motor toll this year to 649.

Stanley Gates, 27 years old, 3142 Christiana street, was killed when his truck collided with a car driven by Anthony Seneca of Lyons, Ill. Gates was knocked out of his cab and a heavy box fell off the truck onto him.

Frank Johannsen, 41 years old, 3026 North Kolmar avenue, died of injuries sustained Labor day when he stopped his car on the Rand road near Des Plaines and stepped out into the path of a car driven by Carl Campbell, 82d street and Emerald avenue.

Rudolph Mellen, 58 years old, 2426 Washburne avenue, a laborer, died in the county hospital of a fractured skull and internal injuries received last Saturday when he was struck by an automobile at Roosevelt road and Lincoln street. The driver of the car was Felix Greco, 1753 Polk street.

SEARCH FOR QUINCY YOUTH.

Ellis Beler, 22 years old, disappeared from his home in Quincy, Ill., on Aug. 15, only a few days before he was to have been married. Yesterday his relatives requested a search for him.

ROLAND LEADS 27 AIR RACERS TO KANSAS CITY

One Pilot Injured When Motor Blows Up.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 6.—(AP)—Flying under ideal weather conditions, Earl Rowland of Wichita, Kas., piloting a Cessna monoplane, led the pack into Kansas City today in the Class A transcontinental air race, holding the lead he took at the outset of the race yesterday.

The first four planes to check in for the night arrived in the same order as at Columbus yesterday, with Rowland followed at an interval of 25 minutes by Robert Dake of Pittsburgh in an American Moth. Rowland's official arrival time was 12:41:25. W. N. Emery Jr. of Bradford, Pa., held to third place by piloting his Travelair into Richards' airport at 1:22 p. m.

Eight Hours from New York.

Rowland's unofficial elapsed time from Roosevelt field, New York, to Richards field was 8 hours and 7 minutes; Dake's was 8 hours and 35 minutes, and Emery's was 9 hours and 1 minute.

Fourth into the overnight control was Theodore W. Kenyon of Boston, flying a Challenger, who arrived at 1:31:27 o'clock.

James Chalres of Richmond, Va., fifth into Columbus yesterday, dropped into sixth place when Eugene J. Detmer of Tarrytown, N. Y., crossed the finish line here at 1:39:03 in his Travelair. Chalres reached St. Louis in his Alexander Eaglerock ahead of Detmer, but dropped behind in the race across Missouri.

Next Stop Fort Worth.

Favorable weather continuing, the planes will hop off at one minute intervals, starting at 5 a. m. tomorrow for Fort Worth.

L. H. Connell of Wichita, flying a Swallow, was eighth into St. Louis, from a position 20 start this morning, but was forced down in a field near Jonesburg, Mo. Repairs for his plane reached Jonesburg tonight.

D. R. Robertson of Anglum, St. Louis county, Missouri, is in a hospital near Carthage, Ind., where his engine had blown up.

George Bennett of Kansas City, in an Eagle Rock, and J. W. Hunt of Moundsville, W. Va., in a Swallow, were held at Indianapolis, because of motor trouble.

After delays east of St. Louis that brought him into that city just before 3 o'clock, Don Philips of Seattle, in a Challenger, made a quick flight, arriving at Kansas City at 5:30. He was followed a few minutes later by A. K. Owen and Alfred Carl of Reading, Pa., flying a Fleetwing, who had made three landings between Terre Haute and St. Louis, and were delayed several hours at St. Louis making repairs.

Blows Up High in Air.

Carthage, Ind., Sept. 6.—(AP)—D. R. Robertson, flying a Curtiss Robin in the transcontinental air race, was forced to land on a farm near here this morning.

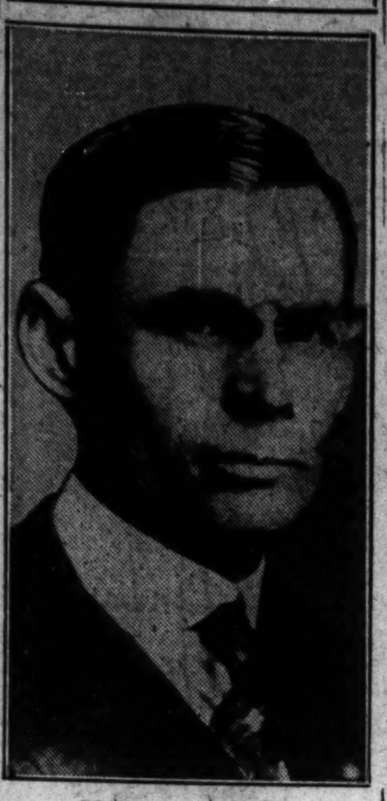
The motor blew up while Robertson was traveling at the rate of 115 miles an hour and at an altitude of 1,000 feet.

Earl Daugherty, co-pilot, was uninjured. Robertson said the explosion was due either to a broken connecting rod or a frozen bearing.

Weather Delays Class B.

Roosevelt Field, N. Y., Sept. 6.—(AP)—Bad flying weather over the first part of the course prevented the start of the Class B race of the transcontinental air Derby today. Lieut. H. B. Clark, Roosevelt field manager, notified starters tonight that the hop tomorrow, scheduled for 7 a. m., had been deferred until 9 a. m. because of fog in the Allegheny mountains.

MILLION SHORT



CLINTON CARNES.

CARNES' WIFE GOT A DIVORCE, BUT REWED HIM

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—Clinton S. Carnes, vanished treasurer of the southern Baptist home mission board, whose disappearance resulted in the discovery that he is $1,000,000 short in his accounts, was divorced by his wife prior to his prison stretches and was remarried after he became connected with the board.

This became known tonight as it was reported a suspect resembling Carnes was under surveillance in Richmond, Va.

In an effort to conserve the property of the missing man for the benefit of the mission board, Judge John B. Hutcheson of the Superior court today appointed Thomas Howell Scott, Atlanta lawyer and Leon O'Neal, Decatur, real estate operator, receivers for the properties. The appointment was made on the plea of the board.

Blackmail and fear of family disgrace forced Carnes to misuse of the funds, according to the belief expressed by his wife.

In Mrs. Carnes' suit for divorce, filed and granted before he began his prison term, Mrs. Carnes charged cruelty, squandering money, and mentioned he was being sought for violations of the law.

SIX CHICAGOANS TEST AIR LINE TO CLEVELAND

Breakfast Here, Lunch There, and Return.

Six Chicagoans took breakfast in their homes yesterday, flew 321 miles to Cleveland where they had luncheon and returned to Chicago for dinner. The round trip was made in nine hours with a three hour stopover in Cleveland, thus demonstrating that the airplane has brought the Ohio metropolis virtually within the bounds of Chicagoland.

Speeding through the air at 120 miles an hour, the passengers were carried between the two cities in safety and in measurable comfort in a new 7-passenger Hamilton monoplane.

The trip yesterday was made as a test flight, preparatory to the opening tomorrow of a regular run between Chicago and Cleveland. The new service, to be maintained by the Universal Airlines, Inc., includes two round trips daily.

Two Planes in Service.

One plane will carry passengers traveling only between these two points. Another will make connections at Cleveland with the limited trains of the New York Central system to and from the east coast, effecting overnight service both ways between Chicago and New York.

With Pilot Will Sievert in the cockpit the ship left the municipal airport at 9 o'clock, heading out across South Chicago, Hammond and Gary.

Some 46 regular and emergency landing fields are located on the air route to Cleveland. Many of them are fields kept up by the towns and villages along the way.

Beyond Fremont the route crosses the tip of Sandusky bay and from there follows the shore line of Lake Erie into Cleveland. Due to headwinds the plane yesterday was delayed fifteen minutes in the eastward flight, arriving at Cleveland at 12:05.

Plane Met by Busses.

Busses of the Universal line meet passengers at the Cleveland airport to convey them to the downtown section, a forty-five minute drive. Cleveland's airport, only recently established, is twice the size of the Chicago field. The entire property, owned by the city, is 1,000 acres, of which only 460 is now developed.

Record time was made in the return trip. Aided by tail winds the ship reached an air speed of 150 miles an hour. Leaving the Ohio city at 3:10 in the afternoon the plane circled a thunderstorm about Sandusky, O., and sped on into Chicago, arriving at 5:45.

Air Taxi Service Planned.

A nation-wide air taxi service is part of the plans of the Curtiss Flying Service, Inc., it was announced in New York yesterday upon the formation of this company. The new service will enable passengers to engage an airplane by telephone to hop from one city to another or for short pleasure cruises, according to the plans.

The company's program also includes the establishing of aviation schools and service stations throughout the country. The new concern has been developed by the Curtiss Airplane company and allied interests.

MINNEAPOLIS CHICAGO ST. PAUL

BERLIN TO CALL ALLIED PARLEY TO FREE RHINE

Drafts Concrete Plan for Immediate Evacuation.

[Copyright: 1928: By The Chicago Tribune.]

GENEVA, Sept. 6.—A five power conference to examine Germany's proposals, submitted yesterday to Foreign Minister Aristide Briand of France for complete evacuation of the Rhineland, will be held here within a week if preliminary conversations now going on mature.

Foreign Minister Briand will return the German Chancellor Hermann Mueller's courtesy call tomorrow for further pourparlers concerning Germany's urgent request for liberation of the Rhine bridgeheads in compensation for quick settlement of the reparations question.

Meantime M. Briand and Herr Mueller directly and through intermediaries are sounding out the London, Brussels, and Rome governments, and Lord Cushendun of England, Paul Hymans of Belgium, and Sig. Scialoja of Italy here.

German to Request Parley.

Chancellor Mueller, it is said, will invite delegates from France, Great Britain, Belgium, and Italy to meet him in the Hotel Metropole within a few days for oral discussion of the tentative general proposal, which he submitted yesterday.

Meanwhile, Wilhelmstrasse is drafting a detailed and concrete memorandum, which will be sent to the four interested governments, confirming the reich's viewpoint and elaborating on the offer of compensation which Germany is ready to make to free the fatherland of foreign military garrisons.

Lithuania Ties Up League.

Dictator Augustinas Waldemaras's long exposé of the Lithuanian government's grievances against Poland today tied up the council of the league of nations until late. The Kovno chief of state accused the Poles of trying to lull Lithuania into sleeping on the Vilna question and insisted that relations between the two countries will never be restored to normalcy until the lost capital is returned.

"The Warsaw government has filed claims of $7,000,000 against us for the maintenance of Gen. Zeligowski's army, which illegally seized Vilna from us," said M. Waldemaras.

The Lithuanian premier also charged certain members with seeking to intimidate him and taking sides with Poland instead of being impartial. He demanded the council not to discuss the case in his absence.

Would Settle Reparations.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Sept. 6.—Germany aims at an international conference to settle the Rhineland problem and the reparations question. The interview yesterday between Foreign Minister Aristide Briand and Chancellor Mueller did not prove satisfactory to the Germans, for M. Briand said before replying to the German chancellor that he would have to inform the allied governments.

The Germans are anxious to do their own informing, and hence are preparing to circulate a memorandum among the allied powers detailing the German case for immediate and complete evaculation of the Rhineland, in view of the fact that Germany has fulfilled its obligations under the Versailles pact.

The suggestion from Foreign Minister Eduard Benes of Czecho-Slovakia for the issue of a European loan to absorb part of Germany's reparation payments arouses great attention on the part of German officials, but Herr Schacht, the reichsbank president, is skeptical of the possibility of such a loan in the present state of the European financial market.

N. U. SLAYER TO FACE TRIAL ON SEPTEMBER 24

David Shanks, colored slayer of Miss Jennie Meta Constance, post graduate student at Northwestern university, will go to trial on Sept. 24, it was decided yesterday by Judge Denis J. Normoyle of the Criminal court. Shanks confessed killing Miss Constance, whose body was found in Evanston on Aug. 8.

Attorney Henry Ferguson, representing Shanks, asked for a continuance of four or five weeks, to prepare his case. Assistant State's Attorney Harold Levy, however, insisted that the murder was a flagrant one and that the defendant should be speedily tried. The judge said that Sept. 24 would give the defense plenty of time to obtain any witnesses material to the defense of the slayer.

PLAN IRISH PORT SAVING 2 DAYS CROSSING OCEAN

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

DUBLIN, Sept. 6.—Plans for the creation of an Atlantic sea and air port at Galway bay are being revived by a syndicate of Irish business men who have the support of the Irish Free State government. Agents will soon try to interest American capitalists and shippers in the project.

Only five miles of new railway is needed to connect with the main line from Galway to Dublin, and plans include the construction of a large aviation field close to the port. The promoters hope that, if the plan goes through, the Atlantic voyage will be cut by two days, and from the shipping point of view it is estimated that six ships giving constant service on the Halifax-Galway route would perform the same service now given by eight ships on the Southampton-New York route. Further time saving would be by airplane service. London could be reached by air in about four hours and Paris in about six.

The cost of the scheme is estimated at between $25,000,000 and $30,000,000. The Germans, it is said, are willing to undertake the whole scheme, but the government prefers an Irish-American group.

RHINELAND ARMY BEGINS TEST OF MECHANIZATION

Motor Units Get Task of Beating Cavalry.

BY JAY ALLEN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, Sept. 6.—Army mechanization, with its Utopian aim of curtailing the human element in warfare, will get its first serious test in the French maneuvers which began yesterday in the Rhineland under the direction of Gen. Guillaumat, commander of the army of occupation.

The cavalry, which rabid mechanizationists, most of whom are British, doom to extinction, will participate in the tests. It is British cavalry, too, the king's Royal Irish Hussars under the command of Lieut. Col. Jones.

The maneuvers are scheduled to last until Sept. 11 over the variety of terrain which the Palatinate, Rhenish Hesse, and Rhenish Prussia provide. The French forces are divided into the red army, which is moving south from the Cologne are across Moselle, and the blue, proceeding north from the Alsatian frontier through the Sarre territory.

The plan is to let the blue army have the jump on mobilization and see how, with the help of motor lorries, motorized artillery can move rapidly forward in an attempt to block the mobilization of the red army, the chief of which is Gen. Maurin, inspector general of the artillery.

There will be a division of cavalry of wartime strength, which exponents of motorization predict will be left behind by the main body of troops. It is well known that the German cavalry broke down completely in the early days of the advance on Belgium because of the difficulty of moving up fodder.

Motorized artillery will be put to another test—whether it is able to make speedy enough progress not only to assure safe conduct to its infantry out of the valleys into the Rhenish plain, but at the same time get into an advanced position in order to commence to hammer the red army before it is completely formed.

2 DEAD, 2 BLINDED BY POISON LIQUOR 158 ARE MADE ILL

Boys from 12 to 18 Sell Anti-Freeze Alcohol.

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—A group of youths who wanted to become rich via the great American bootleg industry have left a trail of dead, blind and ill in Old Forge, a mining hamlet near here, it was learned today.

District Attorney Harold A. Scragg began an investigation into the sale of anti-freeze alcohol by the boys over the Labor day holiday.

Pilfered from Tank.

The denatured alcohol was pilfered from a tank car on a New York, Ontario and Western switch at Old Forge last Sunday, the youths opening a vent and fishing out the liquid in milk bottles.

On Labor day, with miners ready to celebrate the holiday by making merry, the boys found a ready market for their product. A volunteer firemen's picnic brought in outsiders who purchased much of the poisonous stuff. All were amazed but not too inquisitive at the youngsters' prices, which ranged from ten cents to 25 cents a quart.

Victims Leave Large Families.

Alex Hydralick, 38, father of ten children, and Andrew Govel, 40, father of nine, are dead from imbibing the liquor. Last night George Maciek, 38, and Mrs. Mary Knoff, 55, were stricken permanently blind, and a checkup of other imbibers revealed three cases of temporary blindness, and 155 other persons suffering from stomach poisoning.

The guilty youths, numbering more than a dozen and ranging in age from 12 to 18 years, although under surveillance, had not been arrested late today.

CIVIL SERVICE IS EFFECTIVE TODAY FOR DRY AGENTS

Reorganization of the entire local prohibition enforcement personnel by placing it under civil service regulations will begin today with the elimination of the agents who failed to pass the examination given them a year ago, Administrator E. C. Yellowley announced yesterday.

Arrival of a list composed of the names of nearly 200 eligibles, many of whom have not been engaged in prohibition work, started the process of putting the dry agents on a civil service rating. From this list Mr. Yellowley will appoint in the neighborhood of 170 men for active service in Illinois, Iowa and eastern Wisconsin. Several of the agents, who entered the department with a civil service rating, were reappointed yesterday when the list showed that they had passed the character qualifications.

Agents now on the force but who failed in the examination will be summarily dropped from service and their places taken by appointees from among the eligibles, it was said. The number of the local drys who were unable to satisfactorily explain the proper procedure for raids or who did not measure up otherwise is said to constitute a large share of Mr. Yellowley's men.

Before being placed on the eligible list, those who successfully passed the mental tests were carefully scrutinized by special intelligence agents of the internal revenue department, Mr. Yellowley said. The latter bureau was taken out of prohibition work recently by the creation of another inspectors' department, delegated to check the dry staff.

One of the difficulties in the path of the reorganization is said to be the shortage of eligible names, not only on the local list, but in other districts. A second examination for the position of prohibition agents, to be held within the next two months, has been announced for the purpose of enlarging the number of men from whom the administrator can choose.

The prompt action of Mr. Yellowley will make the Chicago district the first one in the country to be placed on a civil service rating. The effect of the reappointments, it was said, will be to sever a number of men from the service who owed their jobs to their political bosses.

Appointee Under Wilson Comes Out for Hoover

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—(AP)—Henry Breckenridge of New York, who served as assistant secretary of war under President Wilson, today informed Chairman Work of the Republican national committee that he intended to vote for Herbert Hoover for President.

New Jersey Labor Pledges Wet Candidates Support

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 6.—(AP)—The New Jersey State Federation of Labor today had on record a resolution condemning the eighteenth amendment and pledging support in the next election to any candidate who favors its modification. The resolution was adopted here yesterday.

DRY AGENTS RAID HUGE DISTILLERY; OPERATORS FLEE

Protected by a lookout concealed in a tree, operators of a huge wildcat distillery located in a barn on the outskirts of Glenwood, Ill., yesterday evaded a squad of special prohibition agents. The distillery, which was capable of producing hundreds of gallons of alcohol a day, was composed of four stills and vats holding 200,000 gallons of mash.

Dwight E. Avis, leader of the agents, stated that the owners of the still are known and will be under arrest soon. Evidence found in the building connects the distillery with the conspiracy case which the agents are building up in Chicago Heights, it was said. In the latter city a total of 30 arrests have been made, following raids on 15 stills.

In three raids yesterday agents under George H. Hurlburt seized liquor in the R. & N. drug store, 545 South Wabash avenue, and in the restaurant next door, at 543 South Wabash avenue. On a farm near Bensonville, Ill., the agents found two 275 gallon stills.

LUTHERANS LINK PRESIDENCY AND POPE IN WARNING

Find Papal Claims and U. S. Ideals Opposed.

Columbus, O., Sept. 6.—(AP)—A resolution referring to the approaching presidential election and declaring that "the peculiar allegiance that a faithful Catholic owes toward a foreign sovereign, may clash with the best interests of the country," was adopted here today by the National Lutheran Editors' association.

The resolution voiced support of the principle of separation of church and state, but urged editors to take no stand either for Herbert Hoover or Gov. Smith in the campaign.

It was adopted after the association, composed of editors of publications reaching about 2,000,000 readers, had made known its attitude toward a Catholic President in a statement drawn up by Dr. C. R. Tappert of Philadelphia and adopted by the association. Dr. Tappert is editor of "the Lutherischer Herald."

Set Forth Issue.

The statement declared:

"If it were a matter only of the personal religion of the candidate, it would be contrary to the spirit of our constitution to prejudice a man because of his church affiliation. The situation, however, is peculiar because of claims, teachings and principles of the Roman Catholic church which are antagonistic to and irreconcilable with the fundamental principles set forth in the constitution of our country, such as: the opposition of this church to the toleration by the state of any religion other than the Roman Catholic, its denial of the right of individual judgment, liberty of conscience and freedom of worship, the claim that the worldly government is in duty bound not only to assist, support and protect exclusively the Roman Catholic church, but to suppress, if necessary by force, every other religion.

Claims Not Now Enforced.

"Allowance may be made for the temporary suspension of the actual enforcement of such claims and principles, but they are recognized ideals, the realization of which must be the aim and constant endeavor of every faithful Catholic.

"The situation is further peculiar because of the allegiance a faithful Catholic owes, according to the teachings of his church, towards a foreign sovereign who claims supremacy also in secular affairs, and who has worldwide political interests of his own which may severely clash with the best interests of our country.

"It becomes the duty of our church papers to give to their readers reliable information as to the attitude of the Roman Catholic church towards the authority of the worldly government; to counteract misinformation and to correct false and misleading innuendoes, statements, and impressions.

Let Readers Decide.

"The church papers, however, will not and need not advise their readers how to vote, but must leave this to their own intelligent and conscientious judgment."

Publications represented by members of the association are those of the United Lutheran Church in America, and Austana Augustana synod (Swedish), the Norwegian Lutheran Church in America, the United Danish church, the Danish church, the joint synod of Ohio and other states, and the Iowa Synod Evangelical Lutheran.

COOLIDGE RESCUES ROD FROM PACKING FRENZY AND GOES A-FISHING

Superior, Wis., Sept. 6.—(AP)—His summer home in a turmoil of packing, President Coolidge made himself scarce around Cedar Island lodge today and devoted one of his last vacation days to more fishing.

With departure for Washington scheduled for early next week, Mr. Coolidge this morning found his fishing tackle in a heap of things destined for burial today in a deep trunk.

Hastily rescuing his rod and line, the President summoned his guide and canoe and was off for one of the private lakes on the Cedar Island lodge estate, where he is still allowed by state game laws to fish trout.

MOTORIST KILLED BY TRAIN.

Plymouth, Ind., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—John Sult, 77, Hamlet, Ind., was killed today when a coupe he was driving was struck by the Pennsylvania Flyer.

SMITH LIQUOR PLAN IS FUTILE, CURTIS WARNS

Salem, Mass., Sept. 6.—(AP)—Senator Curtis, the Republican Vice Presidential nominee, told a Republican rally here today that the Democrats would be unable to go through with the state control liquor program of Gov. Smith because of the "impossibility" of amending the constitution.

In his second attack on the liquor scheme of the Democratic presidential nominee, Senator Curtis reiterated that the Democrats are "trying to fool you," and he added, "don't grab at the straw because it won't hold."

The crowd, mostly women, gave scattering applause to prohibition remarks.

In this city, where linger tales of witch burning, the Kansas senator declared that "this is a free country and every one in it has a right to worship God according to his own dictates." He added that "no party has an edge on patriotism," and called for "a straight out campaign."

U. S. PROSPERITY BUILT ON TARIFF, G. O. P. DECLARES

Warns Democratic Plan Is Unsound.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—That the structure of modern American business is built on high wages and that these wages cannot be maintained under the competitive tariff proposals of the Democratic party, is the main argument in the Republican national committee's text book on the tariff made public today.

Holding the tariff and the continuation of prosperity as the great issue, the national committee will seek to win New England to the Hoover-Curtis banner in a campaign of education which will be pushed from now on. Franklin W. Fort, New Jersey congressman and secretary of the committee, began speaking in Massachusetts yesterday on this issue, warning that the Democratic position on the tariff would mean yielding a share of American markets to European producers.

Find Fault with Smith.

Despite the business men who have come to the support of Gov. Smith, the Republican chieftains take the attitude that the Democratic purpose is to reduce the tariff without regard to the protective principle. This, it is maintained, would touch the welfare of every American home.

The textbook gives a complete analysis of the tariff question and gives quotations from Herbert Hoover to show his complete support of the protective principle. President Coolidge has been concerned for a year or more over the subtle attacks which he has seen against the protective tariff.

Wage earners..	3,000,000	4,700,000	8,400,000
Total payroll..	1 billion	2 billion	11 billion
Annual av. wage.....	$333	$425	$1,300

A trade table prepared by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce shows that since the Fordney McCumber tariff law was placed on the books that American imports have increased 63 per cent.

Richer Market Than Ever.

"Since the Republican party came into power less than eight years ago," the text book states, "the United States has become, actually and relatively, a richer market than ever before. Our national income has increased from $55,000,000,000 to $79,000,000,000. The consumption of products of farm, factory, forest and mine, either in the form of raw material or finished products, has increased 25 per cent.

"The high purchasing power which characterizes the American people is due to their high wages. It should be kept in mind that high wages are the result of industrial properity, not the cause of it; they are the aftermath of steady employment, not the forerunner. We have high wages and a correspondingly high purchasing power because our industries are prosperous. Our industries are prosperous because confident of the stability of their home market due to a protective tariff, they can adopt mass production methods, which they could not do if they were in a state of uncertainty and produced on a hand to mouth basis."

Increase in Savings.

Increase in savings deposits during the last six years, membership in building and loan associations, the number of industrial insurance policies, are cited as proof of the solid growth of this system.

Stress is laid on the fact that a competitive tariff sets up cheapness as a standard of perfection in the economic world. Prosperity under such a standard would be a difficult goal.

"The underlying philosophy of a 'competitive tariff'" the text book states, "is fallacious and dangerous and whenever applied in the United States it has proved destructive of national and individual prosperity and has retarded human progress."

LA FOLLETTE AID ANNOUNCES HE IS FOR AL SMITH

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—Edwin J. Gross, for many years a close friend of the late Senator La Follette and long a power in the inner councils of the Wisconsin progressive movement, announced today in a letter to John M. Callahan, Wisconsin member of the Democratic national committee, that he would support Gov. Al Smith for President.

Mr. Gross says: "Gov. Smith has more of Lincoln's human understanding and more love for the common people than any man who has been a presidential candidate since Lincoln's time. Today you cannot think of the Republican party without thinking of graft, corruption, dishonor, and federal penitentiaries.

"Mr. Hoover has not defended the rascalities of his former political associtès, but with knowledge of their guilt he has failed to condemn them and makes no promise, if elected, to keep men of their like out of his administration."

REED, NAMED ON FARMER-LABOR TICKET, RAGES

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 6.—(AP)—After the presidential nomination tendered him by the executive committee of the Farmer-Labor party had been accepted today by Col. Frank Elbridge Webb of San Francisco, Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, who was offered the vice presidential candidacy of the party, flatly declined it.

"I am not running on the Farmer-Labor ticket or any other ticket," the senator declared in a long-distance telephone conversation from Sayner, Wis., where he is fishing, to the Kansas City Star.

"I am positively astounded," Reed added, with emphasis. "I never dreamed of such action. I am for Al Smith and the Democratic party."

With selection of only half a ticket completed, in view of Senator Reed's declination of the nomination, the committee planned to stay in session until its work is finished. It was convened yesterday.

Few homes are exactly alike in their heating requirements. What may give your neighbor complete satisfaction may place a handicap on your heating system.

In the past few years many successful methods of burning oil satisfactorily have been developed.

Never before have all accepted models of oil burners been offered to you by one manufacturer. The American Nokol Corporation is in the unique position of being able to make recommendations without prejudice in favor of one particular model.

Manufacturers have in the past compelled their dealers to base their claims on one particular model of oil burning equipment, which naturally allowed prejudice to enter into their recommendations.

Our recommendations are based on your actual heating requirements, for we have no manufacturing limitations. With a Noiseless Nokol you are assured that you have the correct burner for your particular needs, a burner backed by twelve years of successful engineering development.

The American Nokol Corporation is the pioneer in Automatic Oil Heating Equipment for the home, and is the world's oldest and soundest manufacturer of automatic oil burners.

There is a Noiseless Nokol for every home and for every industrial heating requirement, at a range of price to fit every purse.

NAVY TO CLINCH 16 SHIPS BEFORE ASKING FOR MORE

Short Session Holds Up Adequate Program.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—Because of difficulties sure to be encountered in attempting to push a new and adequate naval building program through a short session of congress, naval officials have decided to concentrate this winter on securing the enactment of the pending sixteen ship bill, authorizing 15 cruisers and one aircraft carrier.

At the opening of the last session of congress Secretary Wilbur submitted a program calling for twenty-five 10,000 ton cruisers, thirty-five submarines, nine destroyer leaders, and five aircraft carriers. Pacifist opposition cut this program down to a bill providing for fifteen 10,000 ton eight inch gun cruisers and one 13,500 ton aircraft carrier. This measure passed the house with a large vote, but Boulder dam and other legislation blocked its approval by the senate.

Hope to Get Funds, Too.

An attempt will be made, it was learned today, to push the sixteen ship measure through the senate early in the session so that funds can be provided in either the regular appropriation bill or the final deficiency bill for beginning the construction of five of the vessels in 1929. Efforts also will be made to persuade congress to appropriate funds for commencing construction on four additional destroyer leaders authorized in 1916 but never appropriated for.

Should the above program go through without a hitch the navy would have a total building program calling for the addition of twenty-three cruisers, five submarines, and eight destroyer leaders to the fleet; eight cruisers now building will be completed in 1929, 1930, and 1931; two submarines within the near future and the destroyer leaders within the next four years. The fifteen cruisers, if authorized, would be constructed in six years if appropriations were made available.

U. S. Would Still Lag Behind.

Even if the sixteen ship cruiser bill goes through and congress appropriates for the four additional destroyer leaders, the highest naval officials feel it would be absolutely necessary in the interests of adequate national defense on the high seas to adopt a new cruiser, submarine, and destroyer building program during the session of congress beginning December, 1929. This projected legislation would call for ten more of the 10,000 ton Washington treaty type cruisers, at least one destroyer leader, and numerous submarines and destroyers. More aircraft carriers would be asked for.

The cruisers will be asked for in order to give this country sufficient of these ships to protect the fleet, focal points such as the Panama canal, the Hawaiian zone, and principal American ocean ports. Admiral Charles F. Hughes, chief of naval operations, estimates the cruiser needs of the United States at forty-three. The navy has ten built, eight building, and fifteen are provided for in the pending authorization bill.

OPENING OF RIVER DAM OBSERVED AT FETE TODAY

Citizens and officials of villages along the Desplaines river will gather this afternoon at the Lyons bridge in Riverside to celebrate the unclogging of that river.

President Timothy J. Crowe of the sanitary district will be there with Trustees James M. Whalen and Henry A. Berger, and John C. Lewe, president of the Desplaines River Conservation league.

Sanitary district workmen, protected by Riverside police, have constructed a sluiceway around the Hoffman dam to drain the upper reaches of the Desplaines. For years residents in the valley have tried to open the dam, but George Hoffman, owner of the site, resisted, despite the collection there of sewage. So the sanitary district was prevailed on to dig a hundred foot sluice around the dam. This afternoon at 2:30 the up-river flood was to have been loosed through the new channel.

But no flood will be loosed. George Hoffman opened his dam yesterday.

FIND BODY IN CANAL.

The body of an unidentified man about 40 years old was taken from the drainage canal at 31st street and Crawford avenue yesterday and sent to the county morgue.

SALTIS IS STILL ELUSIVE; POLICE NAB CHAUFFEUR

The police were unable to find Joe Saltis, south side beer baron yesterday on his 110th day of liberty since the Supreme court ordered his incarceration for gun toting, but they did locate his chauffeur, Joseph Kramer. The latter was found in Saltis' expensive car at Fifty-fifth street and Racine avenue.

110

Kramer was tanned and appeared to have just returned from a sojourn at one of the lake resorts. The police believe he was in the company of Saltis, but this he denied when questioned at the station. Saltis is wanted to serve a 60 day bridewell sentence and pay a $50 fine.

When arrested Kramer had $600 in his possession. Sergt. Dan Healy of the detective bureau, who made the arrest, commented that it appeared as though Kramer was on a collecting tour.

TRAIN WRECK STARTS FIRE.

Mount Vernon, Ind., Sept. 6.—[U. P.]—Eleven cars of a Louisville and Nashville freight train fell through a bridge near here today. Sparks from crashing steel ignited a tank car of gasoline, which set the bridge afire.

FAHERTY USES CONCRETE, BUT NOT ON TOUHY

Others may have their asphalt, and some have to take it willy nilly, but Michael J. Faherty, president of the board of local improvements paves his own streets with concrete, the complaint of Attorney William R. Wiley set forth yesterday. The reason for the comparison is that Faherty insists Touhy avenue be paved with asphalt, against the wishes of residents of Rogers Park.

"Mr. Faherty is in the real estate business and recently turned a cow pasture into a subdivision in Niles Center," Attorney Wiley asserted "You may be sure the pavements there are concrete, but it's different when the Touhy avenue property owners want concrete. We just don't get it and Faherty says we can take asphalt or leave it."

In addition to this bit of enlightment regarding Mr. Faherty there was his own announcement of yesterday that he will no longer hire lawyers for himself, but his son, Roger, will henceforth look after the legal affairs of the Faherty family. He said his bill for the expert fee trial was $128,000 and although he had good lawyers, they couldn't do him good in a "political suit."

FALL FROM LADDER IS FATAL.

ADVERTISE IN THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE

'Boo Boo' Bought Artillery for Gangsters, Aid Admits

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—Definite identification of Max [Boo Boo] Hoff, alleged bootleg king, as the buyer of machine guns and bullet proof vests was made today in the grand jury's inquiry into rum running, police bribery and gang warfare.

Edward S. Goldberg, a Market street storekeeper, collapsed under persistent grilling and gave District Attorney Monahan an eight page signed statement to the effect that Hoff, former prize fight promoter, had personally ordered artillery and vests of the type used with gang murders here, had paid for them personally and had received them in his hotel suite.

Goldberg was a defiant witness before the grand jury yesterday. After spending several hours in a police station, held in $10,000 bail for perjury, he issued his statement.

Fears for His Life.

"Goldberg told us," said Assistant District Attorney L. B. Schofield, "that he had lied to us and to the grand jury at first because he was afraid to tell the truth. We had learned that Goldberg had sold machine guns and bullet proof vests to Max Hoff. In the records we seized at Goldberg's place yesterday, we found a telegram from Goldberg to Hoff, and when confronted with this and other evidence, Goldberg capitulated and agreed to tell the truth.

"He then gave us a detailed statement which has been taken down by a stenographer. This eight page statement Goldberg swore to as the whole and solemn truth regarding his transactions with Hoff. He told us that Hoff personally ordered, bought and paid for machine guns and bullet proof vests and that on one occasion Hoff ordered and paid for three machine guns which were delivered into the hands of one 'Boot' Miller, now a fugitive and wanted for murder.

Linked to Gang Slaying.

Some of the purchases, according to the district attorney, were made a few days before the murder of John Bricker and the wounding of his leader, "Micky" Duffyn, notorious gang leader, in February, 1927.

The district attorney said he had documentary evidence that disclosed the distribution of 350,000 gallons of pure alcohol from a Philadelphia distilling plant to all parts of the United States.

The grand jury will appear tomorrow before Judge Edwin O. Lewis to report its findings. Whether any indictments might be expected at that time was not disclosed tonight.

Single Vote Decides One Wisconsin Primary Fight

Jefferson, Wis., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—Closest of the contests in Tuesday's primaries in Jefferson county was in the race for the Republican nomination for district attorney, one vote deciding the issue. Harold Hartwig, Watertown, won the nomination with a total of 2,963 votes, while Sheldon Vance, Fort Atkinson, polled 2,962.

CRUSHED BY FREIGHT CAR, DIES.

Injuries suffered Aug. 20 when he was crushed between a freight car and an electric light pole at Eightieth street and Stewart avenue, yesterday caused the death of William Jamble, 8621 Vernon avenue.

A NEW BANK AND A NEW OPPORTUNITY.

The expected merger of the Illinois Merchants Trust company and the Continental and Commercial National bank will give Chicago its first billion dollar bank. Chicago will have the largest banking institution west of New York and the second or third largest bank in the country.

The merger is important both as a fact and as a symbol. The middle west formerly looked to the accumulated capital of western Europe for funds. More recently the middle west has depended upon Wall street. The time has come when middle western agriculture, industry, and transportation can be financed at home. We can declare our financial independence. Chicago today finances the world trade in breadstuffs. We are accumulating capital rapidly, as the growth of investment houses in Chicago testifies. There is no field in which our money can be more safely or more profitably employed than in creating new wealth in our own inland empire. At the same time there is no way by which the future of Chicago can be made more secure than by the creation here of one of the great financial centers of the world.

The creation of the new bank will act as a stimulus to all Chicago bankers. It is to be hoped that as one result of the merger, Chicago will be made the financial as well as the operating headquarters of the western railroads. It is to our banks that the railroads should look for new money and it is in our banks that railroad funds should be held.

The $20,000,000 bond issue for the creation of a state-wide system of fishing and hunting grounds which was authorized in an act of the state legislature will be submitted to a referendum of the voters on Nov. 6. Defeat of the proposal is urged by Shelby M. Singleton of the Citizens' association and of the Legislative Voters' league. Its approval is urged by Dr. P. R. Blodgett, national director of the Izaak Walton League of America.

THE TRIBUNE advocates outdoor recreation and the establishment of parks, preserves, and all other facilities for the enjoyment of those who are subjected to the sedentary necessities of the city routine. We believe, however, that the $20,000,000 bond issue is an ill-advised project.

THE TRIBUNE is in sympathy with the program of the Izaak Walton league to conserve the streams and woodlands of the country, to dedicate them for community use, to foster an out-of-door sentiment. We suspect, however, that the Izaak Walton league has adopted this $20,000,000 baby without a critical scrutiny of its parentage and of its own inherent faults. We suspect that a crasser breed of sportsmen have attempted to give their offspring respectable standing by handing it to the Izaak Walton league.

It was commonly known that the league was prepared to lobby at Springfield for a $5,000,000 proposal which would contain specific provisions for the purchase and maintenance of game lands. Along came Mayor Thompson. In his kit, in addition to the traction and bonding power bills, he carried the $20,000,000 fishing and hunting grounds scheme, a grand plan, the inspiration of midnight palavers in the now submerged and interdicted Fish Fans' club in Belmont harbor. This project became the Fish Fans' bond issue and the conservative appeal of the league was swept aside in the wave of grandeur. Now the Fish Fans' club is sunk. Chicago won't vote a nickel for a Thompson proposal. And the Izaak Walton league holds the bag.

The act which was steam-rollered through a supine assembly is vague and loosely constructed. There is no stipulation describing the land which shall be purchased for preserves nor is there a general provision adequately describing the sort of land to be acquired. It is advanced as a "great conservation measure," but the act leaves us in ignorance of just what property is to be conserved.

Literature advocating the approval of the bond issue sets up that every one of the 102 Illinois counties will receive an average preserve of 2,500 acres. That would represent a total of 255,000 acres for the entire state—an average, if the entire revenue were applied to the purchase of land, of less than $80 an acre. There may be waste land available at that price, but it is unreasonable to suppose that 2,500 acres may be acquired in each county for that sum. Speculators, we understand, are already busy.

Certainly there is little $80 land in Cook county, and, in fact, little acreage suitable for fishing and hunting which is not now occupied by preserves. Chicago and Cook county would again foot the bill with nothing to show for its altruism.

The bonded indebtedness of the state should not be increased for such an unsound venture. The issuance of bonds to finance a project is not a substitute for paying for that project.

Hunting in Illinois is a sport restricted to a small portion of men. There are virtually no huntresses. Fishing has an almost equally limited appeal. It is true that the establishment of large areas of easily accessible game preserves might popularize this mode of recreation. But such a venture would be experimental. It would be wiser to provide for the needs of anglers and hunters with an annual appropriation—$1,000,000 a year would be ample—to be met in so far as possible by license revenue and the balance to be paid, frankly, from the general fund. Such a budgeted program would furnish an instrument for the judicious selection of preserves and their maintenance. It would prevent the jealous and mercenary scramble which would almost surely follow if $20,000,000 should be made available for the indiscriminate acquisition of property.

GENERAL VOTERS, INC.

The organizing genius of Mr. Raskob of General Motors is already apparent in the plans of the Democratic party for getting out the vote. Just as refrigerators and Oldsmobiles have their separate selling organizations, so there is to be a college headquarters, a naturalized citizens' headquarters, a new voters' headquarters, and other similar divisions, each with its executive head in New York. They are to act independently of each other. Each division is to have its own chairman in each state and each state chairman is to have his own county chairman for his particular work in every county of his state.

This arrangement is admirably adapted to the peculiar problem confronting the Democrats at this election. It will avoid all sorts of difficulties. The only criticism of the plan is that it does not go far enough in its endeavor to present the Democratic appeal in air-tight packages, designed for individual consumption.

There is to be one farm headquarters. There ought to be two. One headquarters would put out an attractive line of the 1929 model McNary-Haugen bill, guaranteed by Mr. George N. Peek himself. It would be distributed through the corn belt. The other headquarters would put out a rival article designed for Tammany farmers who want their bread as well as their beer to be cheap. This article might also find a ready market in Wisconsin, where the dairy farmers want low priced feed. The creation of two headquarters would avoid the present difficulty under which Gov. Smith and his party are laboring. They would not, then, have to decide whether they were for or against the McNary-Haugen bill. They could be both at once.

The same method could well be applied in other directions. Mr. Robinson could be spared the pain of proving that Gov. Smith is a dry if there were a Democratic dry headquarters and a Democratic wet headquarters. The bright colored package prepared for Harlem and the near south side of Chicago, of course, would not be distributed to Democrats south of the Ohio river, where they feel somewhat differently regarding the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments. Likewise the Democratic policies toward immigration could be presented in one form on the east side and in another in what are thought of as the Anglo-Saxon constituencies.

Mr. Raskob has had much experience in supplying an article to meet every purse. He is now engaged in an endeavor to provide a party for every voter. It must be said for Mr. Raskob that he is attacking his problem in precisely the right way. We offer the additional suggestion that he change the name of the Democratic party to General Voters, Inc.

LUN LO SEES RED.

The bland statement that Chinese students in the United States are disciples of Russian communism was made by Lun Lo, chairman of the Chinese Students' alliance, which is conducting a forum at Northwestern university. Mr. Lo's naive observation offers either an argument against opening the doors of our educational institutions to youngsters of an unsocial alien heritage or an exposé of abuse of influence by persuasive pinks on university faculties.

We are inclined to believe that Mr. Lo has fallen in with a group of nonathletic, anæmic, bespectacled young men and women of feverish intellect, preoccupied with ideals so long as those ideals have no relation to experience and are incompatible with American practice and tradition. These undergraduates are ripe for the bold (until his opinions appear in print) pacifist professor, for the communist devotee, for the socialist, and faculty advocates of other more specialized erratic isms.

Whether these faculty pinks are proselytizers or whether they merely seek an attentive and plastic audience for their crack brained theories, they attract coteries of fond undergraduates. Their doctrines are an easy substitute for logical, coherent scholarship. Their sympathetic reception to immature absurdities induces a feeling of superiority among their protégés.

Perhaps Mr. Lo and his Chinese colleagues held a preconceived attachment for communism. We think it more likely that the Chinese students traveled eastward to find the theories of communism advanced by doctrinaires in American universities. Mr. Lo seems to have stated quite frankly from the platform the notions that have been fixed in his mind by the professors with whom he has come into closest contact. Oriental students, as a rule, come here to study and emulate American institutions. It is a severe criticism that the most vivid impression of America to Mr. Lo is the fact that American students are encouraged to communism by their apparently most stimulating professors.

Editorial of the Day

THE FREEDOM OF THE SEAS.

[The Manchester Guardian.]

The freedom of the seas is a misleading name for an antiquated and dangerous doctrine. Neither the name nor the doctrine is improved by the use made of them by Mr. Bridgeman on Saturday. In plain terms, when we talk of the freedom of the seas we are asserting the right of Great Britain to deny in time of war this freedom to other nations, a thing which under modern conditions we almost certainly have not the power to do. The United States have always claimed that, in time of war as at other times, the flag should cover the cargo, and have protested against Great Britain's refusal to admit the rights of neutral shipping. When Mr. Bridgeman reiterates that without the freedom of the seas Great Britain can be starved in two months he seems to put himself in the category of those who learn nothing, whatever they may forget. Perhaps, however, he may recall that it was the British assertion of this doctrine that nearly made the United States our opponent rather than our ally in the years of the war. It is still this claim, absurdly enough, which prevents understanding between this country and the United States. Yet it seems fairly obvious that the American doctrine which we dispute is precisely the doctrine which in time of war would be preëminently to our interest. If the flag covers the cargo, then Great Britain can never be starved, and the attempt to starve her out would at once bring in the United States on her side.

FLIES AS GERM CARRIERS.

Flies can carry any germs which can stick to them. This makes them dangerous. A given mosquito can carry only one kind of germ. In certain parts of the country there are yellow fever mosquitoes that have been harmless for nearly fifty years simply because there was no yellow fever for them to carry, and in no other way could they infect the human animal.

Again, flies are in and out of everything. They have an equal nose for filth and for human food. That makes them dangerous. There is but one kind of experience by which a malarial mosquito can infect man. Therefore let us not forget the relationship of the fly to disease, even though it is not the factor in public health that it once was.

A certain amount of typhoid fever is fly-borne. The studies by Vaughan and his colleagues showed that flies were responsible for much or most of the typhoid at Chickamauga in 1898. While 1928 is not 1898 and there are no more Chickamaugas, a considerable part of such typhoid as we have is spread by flies.

Levy proved that a good part of the infantile diarrheas are spread by flies. One effective procedure for which he was responsible was the placing of soiled diapers in flyproof cans and covering them with fly-killing antiseptics. While diarrheas are less important than they were, a safe procedure is to keep soiled diapers in flyproof containers.

Ennion Williams thinks flies spread infantile paralysis. He has shown that infantile paralysis prevails only during the fly season and in places where flies abound. On this theory fly campaigns are of service in controlling this disease. When flies are kept out of homes we lessen the chance that the children therein will contract the disease. Flies can spread tuberculosis. When they are allowed to feed on sputum from consumptives tubercle bacilli stick to their bodies.

These bacilli may be washed off in milk, causing glandular or bone tuberculosis. It is entirely possible that other disease producing bacteria can be spread by flies. They carry infection to wounds, causing suppuration and sometimes erysipelas.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.

R. O. C. writes: Some weeks ago you had an article in your column in which you called for volunteers of information and experience regarding Sedge pool itch. I think I can throw some light on the problem. The article was about some students at Ann Arbor who used to go to this pond for academic work and wading around got their feet infected with this itch.

I have lived in Florida for the last 18 years and I believe we have a similar, if not the same, trouble in our sandy lake bottoms. As you know, Florida is full of sparkling fresh water, spring fed lakes, shallow as a rule, and so we have nice swimming weather the year around. Up until two years ago I never was troubled by this torment, but somehow my feet became infected and I spent a lot of time and money seeking cures. The disease breaks out in small bubbles, usually between the toes. Upon opening them with a sterilized needle I found a clear liquid to come out. After a few days the itching was terrible. I tried many remedies and many doctors, and, in one case, the doctor applied diluted carbolic acid while his nurse assistant fanned my feet to keep me from jumping out the window.

I went to the nearby large cities to prominent skin specialists and one of them told me it was what is known as creeping eruptions; another said it was epidermic phytosis. The old established sulphur ointments and aluminum acetate washes did me no good, and finally I was absolutely cured by one shot of X-ray, given by an X-ray expert.

This trouble finally got onto my hands, on the palms and the back of my fingers; got onto my body and around my waist line. Apparently freezing is unable to kill these fungi. When I do any swimming now I go to the Atlantic or the gulf.

REPLY.

If your doctors were right your trouble was not Sedge pool itch. Creeping eruption is due to a larva which bores its way under the skin. Epidermic phytosis is due to some form of fungus growing in the skin. Ringworm is an illustration of the latter. X-ray treatment is serviceable against ringworm.

MAY HAVE POISONED HANDS.

Miss C. A. S. writes:

1. I have been troubled for three years with eczema on my hands. I have tried several treatments, but I have not found a cure as yet. It doesn't form very many water blisters any more, but the skin which was covered by the disease is soft, red and tender, which forms water blisters again as soon as I put them into much water. Please tell me of a cure.

2. Is it necessary to follow a certain diet in case of eczema? Can you assist me in the matter of a diet?

REPLY.

1. The probability is that you poisoned your hands with something in the course of the day's work. If so, you can cure yourself by finding the cause and avoiding it.

2. It does not seem that your eczema is caused by your diet.

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

SEPTEMBER 7, 1863.

VICKSBURG—A messenger from Mobile reports general consternation among the inhabitants for fear of a bombardment. The city is well fortified but deficient in troops, and the harbor defenses are very strong.

WASHINGTON.—From a deserter from Lee's army we obtain reports from the Rappahannock. He says that three brigades were embarking below Fredericksburg bound for Chattanooga to reinforce Bragg.

CINCINNATI.—A dispatch received here today announces that Gen. Burnside entered Knoxville on Sept. 4. No particulars.

PHILADELPHIA.—A passenger on the Fulton denies the statement that the rebel flag still flies over Fort Sumter. He declares that Sumter was so badly damaged by the federal bombardment as to be untenable by either side.

ST. LOUIS.—A dispatch was received at the governor's headquarters from Gen. J. M. Schofield at Kansas City in which he stated: "There will be no invasion of Missouri by the people of Kansas" in retaliation for the Lawrence massacre. The Union, however, says that the invasion has already begun.

CHICAGO.—One of the most disastrous fires that has ever visited the city occurred in the south division, laying in ashes half a block on each side of State street near Hubbard court, destroying some thirty buildings and dispossessing over eighty householders.

30 YEARS AGO TODAY

SEPTEMBER 7, 1898.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—Gov. Tanner has named Miss Daisy Leiter of Chicago as the young lady who will christen the battleship Illinois, which is to be launched at Newport News on Oct. 4. She is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Z. Leiter of Chicago.

MANILA.—At a meeting of twenty leaders of the Filipinos of all sections, called to discuss the policy of the islands, eighteen of them were emphatically in favor of outright annexation to the United States.

LONDON.—There were no wounded Mahdists left after the battle of Omdurman. Cruel and bloodthirsty as it may seem, the wounded almost without exception were massacred by the British and Egyptian soldiers. Massacred is a hard word, but it is the only one fitting. How many of the wounded dervishes were slain it will never be known. This killing has become the custom because the wounded fanatics are almost more dangerous than the well ones.

CHICAGO.—Miss Nina Alise Humiston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Humiston, 4202 Drexel boulevard, and Robert Emory Ward were married at the home of the bride's parents.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

SEPTEMBER 7, 1918.

CHICAGO.—"My men have captured the man who bombed the federal building. He is Harry Wilson, a new figure in the case." This flat statement came from State's Attorney Hoyne. Wilson's arrest followed a raid on the flat of Nina Van Zandt Spies, widow of August Spies, hanged in connection with the Haymarket riot. Mr. Hoyne declared witnesses saw Wilson at the government building carrying a heavy bundle less than ten minutes before the explosion.

LONDON.—By a powerful attack in the region east of Peronne the British crushed in the enemy positions a distance of about five miles on a twelve mile front. The fighting extended nearly to Havrincourt in the north, where important gains were achieved. As the line stands now the British are about eight miles east of the Somme. By the advances today the British are now less than ten miles from St. Quentin and further progress will put that city, one of the most important enemy bases of the Picardy sector, within cannon range.

PARIS.—The French tonight are within six miles of La Fere, twelve miles directly south of St. Quentin and about the same distance northwest of the German citadel of Laon. Ham has been captured as well as Chauny.

WASHINGTON.—The senate passed the $12,000,000 emergency agricultural appropriation bill with its rider for national prohibition from next July 1 until the American armies are demobilized. The food administration announced that the manufacture of beer and other malt liquors will be prohibited after Dec. 1 as a war measure. President Wilson's death decree for beer is based upon the need of conserving grain for stock feed.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

Hew to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

R. H. L.

REGARDING LONDON as the new fashion center, the Colonel declines positively to be involved in a fruitless controversy. But we did a little snooping yesterday and have to report that all her new duds have Grafton street Bond street, New Bond street, Dover street, Regent street, and such like tags in 'em, and darned if we can find a single Rue de la Paix or Place Vendôme tag in the lot. We thought we had the goods on her then, but women beat you every time. "Why did YOU buy your clothes in London?" said we, triumphantly. And all we got out of that was that Paris shops don't have window displays, they make a gal wait three weeks, or three months, or until they get good and ready before she can get anything, and whenever she entered a Paris shop a person who seemed to be a cross between a lady detective and a dry-snooper halted her and in cold, hard tones demanded, "DID ANY ONE SEND YOU HERE?" And she always turned and fled before they could get her finger prints and find out if she was wanted in San Francisco.

The Other Nations Wouldn't Like It.

Dick: A front page headline in Wednesday's TRIB says, "Special Rights in Kellogg Pact for All But U. S." Of course not. Why change the style of our treaties now? Jo Jo.

OUR HIGHLY ESTEEMED contemporary, the w. k. Art Brisbane, admiringly quotes Sen. Capper's statement that "The west is solid for Hoover, not a state beyond the Mississippi for Smith, except possibly Wisconsin, which is doubtful." It is also doubtful, Arthur, if Wisconsin is west of the Mississippi. However, the old Mississippi does move around considerably, so let us not be too sure. Take the matter up gently, Arthur, with Mr. Capper, and if Wisconsin is not west of the Mississippi river bawl him out something awful and tell him that he has made you wonder if the rest of his statement may not also be a trifle inaccurate.

WAITING.

O, the still night,
And O, the long day;
And O, the waiting women,
Trying to pray.

Stirring the fire,
And watching the door,
Listening for the footsteps
That come no more.

Then the quick hope,
And then the slow pain,
And afterwards, the watching
Over again.

So they were born,
And birth-starred, to be Ever and ever waiting—

ERNESTINE GUNN JOHNSON.

THE PHILADELPHIA grand jury investigation of million dollar bribes received by police from local bootleggers goes merrily on. And Wednesday "the district attorney spoke bluntly to the higher officials regarding the situation," says the Philadelphia Public Ledger. "Spoke bluntly." Well, that ought to do some good, but we're honestly afraid he'll have to slap those boys on the wrist before he'll learn 'em its naughty-naughty to accept bribes.

No Longer Needed.

TRUANT OFFICER—Why haven't you sent your son Johnny to school? Don't you want him to learn to read?

PROUD FATHER—It hain't necessary now thet we have the talking movies. OLD SOAK.

READING FARTHER DOWN we see where a casual glance at the Philadelphia rum rings accounts shows they deposited more than $10,000,000 in three banks there last year. That isn't half bad. We must remember that prohibition is still in the experimental state, and when it really gets going bootlegging may become a quite profitable industry.

The Bridegroom Finally Gets Mentioned, But It Was a Close Shave.

[From the Ogle County Reporter.]

Arboreal environment, azure sky, halcyon quiet, the softened hues of approaching sunset, with the background of green foliage shading gently into the more somber tints of early autumn fashioning, all bestowed their mete of beauty upon the event of last Saturday afternoon, when at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Laughlin, "Heather Grange," just north of this city, occurred the wedding of the only daughter of the home, Miss Lysbeth, to George S. Mix, only son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mix of Oregon.

SORROWING SADIE.

WE WEREN'T there, of course, but we remember reading somewhere that Thomas Jefferson entertained foreign ambassadors in his shirt sleeves and sox feet; Dolly Madison, who was a boarding house keeper's daughter, liked her snuff and didn't care who knew it; the author of the Monroe Doctrine used toothpicks publicly; Andrew Jackson was so fond of the smellier sorts of cheese that strong ladies fainted; Martin Van Buren liked to and did drink his coffee out of the presidential saucer; Zachary Taylor and James Buchanan thought nothing of the outward and audible signs of inward indigestion; Millard Fillmore went to sleep at state functions and snored; Abraham Lincoln opened the door to guests at the White House in his sox feet; Chester Garfield carried an ivory ear pick in his weskit pocket; Theodore Roosevelt turned his back on guests he didn't like; Warren G. Harding—(but, oh, my dear, have you read The President's Daughter?); and Calvin Coolidge has been known to stuff his pockets full of oranges and bananas on leaving a banquet. Anyway, what we started to say when we got all mixed up with our reading was that the whispering campaign now proposes to defeat the Happy Warrior by claiming that he lacks the "social attributes necessary to grace the White House." Is it a knock or a boost?

THE BANKS OF THE WABASH.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—Just back from a two weeks' trip through Indiana, where I found out how wicked and immoral we are in Chicago. I've heard all the variants of the pineapple joke.

But, bad as we are in Chicago, we have yet to sanction the taking of candy away from the children as they do in the Hoosier state. They do it in every place in that most law abiding state. Slot machines, in candy stores, in filling stations, everywhere. In big cities. In crossroad hamlets. Everywhere in every building but the churches and railway depots.

We call certain places disorderly houses in Chicago. They call them hostesses' houses in this law abiding state. We call certain places gambling houses, but in Indiana they are casinos. Every one of these places, which we close when we find them in Chicago, are run with the protection of the kleagles, the chairmen of the horse thief association, or the heads of leagues opposed to saloons. What we call vice here in Chicago goes under the name of recreation in Hoosierdom.

I find the ambition of every Hoosier gal is to run around with Chicago racketeers and live in a kitchenette apartment. The ambition of every Hoosier is to be a habitué of Chicago's dives.

But I'm going back to Indiana. I'm going to organize another [illegible] society. I'll clean up, for in addition to a burlesque makeup I'll give each member a tin whistle and a rattle. Indiana, you are my oyster. I'll go after your adults, but I'll let your own people take away the children's candies. That is too much for a hard boiled Chicagoan.

BERT L. PERRY.

SACCO-VANZETTI ECHO.

Yellowstone Park, Wyo., Aug. 25.—Your excellent editorial of Aug. 22 entitled "Sacco-Vanzetti Day" has been read here by residents of Massachusetts, like myself, with much appreciation of its justice since the great majority of the citizens of our commonwealth must have been reminded on Aug. 23 of the lamentable fact that the would-be murderers of the wife and children of one of the jurymen on that case, by the bombing of his house in Milton, have not yet been apprehended and brought to trial, an omission which apparently troubles very little the "so-called" intellectual radical who was so disturbed when three federal judges refused to interfere with the decision of the courts of Massachusetts.

ROBERT WALCOTT.

A VICIOUS BUREAUCRACY.

Chicago, Aug. 22.—The public is well aware of the so-called enforcement division of the treasury department, with its long trail of crimes under the name of the law. But the tax bureau, if anything, is more lawless and tyrannical, and it operates with all the sinister and questionable methods of a bureaucracy, which it is.

In this bureau they promulgate rules which have the effect of law that affects the rights and liberty of the citizen. They have become a star chamber in the federal government. Upon an indignant citizen's resenting an invasion of his rights, which every true American should do, they show their power and their disregard of his rights by charging him with fraud and instituting a criminal action against him. Certainly the exercise of such arbitrary power does not reflect credit on the cabinet, which ought to be responsible for the operations of its administrative departments and safeguard the citizen from attacks by their subordinates.

A citizen's reputation, or his estate, or both, may depend on the whim, favor, or bias of those who rule this bureau. This is not government by law. It is government by caprice or impulse and foreign to our chartered rights.

J. P. C.

THE RELIGIOUS ISSUE.

Manitowoc, Wis., Aug. 30.—If THE TRIBUNE is interested in keeping religion out of politics why print a cartoon such as McCutcheon's in the Aug. 28 issue of your paper? Certainly the best way to eliminate the religious issue is to give it no publicity. The press largely molds the public opinion and if such publicity as this is given it brings religion conspicuously before the people.

I agree that for a Catholic to vote for Smith just because he is a Catholic is just as much an evidence of intolerance and bigotry as it is for a Protestant to vote against Smith only because he is a Catholic.

The Catholics who vote this way, however, are much in the minority. If the Catholics had let religion influence their vote Dever would now be mayor of Chicago instead of Thompson. Why? Because the census bureau shows that in Chicago the percentage of the members of the Catholic church is 68 per cent of the total membership of all the outside wards that defeated Dever.

Who is it that always injects the religious issue into politics? Surely the Catholics would have nothing to gain by doing this. Why mark or stamp a man just because he is of the Catholic faith? Does it mean that his mental processes and line of reasoning are different from those of the man who professes another creed?

[illegible] J. RUE.

CHICAGO'S GOVERNMENT.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—How long are the people of the city of Chicago going to tolerate Mayor Thompson, Richard Wolfe, Morris Eller, Judge Eller, and Samuel Ettelson? It strikes the writer that if the mayor were on the job he would oust them and he would have something to say about padded pay rolls, etc. This time he is mum.

The crime jury said the whole police department was rotten to the core; why did they not include the whole city administration? Is the city ever going to make the grafters who have been getting two or three pay rolls pay back the money they have obtained illegally?

H. F. [illegible]

THEN WHY DON'T WE HAVE THEM?

Chicago, Aug. 30.—I have read with some bit of amusement your editorial. Your $35 a week editorial writers have written on enough phases of this question to display the intelligence of a hundred wise men.

But this morning your editor must have been in the wrong pigeon hole when he picked out the army. For your information the army has had the Browning machine gun and automatic rifle, the best of any nation in the world, since the ownership of the Browning patents. It was true that French and English guns were used by American troops during the war, and this was caused by the lack of necessary equipment to manufacture Mr. Browning's arms.

It also might be of some interest to know the Lewis gun is an American gun, but an automatic rifle, and that the machine gun used by the German army was invented by a Chicago man!

AN ARMY OFFICER.

A BOLONEY PICTURE.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—I don't blame Babe Ruth for refusing to shake hands with Hoover. It was a "boloney" picture anyway, and besides Hoover's a Quaker, and who but the Quakers passed the blue laws in regard to baseball and other things?

CIVILIAN LOOMS AS PROVISIONAL MEXICAN CHIEF

Governors Rise Against Military Clique.

BY JOHN CORNYN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 6.—Politics has changed overnight as a result of the conviction of President Calles that the time has come for a civilian as president.

The backers of a military man for provisional president had a setback today when it became known that a split had taken place in congress and that a majority had bolted the Perez Trevino ticket in favor of Emilio Portes Gil, former governor of the state of Tamaulipas, and minister of the department of the interior in President Calles' cabinet.

Governors Want Civilian.

The flopover is said to be the result of the meeting of the commanders of the military zones with President Calles yesterday for more than four hours. It is reported semi-officially that the military commanders agreed to back the provisional president chosen by congress.

At a meeting of more than a score of state governors last night, it was unanimously agreed to back the candidate selected by congress, but the governors indicated their preference for Señor Portes Gil.

When Señor Portes Gil was chosen for the office of minister of the department of the interior, the significance of the choice was not noted. It is a Mexican political tradition, since the abolition of the office of vice president on the overthrow of Gen. Porfirio Diaz, that in case of the disappearance of the president of Mexico, his successor should be the minister of the interior.

Has Tradition Behind Him.

Señor Portes Gil, theref[illegible] has political tradition behind him. [illegible] in opposition to the election of Señor Portes Gil called a meeting of deputies this afternoon, but not a corporal's guard showed up.

It was announced this afternoon that 166 out of 231 members of congress are backing Señor Portes Gil.

CHURCH PLANS WINDOWS FOR LINCOLN, LINDY

Springfield, Mass., Sept. 6.—(AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and Abraham Lincoln will have windows to themselves, according to the revised plan for the symbolic windows to be placed in Trinity Methodist Episcopal church. Col. Lindbergh, flying in his Spirit of St. Louis to Paris, will be the outstanding figure in the "good will" window. Lincoln will be the main figure in the "democracy" window.

The Rev. Dr. Fred Winslow Adams, minister of the church, announced that in the medallion of the "good will" window will be pictured the recent signing of the Kellogg treaty at Paris. In the medallion of the "democracy" window will be shown the Mayflower under full sail.

These windows are two of twenty depicting some great human instinct or area of experience. Galileo, Bach, Raphael, St. Paul, Frances Willard, and Florence Nightingale are among the others who will be featured.

Flames Cause $3,000 Loss in Hardware Store

Fire early this morning swept through the hardware store of L. Reisner at 2900 West 38th street and for a time threatened a number of dwellings in the neighborhood. Reisner, his wife, and three children were driven to the street from their home above the store. Chief George Graves of the First division said the fire apparently was of incendiary origin, several blazes having occurred in the district within two hours before. The damage was estimated at $3,000.

union to which they were allied and it might not be done.

In the meantime, the musicians' union, through Maloy and Browne, had made one concession. This was to withdraw its demands that a minimum of six men be employed in all theaters where a vitaphone, movietone, or some other of the new "talkie" devices was installed.

Ten union men withdrew this demand entirely. But the theater men said that could make no difference as many of their members could not exist another year employing four men.

When the union finally had turned down the moves for the tallying of their receipts and arbitration, the discussions went back to the very beginning—the proposition of whether the theater men renew last year's contract and thus no headway had been made in all the discussions.

Discuss Number of Men.

Just before the groups retired to separate rooms at midnight they had discussed again how many houses would employ four men and during how many weeks of the year they would employ them. It was pointed out that 12 of the houses were in bankruptcy and in the federal courts and that these could not make any agreements. It was conceded by both sides that 8 more houses could not be expected to employ four men. And thus the contest centered around the remaining 32 houses, with the theater owners offering to employ four men in 13 of them 30 weeks in the year and the unions demanding that four men be employed in all 32 during 44 weeks of the year.

HANSON HEIRS TO FILE CLAIM FOR DRY KILLING

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—According to letters of administration of the estate of Jacob D. Hanson issued by the surrogate of Niagara county and filed today in Lockport, the administrators of the slain Niagara Falls Elks lodge secretary, will file a claim against the United States. Hanson was killed by a coast guardsman on the night of May 6 when he failed to obey a command to halt on the highway near Lewiston, thinking he was being held up.

The victim's brother, Robert, and sister, Mrs. Nettie Harris, both of Portland, Ore., are named as administrators. Listed in the assets of the estate are $15,000 personal property and a "possible claim against the United States."

A demand that the United States indemnify Hanson's heirs by act of congress was initiated by the grand lodge of the Elks in convention at Miami in July.

CHICAGO KENT [illegible] LAW

KELLOGG TREATY COMIC GESTURE TO MORGENTHAU

Diplomat Will Inject It Into Campaign.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—"It is on the border line of dishonesty to represent the Kellogg multilateral treaty to the American people as an outlawry of war," said the venerable banker and diplomat, Henry Morgenthau, to Al Smith this afternoon.

"I intended," continued Mr. Morgenthau, "to attack the treaty this month in articles and in a series of speeches which I shall make within radius of 500 miles of New York."

"I advise you," the nominee interrupted, "to give your version of the treaty to the people."

The conference was long and intimate. Its result is to inject into the campaign an issue not anticipated. It puts the Morgenthau group of Smith's supporters into the presidential battle with a demand that the Kellogg-Briand pact shall be modified by reservations when it comes up in the senate for ratification.

Calls Treaty Comical.

Mr. Morgenthau, who was minister to Turkey under Woodrow Wilson,

"As an instrument for the outlawry of war this treaty is comical. Reservations have emasculated it, and there is nothing to show that it can be enforced. All that is back of it is intent. The countries signatory to it say, 'We will not throw the first stone.' But wait until some country does throw the first stone and behold what a shower of stones there will be. The Bryan arbitration treaties went much farther as effective instruments for peace."

Mr. Morgenthau candidly told Gov. Smith that he ought to speak more [illegible] on the prosperity issue.

"Democrats," he said, "ought to admit that there is some prosperity. But ninety odd per cent of it is not due to the Republican party, which claims that it is the source of all of it. It is in part due to natural development and in part to the solid foundations laid by the Wilson administration.

Reserve Act Big Factor.

"The federal reserve act of Wilson was an immense help. Good roads have been a factor, for good roads brought the growth of the automobile industry, and that meant prosperity for the steel production.

"Mass production, the introduction of hydro-electric power, and the lessons in thrift which the war taught have been other contributing factors. It is not too late to convince the American people that their prosperity is not the product of patents owned by the Republican party."

Kenosha, Wis., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—With the thirteenth bombing of a knitter's home since July 2, police admitted today they were unable to find a clew to any of the outrages perpetrated in Kenosha's labor war growing out of the strike of knitters at the Allen A company.

The latest bombing occurred last night when the home of Chauncey Pitts was bombed while his wife and daughter, Constance, 9, were home alone. Mrs. Pitts received severe injuries when the bomb exploded in front of her as she was about to pour a pan of water over the sputtering fuse. She thought it was a smouldering cigaret. Mrs. Pitts is an Allen A employé.

Today another Allen A employé, Edward Allen, reported that during the night some one had thrown a brick through his window. The incident brought the total number of windows smashed to 400. Of these 100 were smashed in the Allen A plant three months ago, prior to the time that guards were stationed the factory.

Greece and Bulgaria Will Sign Kellogg Pact

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—(AP)—Greece and Bulgaria were added to the list of nations today, which have signified their intention to adhere to the Kellogg anti-war treaty, while China and Albania were reported to have unofficially expressed a similar intention. Of the 64 nations now associated with the treaty, definite information as to the attitude of only 13 remains to be determined.

Boal's Fruit Laxative Rolls

Many of us can remember way back when mother gave the children figs and senna leaves to correct little disorders that all have to contend with. When the feverish brow gave the signal, mother often diagnosed the case as "worms" or "bowel trouble." Then came castor oil or a dose of home-made fruit and herb medicine. Boal's Rolls simply offer you the old-fashioned treatment in a new form. They are made by mixing together figs, raisins, herbs, leaves and other correctives, then pressed into rolls. They are delicious and tasty as any candy bar. They always please the taste and correct the trouble.

PRODIGIOUS DRIVE IN NEVADA FOR ITS THREE VOTES

But Evans Says Wettest State Is in Doubt.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Reno, Nev., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—Nevada has only three votes in the electoral college, but it is the scene of an intensive fight that betokens a belief among Republican and Democratic leaders that in November the election is likely to be nip and tuck between Hoover and Smith.

For these three votes a prodigious amount of campaigning is in sight. The state furnishes a cross section of western politics and as yet the result is in doubt.

This state is the sixth in area but the lowest in population, and its total vote in 1924 was only 27,000. Coolidge carried it by less than 1,500, but that is a good sized margin considering the size of the electorate.

Out here in the wide open spaces, where party workers sometimes travel all day to get in touch with eight or ten voters, a majority of 2,000 in a close fight could be regarded as something magnificent. A swing of a thousand voters or less, from one side to the other, may determine how the three electoral votes would go.

Nevada—Grasshopper of Politics.

In state elections it is quite commonplace for contests to be won by fifty votes or less. Senator Key Pittman was elected the first time by a 68 majority.

Nevada, which has only seven-tenths of an inhabitant to the square mile, has been a jumping grasshopper in politics. In the days of Populism it went to Weaver. In 1902 and since then it has gone Democratic in presidential years five times and Republican three times. Bryan carried it in all his three campaigns—free silver went strong in the silver mining camps, Wilson had it in his two campaigns. Roosevelt had it in 1904, and it was carried by Harding and Coolidge in more recent times.

It has one Democratic senator, Key Pittman, and one Republican, Senator Tasker L. Oddie, and its solitary congressman, Samuel S. Arentz, is Republican. For twelve years it had Democratic governors up to 1926, but in that year it went Republican.

Boasts Its Wetness.

Nevada boasts it is the wettest state in the Union. It went dry in 1918 by a vote of 4 to 3. At the time it had a saloon for every 80 inhabitants. Two years ago by popular vote it adopted a resolution memorializing congress to call a convention for proposing an amendment to the eighteenth amendment, "prohibition having failed its purpose." The vote in 1926 stood 18,000 wet and 5,000 dry, or more than three to one wet. Every county carried wet.

Right now the betting is even money in Reno on whether Hoover or Smith will carry the state.

From San Francisco to Reno, politicians in both camps say the greatest single factor in Nevada is George Wingfield, the Republican national committeeman and the first millionaire to remain in Nevada after making his pile. Wingfield is an old cow puncher of frontier days, who made his first big cleanup in Goldfield, when in 1906, by virtue of his ownership of the Mohawk mine, he was instrumental in accomplishing the consolidation of the Goldfield Consolidated Mines company. He is managing the Hoover campaign.

Smith Leads in Popularity.

Smith is held to be leading in popularity—prohibition, liberalism and personalities are the main issues one hears debated, but underneath, a change has been going on in Nevada in recent years. The mining camps have had a slump. They were Democratic in trend. The old crowd of liberals and radicals that came in from Cripple Creek and Butte has diminished.

Stockmen and cattlemen are now the strongest factor in the state, and they are for a high tariff on wool, hides and meats. Tariff is the issue the Republicans are pounding on, although the people persist in talking of the wet and dry question.

Boulder dam likewise is an issue here. Hoover's stand is aiding him in southern Nevada. They figure four-fifths of the water would be on the Nevada side, also that the construction work would bring money into the state, and that Nevada would get a revenue of $750,000 a year or so from the water, which would pay the expenses of the state government and cut down taxes.

Also, the Democratic party in the state has got into an unsavory mess. Two Democratic state officers, Ed Malley, former state treasurer, and George Cole, former controller, are in the penitentiary at Carson City for stealing $516,000 of the state funds.

ROBINSON OPENS FIRE ON HARDING AND COOLIDGE

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 6.—(AP)—President Coolidge and the late President Harding were accused tonight by Senator Joe T. Robinson with having failed to display that decision of character necessary for elimination of crooks and incompetents from their advisers.

Senator Robinson declared he made no attack on the personal character of either, but he said their leadership had not been notable to that degree that the memory of Mr. Harding could be glorified or that President Coolidge should be credited for great political triumphs.

"Had President Harding had one-half the knowledge of men that Al Smith has shown," the Democratic vice presidential nominee said, "he would never have made Mr. Daugherty attorney general, or Mr. Denby secretary of the navy, or Mr. Forbes director of the veterans' bureau.

"Had President Coolidge realized when sworn in to succeed the lamented President Harding that he must accept responsibility for his own choice of advisers he would never have retained Fall, Denby, and Daugherty, nor would he have sought to whitewash them when public opinion forced their retirement to private life."

Sunbeam Cord leads from side of Plug through flexible metal protector that holds it out of the way of your hand.

New Non-Breakable, Trouble-Proof Plug. Steel case replaces rubber-like composition, hence nothing to crack, crumble or break.

Now the 30-Year Iron

Guaranteed Trouble-Proof

With Air-Cooled Handle and $1.50 Non-Breakable Plug Free

THE Sunbeam Iron has long had an All-Over Heating Unit that wouldn't burn out in 30 years. Independent Engineers proved that when they left it connected day and night for a year and a half.

Now we have added a Trouble-Proof Plug encased in steel instead of rubber-like composition. It can't crack, crumble or break. And it makes a perfect connection indefinitely, because its spring is on the outside where it cannot overheat.

We have also given the Sunbeam a comfortable Air-Cooled Iron Handle that protects lovely hands from skin-drying heat. It's the only iron that has it.

Indeed the Sunbeam is now not only the finest of irons—but the only trouble-proof iron on earth.

No other can match its beautiful work, because the All-Over Heating Unit supplies constant, EVEN heat at the very Edges, as well as the Point and Center. That's why damp clothes can't cool it off—why it speeds your work, and saves an hour or two.

With this $1.50 Plug included free, the Sunbeam now is really a $9.00 value at the old-time $7.50 price. Go see this queen of irons at your dealer's or Light Company's. Write us rather than accept some second choice.

Sunbeam Flat Toaster

Stop-watch tests prove that the Sunbeam Flat Toaster toasts twice as quick as the upright type because the toast lies directly OVER the heat. It doesn't depend on reflected heat.

Moreover only by this FLAT Toasting can you Toast Sandwiches with the filling right in them. The center can't fall out, for the Sandwiches lie flat. And the Sunbeam toasts them two at a time—full-size slices! All Toast is more delicious this way, for Sunbeam's speed is just right to crisp the surface to a golden brown and leave the inside tender.

Really a $9.50 value, considering the $1.50 plug we now include—all for the old-time $8.00 price.

The Gift of a Little 3-lb. Sunbeam

Would Transport Any Woman to Her Seventh Heaven

This practical little iron comes in a snug Art-Steel Case, cord, plug, iron and all. Its uses number 53, not the least of them being the ready facility with which it irons baby clothes and other small pieces that are a bit too dainty for the big heavy iron that one does the family work with.

Enroute, Little Sunbeam in its neat steel case snuggles into any odd corner of the trunk or bag—at home it retires to any cozy nook that's vacant.

Quite the smart gift or bridge prize. Complete, with Cord and Case, $6.00.

Before renting—ask the landlord if the premises are modernly wired—

ELECTRIC HOME

EXTRA wiring is one of the simplest and cheapest improvements that the landlord can make and yet think of the added comfort and convenience it will mean to you! Electrical improvements cost less than painting and decorating and permanently enhance the value of any building. Extra convenience outlets for every wall or at least for every room will enable your home making operations to run much more smoothly. Then you can plug in every electrical appliance and lamp where you need it without stringing unsightly cords over the room or bothering to unscrew lamp bulbs.

To insure full advantage of modern electrical equipment, the Red Seal plan of wiring was developed and now every truly modern house or apartment is wired in accordance with it. It provides proper places to plug in all electrical appliances, as well as sufficient outlets for efficient lighting. If the home you own or rent is wired in accordance with Red Seal standards you know that it is up-to-date and livable. You have a right and by all means should enjoy modern electrical conveniences and comfort. They insure health and happiness. They add substantially to rental and sales values of property, making it a good business investment, aside from the angle of personal comfort.

Let us explain the Red Seal Plan to you. This service is free. It's surprising how little it costs to rewire. We will also suggest a contractor who will estimate the cost of proper wiring. Electricity is today offering too much to the renter and home-owner to postpone the enjoyment of its marvelous gifts. Call on us in person, or write or phone.

PRODIGIOUS DRIVE IN NEVADA FOR ITS THREE VOTES

But Evans Says Wettest State Is in Doubt.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Reno, Nev., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—Nevada has only three votes in the electoral college, but it is the scene of an intensive fight that betokens a belief among Republican and Democratic leaders that in November the election is likely to be nip and tuck between Hoover and Smith.

For these three votes a prodigious amount of campaigning is in sight. The state furnishes a cross section of western politics and as yet the result is in doubt.

This state is the sixth in area but the lowest in population, and its total vote in 1924 was only 27,000. Coolidge carried it by less than 1,500, but that is a good sized margin considering the size of the electorate.

Out here in the wide open spaces, where party workers sometimes travel all day to get in touch with eight or ten voters, a majority of 2,000 in a close fight could be regarded as something magnificent. A swing of a thousand voters or less, from one side to the other, may determine how the three electoral votes would go.

Nevada—Grasshopper of Politics.

In state elections it is quite commonplace for contests to be won by fifty votes or less. Senator Key Pittman was elected the first time by a 68 majority.

Nevada, which has only seventenths of an inhabitant to the square mile, has been a jumping grasshopper in politics. In the days of Populism it went to Weaver. In 1902 and since then it has gone Democratic in presidential years five times and Republican three times. Bryan carried it in all his three campaigns—free silver went strong in the silver mining camps. Wilson had it in his two campaigns. Roosevelt had it in 1904, and it was carried by Harding and Coolidge in more recent times.

It has one Democratic senator, Key Pittman, and one Republican, Senator Tasker L. Oddie, and its solitary congressman, Samuel S. Arentz, is Republican. For twelve years it had Democratic governors up to 1926, but in that year it went Republican.

Boasts Its Wetness.

Nevada boasts it is the wettest state in the Union. It went dry in 1918 by a vote of 4 to 3. At the time it had a saloon for every 80 inhabitants. Two years ago by popular vote it adopted a resolution memorializing congress to call a convention for proposing an amendment to the eighteenth amendment, "prohibition having failed its purpose." The vote in 1926 stood 18,000 wet and 5,000 dry, or more than three to one wet. Every county carried wet.

Right now the betting is even money in Reno on whether Hoover or Smith will carry the state.

From San Francisco to Reno, politicians in both camps say the greatest single factor in Nevada is George Wingfield, the Republican national committeeman and the first millionaire to remain in Nevada after making his pile. Wingfield is an old cow puncher of frontier days, who made his first big cleanup in Goldfield, when in 1906, by virtue of his ownership of the Mohawk mine, he was instrumental in accomplishing the consolidation of the Goldfield Consolidated Mines company. He is managing the Hoover campaign.

Smith Leads in Popularity.

Smith is held to be leading in popularity—prohibition, liberalism and personalities are the main issues one hears debated, but underneath a change has been going on in Nevada in recent years. The mining camps have had a slump. They were Democratic in trend. The old crowd of liberals and radicals that came in from Cripple Creek and Butte has diminished.

Stockmen and cattlemen are now the strongest factor in the state, and they are for a high tariff on wool, hides and meats. Tariff is the issue the Republicans are pounding on, although the people persist in talking of the wet and dry question.

Boulder dam likewise is an issue here. Hoover's stand is aiding him in southern Nevada. They figure four-fifths of the water would be on the Nevada side, also that the construction work would bring money into the state, and that Nevada would get a revenue of $750,000 a year or so from the water, which would pay the expenses of the state government and cut down taxes.

Also, the Democratic party in the state has got into an unsavory mess. Two Democratic state officers, Ed Malley, former state treasurer, and George Cole, former controller, are in the penitentiary at Carson City for stealing $516,000 of the state funds.

ROBINSON OPENS FIRE ON HARDING AND COOLIDGE

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 6.—(AP)—President Coolidge and the late President Harding were accused tonight by Senator Joe T. Robinson with having failed to display that decision of character necessary for elimination of crooks and incompetents from their advisers.

Senator Robinson declared he made no attack on the personal character of either, but he said their leadership had not been notable to that degree that the memory of Mr. Harding could be glorified or that President Coolidge should be credited for great political triumphs.

"Had President Harding had one-half the knowledge of men that Al Smith has shown," the Democratic vice presidential nominee said, "he would never have made Mr. Daugherty attorney general, or Mr. Denby secretary of the navy, or Mr. Forbes director of the veterans' bureau.

"Had President Coolidge realized when sworn in to succeed the lamented President Harding that he must accept responsibility for his own choice of advisers he would never have retained Fall, Denby, and Daugherty, nor would he have sought to whitewash them when public opinion forced their retirement to private life."

Before renting—ask the landlord if the premises are modernly wired—

ELECTRIC HOME

EXTRA wiring is one of the simplest and cheapest improvements that the landlord can make and yet think of the added comfort and convenience it will mean to you! Electrical improvements cost less than painting and decorating and permanently enhance the value of any building. Extra convenience outlets for every wall or at least for every room will enable your home making operations to run much more smoothly. Then you can plug in every electrical appliance and lamp where you need it without stringing unsightly cords over the room or bothering to unscrew lamp bulbs.

To insure full advantage of modern electrical equipment, the Red Seal plan of wiring was developed and now every truly modern house or apartment is wired in accordance with it. It provides proper places to plug in all electrical appliances, as well as sufficient outlets for efficient lighting. If the home you own or rent is wired in accordance with Red Seal standards you know that it is up-to-date and livable. You have a right and by all means should enjoy modern electrical conveniences and comfort. They insure health and happiness. They add substantially to rental and sales values of property, making it a good business investment, aside from the angle of personal comfort.

Let us explain the Red Seal Plan to you. This service is free. It's surprising how little it costs to rewire. We will also suggest a contractor who will estimate the cost of proper wiring. Sunbeam

Now the 30-Year Iron

Guaranteed Trouble-Proof

With Air-Cooled Handle and $1.50 Non-Breakable Plug Free

THE Sunbeam Iron has long had an All-Over Heating Unit that wouldn't burn out in 30 years. Independent Engineers proved that when they left it connected day and night for a year and a half.

Now we have added a Trouble-Proof Plug encased in steel instead of rubber-like composition. It can't crack, crumble or break. And it makes a perfect connection indefinitely, because its spring is on the outside where it cannot overheat.

We have also given the Sunbeam a comfortable Air-Cooled Iron Handle that protects lovely hands from skin-drying heat. It's the only iron that has it.

Indeed the Sunbeam is now not only the finest of irons—but the only trouble-proof iron on earth.

No other can match its beautiful work, because the All-Over Heating Unit supplies constant, EVEN heat at the very Edges, as well as the Point and Center. That's why damp clothes can't cool it off—why it speeds your work, and saves an hour or two.

With this $1.50 Plug included free, the Sunbeam now is really a $9.00 value at the old-time $7.50 price. Go see this queen of irons at your dealer's or Light Company's. Write us rather than accept some second choice.

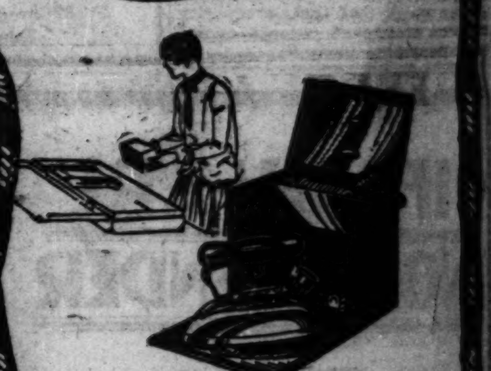
Sunbeam Flat Toaster

Stop-watch tests prove that the Sunbeam Flat Toaster toasts twice as quick as the upright type because the toast lies directly OVER the heat. It doesn't depend on reflected heat.

Moreover only by this FLAT Toasting can you Toast Sandwiches with the filling right in them. The center can't fall out, for the Sandwiches lie flat. And the Sunbeam toasts them two at a time—full-size slices! All Toast is more delicious this way, for Sunbeam's speed is just right to crisp the surface to a golden brown and leave the inside tender.

Really a $9.50 value, considering the $1.50 plug we now include—all for the old-time $8.00 price.



The Gift of a Little 3-lb. Sunbeam

Would Transport Any Woman to Her Seventh Heaven

This practical little iron comes in a snug Art-Steel Case, cord, plug, iron and all. Its uses number 55, not the least of them being the ready facility with which it irons baby clothes and other small pieces that are a bit too dainty for the big heavy iron that one does the family work with.

Enroute, Little Sunbeam in its neat steel case snuggles into any odd corner of the trunk or bag—at home it retires to any cozy nook that's vacant.

Quite the smart gift or bridge prize. Complete, with Cord and Case, $6.00.

525 MILLION IN 4½% TREASURY NOTES OFFERED

Fund Will Retire Third Liberty Bonds.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—The final step in the huge financing operations begun by the treasury in 1927 was taken today when Secretary Mellon announced an offering of 525 million dollars of 4½ per cent certificates of indebtedness maturing on June 15, 1929.

The proceeds of the new certificates with approximately 450 million dollars anticipated in third-quarter installments of corporation and income taxes due on September 15, will be applied toward the redemption of 970 million dollars of third Liberty loan bonds still outstanding. The payment of $70,000,000 interest on the public debt also falls due on Sept. 15.

Big Interest Reduction.

The financing program, it was pointed out by Secretary Mellon, has resulted within eighteen months, in the refunding or retirement of more than [illegible] billion dollars of Liberty loan bonds accompanied by a substantial reduction in interest charges.

About $1,300,000,000 of the $5,264,000,000 of the second and third Liberty loan bonds outstanding in February, 1927, have been retired. The balance will have been replaced by bonds bearing 3⅜ per cent interest, by three to five year notes bearing 3½ per cent interest, all with maturity or call dates convenient for sinking fund purposes, and by short term certificates including the present issue, all maturing on quarterly tax payment dates. All but $20,000,000 of the bonds outstanding when the program was undertaken bore interest at the rate of 4¼ per cent.

Two Interest Coupons.

Third Liberty loan bonds will be accepted in payment for the new certificates which will be offered through federal reserve banks and will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $100,000.

Two interest coupons, payable Dec. 15, 1928 and June 15, 1929, will be attached to the certificates which will be exempt from all taxation, federal or state, except estate or inheritance taxes and surtaxes. Payment at par and accrued interest for certificates allotted before that time must be made on or before September 15 and interim receipts will be issued pending delivery of the certificates.

"Bonds of the third 4¼'s, maturing on Sept. 15, 1928, will be accepted at par, in payment for any certificates of the series now offered which shall be subscribed for and allotted, with an adjustment of accrued interest, if any, on the certificates of the series so paid for," read Secretary Mellon's announcement.

"Bonds of the third 4¼'s tendered in payment for any certificates of the series now offered should be presented when the subscription is tendered. Coupons dated Sept. 15, 1928, which become payable on that date, should be detached from any bonds of the third 4¼'s in coupon form so tendered, and such coupons should be collected by the holders thereof in regular course.

"Third 4¼'s in registered form tendered in payment for certificates subscribed for must be duly assigned to 'the secretary of the treasury for payment,' in accordance with the general regulations of the treasury department governing such assignments.

"Final interest due Sept. 15, 1928, on registered bonds of the third 4¼'s so tendered will not be paid by interest checks in regular course but would be covered by payments to be made simultaneously with the delivery of the certificates [or interim receipts] upon allotted subscriptions."

AGE NO SECRET, EMMERSON SAYS; BIRTH IN 1863

BY PARKE BROWN.

How old is Lou?

That query concerning Secretary of State Emmerson, the Republican nominee for governor, started quietly on its way several weeks ago, has reached so many folks during the last few weeks that a reporter submitted it yesterday to the man best calculated to hold the solution—the candidate himself.

Suspicions have suggested gently that some Democrat anxious to create the impression that the governorship election this year is a race between youth and age—Floyd E. Thompson, the Democrat, being an even 40 years now—had started the query on its rounds, giving it zest and point with a whisper that the Republican's age is being kept secret and it really is far beyond what he ever has admitted officially.

Is Age a Secret?

This suspicion was given definite form when a man fairly conspicuous in Democratic organization work had this to say:

"You know Lou doesn't print his age in the official Illinois Bue book, which is published by his office, so we had to look it up in the Masonic records at Mount Vernon, where he was admitted to the order. And that shows that he really is 72."

With this statement to go on, the reporter presented the subject to Mr. Emmerson at the close of the program following a luncheon of the Woman's Roosevelt Republican club at the Congress hotel, where he and Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, nominee for congressman-at-large, were the speakers.

An Embarrassing Question.

"Well," he laughed, as he looked at the women still standing around him, "while I consider that something of a delicate matter to bring up under these conditions here, and might almost classify it as an embarrassing question, I never have made it a secret that I have many years of experience that my friends say qualify me for governor.

"If the date of my birth has been omitted from the Illinois Blue book it was done without my knowledge; but you will find it in previous issues for years past.

"I have no hesitancy in saying that I was born on Dec. 27, 1863. Please tell that to the gentlemen who are inquiring."

That means Mr. Emmerson will be 65 years old on inauguration day next January. By coincidence Democratic Nominee Thompson's birthday comes just two days earlier—on Christmas day—so that he will be 41 when the next governor takes his seat. Expert arithmeticians figure that this makes an almost even 24 years difference in the ages of the two nominees.

Although in speaking to the Roosevelt women he did not refer specifically to political conditions in Cook county, Secretary Emmerson attacked politico-criminal alliances. He began by urging the stay at homes to get out and vote, and also to take an active interest in politics.

"And as the exercise of the franchise is the most important duty of the citizen," he continued, "so is election fraud which robs the voter of his right to decision one of the greatest of crimes. The criminal who steals votes or stuffs the ballot box is one of the most sinister enemies of good government. He seeks by theft to defeat the will of the majority. He deserves all that the law can give him in the way of penalty. No nation can long endure that does not provide ample protection for the ballot."

Mrs. McCormick urged that women workers let the men discuss the national issues of the campaign and take as their own task the "selling of Hoover, the man."

"Hoover," she said, "is not so well known in Illinois as he is in the rest of the states because, out of consideration for Gov. Lowden, he did not make a primary campaign here. But women know Hoover for his war work and his child welfare work, and it is therefore their duty to wage an intensive campaign for him along these lines."

Mrs. McCormick said that she spent all of the previous day calling on all the voters of her own township and asked that every woman worker do the same in her precinct.

BRITISH BAR U. S. MARINES FROM CHINA Y. M. C. A.

80% of Building Capital from America.

BY JOHN POWELL.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
[Copyright: 1928: By The Chicago Tribune.]

SHANGHAI, Sept. 6.—Col. Henry C. Davis, commander, and Lieut. Col. Fred D. Kilgore, acting commander, of the United States Marine corps at Shanghai, have sent an official report to the navy department at Washington protesting in strong language against the action of the local foreign Y. M. C. A. in barring enlisted members of the marine corps wearing United States uniforms from membership.

Col Davis and Lieut. Col. Kilgore allege that the action of the Y. M. C. A. was taken because a few British army officers reside in the Y. M. C. A. dormitory. It is said that British army regulations prohibit officers from residing in a building frequented by enlisted men.

Alibi of Y. M. C. A.

George Fitch, general secretary, of the Y. M. C. A., told THE TRIBUNE correspondent today that the action barring the marines from membership was not dictated by the British but due to the overcrowded condition of the building. Mr. Fitch said that there is a navy Y. M. C. A. located in Shanghai, which the marines should frequent, instead of the foreign Y. M. C. A., which was designed for foreign civilians in Shanghai.

According to the marine spokesmen, some two hundred enlisted men desired to join the foreign Y. M. C. A. on the same basis as civilians due to the fact that the building is located near their barracks, while the navy Y. M. C. A. is already filled with sailors and the building is located nearly two miles from the marine barracks.

Four-fifths United States Money.

The foreign Y. M. C. A. was constructed last year largely through donations from John D. Rockefeller Jr., Charles R. Crane, Capt. Robert Dollar, and other contributors of the United States, with the purpose of providing Y. M. C. A. facilities for American young men in Shanghai. However, the local financial campaign among British residents provided about 20 per cent of the total capital.

The marine spokesmen allege that the foreign Y. M. C. A. committee is composed of a half British personnel and that the institution has become a private club dominated by the British, instead of the organization originally intended.

Girl Reports Being Held Captive Two Days in Auto

Hilda Jameson, 14 years old, 2507 West Monroe street, reported to the police yesterday that she had just been released by two youths who had held her a prisoner in an automobile for two days. The youths, known to her only as O'Brien and Whitey, are being sought on a charge of kidnaping.

HUNT SHELTON FOR $200,000 CLUB STICKUP

Police Find Arsenal; Hold One Suspect.

East St. Louis, Ill., Sept. 6.—[U. P.]—While searching a house here today for loot from the $200,000 Broadmoor Country club robbery at Indianapolis, East St. Louis police discovered a cache of weapons, including ten automatic revolvers and a machine gun.

After seizure of the contraband, they announced they sought Bernie Shelton, southern Illinois gangster, for questioning in connection with the discovery.

The house searched here was said to be the home of Mrs. Carrie Stephenson, widow of T. Ray Stephenson, late reputed king of Mississippi rum runners. Shelton was said to have been seen there recently.

Charles Phayer, held here today in connection with the Broadmoor robbery, was arrested Tuesday night while seated in an expensive automobile said to have been the property of Mrs. Stephenson.

Will Be Taken to Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—Gov. Jackson today issued extradition papers for Charles Phayer, alleged St. Louis stickup man, held there for Indianapolis detectives, who tonight went to bring him back. St. Louis authorities announced the automobile Phayer was driving when caught there Wednesday belongs to the Bernie Shelton gang of Herrin. Detectives assert Phayer is wanted also for robbery of a large Illinois jewelry store. Today he was identified by some of the victims as one of the gang which staged the $200,000 holdup of the Broadmoor Country club, fashionable Jewish organization here, the night of the Memorial day 500 mile race.

Find Stephenson Papers.

Police investigation of the explosion and fire that destroyed the Edward Traugott & Co. clothing store here Aug. 26 today found documents long sought in the investigation of the D. C. Stephenson klan régime in Indiana. Burning goods in the store were found oil soaked, and police charge a conspiracy to commit arson.

MRS. WALLER, CITY PIONEER, IS DEAD AT 90

Widow of Banker and a Chicagoan Since 1869.

Mrs. Edward Waller, who came to Chicago in 1869 from Kentucky, died yesterday at the Parkway hotel. She was 90 years old.

Mrs. Waller and her husband, who was a banker and capitalists, established their first home on Calumet avenue, then one of the choice residential sections of the city. In the great fire of 1871 their house was dynamited in an attempt to halt the spread of the flames.

Build Home on Dearborn.

In 1874 the Wallers built a home at 1032 North Dearborn street, where Mrs. Waller continued to reside until eighteen months ago. Their neighbors included the Kerfoot, Runnells, Phillips, Washburne, Fuller, Isham, Sheldon, and Martin families, all socially prominent.

Mrs. Waller was a member of the Fourth Presbyterian church and of the Fortnightly club.

Survived by Three Children.

She is survived by two sons, Edward and James Alexander Waller, and a daughter, Mrs. Sidney Worthy. Two other sons, A. Rawson and Francis Castleman Waller are dead. Her husband died in 1887.

Funeral services are to be held tomorrow at 11 a. m. in Graceland cemetery chapel.

SON DENIES HE BEAT MOTHER; CONDITION GRAVE

While her son, Emil, 52 years old, sat in the East Side police station and denied that he had beaten her, Mrs. Wilhelmina Hanke, 84 years old, 10101 Avenue M, was reported to be in a critical condition at the South Chicago hospital last night as the result of a beating which police say Emil gave her last Monday.

During periods of consciousness yesterday, Mrs. Hanke, whose condition is serious because of her advanced age, would moan that she had been beaten and later would say she had fallen down the stairs at her home.

Her son persisted in his denial of the beating, saying she had fallen downstairs. He admitted that he had recently attempted to have his mother committed to an insane asylum, and also admitted that he had given her $10 in exchange for a deed to property worth $10,000.

PRINCE OF WALES STARTS 3,300 MILE TOUR TO AFRICA

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Sept. 6.—The prince of Wales and his brother, the duke of Gloucester unostentatiously left London for Dover this afternoon for a 3,300 mile four months' tour through the orient and South Africa, combining semi-official visits with big game hunting.

A large crowd was on hand at Victoria station to give the prince a rousing sendoff. The royal brothers spent a hectic morning cleaning up correspondence and routine matters.

The princes are embarking for Egypt from Marseilles tomorrow. In Egypt they will be guests of King Fuad. They will reach Africa on Sept. 28, and the duke will plunge into the jungle to hunt big game, while his brother fulfills his official engagements.

Funeral Rites Today for James B. Hedge

Funeral services for James B. Hedge, former newspaperman and at one time a leader in Chicago musical circles, will be held today at the Methodist Old People's home, 1415 Foster street, where he resided for the last two years. Burial will be at Memorial Park cemetery, Evanston. Mr. Hedge, who was 79 years old, was formerly employed on the Washington Post and the Denver Post and was for many years president of the Eastern Tennessee Editors' association. At one time he was dean of instrumental music at the University of Chattanooga. He is survided by four sons.

ROBERT LEHMAN, 53 years old, of 812 North Harvey avenue, Oak Park, for thirty years a railroad engineer, fell dead yesterday in the Northwestern railroad roundhouse at Proviso, Ill. A widow and two daughters survive him.

RETIRED BISHOP DIES OF BEATING BY 2 BANDITS

Served Methodists in Africa 20 Years.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 6.—(AP)—After surviving fevers, perilous journeys and the rigorous life of a missionary in Africa for twenty years, the Rev. Joseph C. Hartzell, 87, retired bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church for Africa, died here today of a beating three months ago by two robbers.

Funeral services will be held here tomorrow. Burial will be in Rosehill cemetery, Chicago. Bishop Edwin H. Hughes of Chicago will conduct the services there.

Beaten on Birthday.

On June 1, this year, his 87th birthday anniversary, two men called at his home and requested the use of an automobile tire pump. He bid them step into his home and they violated his hospitality. They cut the telephone wires, bound him with wire, robbed him of $15 and became enraged and then beat him when unable to locate more money. They fled when his housekeeper summoned aid. The assailants have not been apprehended.

Bed Ridden to Death.

The bishop remained bed ridden until his death.

Bishop Hartzell, while secretary of the Southern Education society, had charge of forty-six educational institutions extending from the Potomac to the Rio Grande.

He held pastorates in Pekin and Evanston, Ill., New Orleans and Cincinnati. He was the founder of a medical school in Nashville, Tenn., which has graduated more than 3,000 Negro physicians.

SERVICES IN CHAPEL HERE.

Services will be held in the chapel of Rosehill cemetery Saturday at 4 p. m. for the late Bishop Joseph C. Hartzell, it was announced here last night. Bishop Edwin H. Hughes will be in charge and will deliver the address.

Bishop Hartzell will be buried in the family lot where his wife, two sons and a daughter are buried.

One of his sons was the Rev. Morton C. Hartzell who at one time was pastor of the South Park Avenue M. E. church in Chicago and attained much notice because of his fights on vice conditions.

DOCTOR DOUBTS QUEENS SEWER "KING" IS DEAD

New York, Sept. 6.—[Special.]—The amazing assertion that he seriously doubts whether John M. Phillips is dead was made today by Dr. Louis H. Taylor, for years personal physician to the Queens' sewer pipe "king." Dr. Taylor intends to demand exhumation and an autopsy.

Phillips' "death" long has been a subject of suspicion. Dr. Taylor expressed the disbelief that Phillips died from acute alcoholism and advanced the theory that the body of another man had been buried as that of Phillips. Dr. Taylor saw the body and said it did not look like Phillips.

District Attorney Newcombe paused long enough in his investigation of the mysterious death of William L. D'Olier, another sewer graft ring witness, to take official recognition of Dr. Taylor's statement. He said:

"If any facts are submitted to me in the Phillips matter tending to establish that a crime has been committed, I will promptly apply to the court for an order to exhume the body and take such further action as may be justified by the facts."

Highland Park Leader in Women's Clubs Dead

Mrs. Robert Seyfarth, 543 South Sheridan road, Highland Park, died at the Highland Park hospital, where she was awaiting an operation for abdominal trouble, yesterday. She was 50 years old. She was a member of the D. A. R., had served on the Highland Park school and was ex-president of the Highland Park Woman's club. Her husband and three sons survive. THE MUSICAL MELANGE . .

HERE is the feature for those who don't listen to the radio; for those who have reached a degree of sophistication beyond the sterotyped radio program. Henry Selinger has taken an unlimited amount of pains to prepare a most artistic and pleasant hour of music by capable composers. He knows the tastes of that element satisfied by only the most artistic, and this program at 8 o'clock this evening should and will satisfy it.

There are to be naive arrangements, such as flute, oboe, and 'cello playing, special trio arrangements, and items played by the piano with two flutes and a clarinet. Other numbers will be encountered combining the violin, flute and piano.

Symphonic Music

OF course, many symphonic numbers are to be played by the W-G-N Concert Orchestra. Gaston du Moulin will direct the orchestra while they play such tunes as "Ballet Suite" "Kamenskaya" by Glinka (who, by the way, was one of the first Russians to make himself famous as a musical composer) and "Dance of the Clowns" by the famous Rimsky-Korsakov.

Vocal, Too

THE vocal contributions to this novel program must not in any way be neglected. Mark Love, the basso soloist, has selected several appropriate songs; among them, "Bella Sicome Un Angel." And the male quartet! Their important part in the melange program will be typified by "Rosita." These classics compose the hour which may, itself, be considered a classic.

In Memoriam.

DONOVAN—In sad but loving memory of our dear brother, Ted, who passed away one year ago today, Sept. 7, 1927. Always to be remembered.
LOVING BROTHERS AND SISTERS.

O'DONNELL—In memory of my beloved husband, Robert O'Donnell, who died one year ago today. High mass tomorrow morning, 8 o'clock, St. Margaret's.
LOVING WIFE AND CHILDREN.

PERNIN—DR. A. G. PERNIN. IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY DEAR HUSBAND, WHO PASSED AWAY ONE YEAR AGO TODAY, SEPT. 7, 1927.

To the best and dearest husband,
Who passed away a year ago today,
May his strong and guiding hand
Keep me in the straight and right of way.
Although you are gone, Aime, dear,
You are not being forgotten;
Your presence forever is near,
But my tears shall remain hidden.
Days are so long without you, dear,
As our happy days were so short lived,
But to the Lord's will we must abide, dear,
And it shall be done as it is written.
LOVING WIFE, MARGUERITE.

SIMPKINS—George E. Simpkins. In loving memory of my father, who died one year ago today. DAUGHTER MABEL.

ROSEHILL MAUSOLEUM

Founded on the Wisdom of Our Ancestors

Throughout the ages, that universal longing to show lasting reverence for dear departed ones has been expressed by the protection of names and remains. Each age has left behind its own mighty tombs, cloisters of beloved memories. Rosehill Mausoleum, our modern way of protecting loved names, is the fruit of the experience of these ages. All the strength and beauty of the tombs of emperors and kings are united in this granite, white marble, and bronze building. And, in addition, here is a special strength never before provided—that of two mighty trust funds and a perpetual state charter. Let us send you "Rosehill the Beautiful," the book which describes this fully.

12 ON LAND U. S. RECLAIMED AT $3,000,000 COST

West Inspects Riverton Project in Wyoming.

BY ARTHUR CRAWFORD.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Riverton, Wyo., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—Secretary of the Interior Roy O. West commenced late today an inspection of the Riverton reclamation project which has been open for settlement for two and a half years, and has attracted less than a dozen settlers. The government has spent about $3,000,000 on the construction of irrigation works thus far and expects to invest about $5,000,000 more.

The project is so new that it has not reached the stage of charging off losses; neither has the development proceeded to such an extent as to determine the unit cost of construction to be assessed against the settlers, who eventually expect to assume contracts for payment over a period of 40 years. Development of reclamation beyond any economic need for it appears to be exemplified in the Riverton project. Its sponsors, however, insist that when it is fully developed settlers will be attracted and the government eventually will get its money back.

Project Authorized in 1918.

Congress authorized the project in 1918 in the midst of the wartime clamor for an extension of agricultural development. Wyoming members of congress backed the proposal and still stand back of this and other reclamation schemes.

The Wyoming members of congress, Senators Warren [Rep.], and Kendrick [Dem.], and Representative Winter [Rep.], and Gov. Frank O. Emerson, are traveling with Secretary West and his party. All are reclamation enthusiasts, whose ardor has not been dampened by unsatisfactory conditions at the Riverton project and at two of the three sections of the Shoshone project which was visited yesterday.

Tour District Today.

The secretary and his party spent most of today on the train en route from Cody to Bonneville; from Bonneville the travelers continued by automobile to Riverton where they are spending the night. Only the edge of the Riverton project was touched today, a tour of its principle sections being scheduled for tomorrow. When completed the Riverton project is to include about 100,000 acres. The irrigation works thus far constructed reach about 20,000 acres, of which only 450 acres actually were irrigated in 1927.

As a reason for unwillingness of settlers to take up the public land that is available it is pointed out that the area which has been opened is 20 miles from a railroad and the land is of poorer quality than some of that in the undeveloped portions, also the present area is said to be too small for economical operation. The construction cost is estimated at upwards of $200 per acre on the basis of the 20,000 acre irrigation system, pending a final determination of costs. The handful of settlers on the project are getting water on a rental basis of $1 an acre a year, with additional charges for excess water.

Homesteaded 30 Years Ago.

About one third of the land was homesteaded 30 years ago at a time when it was expected that water would be obtained from a proposed private irrigation system. Efforts to finance this enterprise failed and the settlers moved away because of low precipitation. Crops cannot be grown successfully without irrigation. The land has been used mainly for sheep grazing with irrigation. It is proposed to grow alfalfa, sweet clover, small grain, potatoes, sugar beets and hardy vegetables. Crop values on the small acreage irrigated in 1927 totaled $5,155 or an average of $13.29 an acre.

The Riverton project is located on the ceded portion of the Wind river Indian reservation in Fremont county, Wyoming. Water for irrigation is obtained from the Wind river, with the aid of a diversion dam built 35 miles above the town of Riverton. The diversion Pilot Butte reservoir 17 miles from the Wyoming canal and lateral system for the Pavilion division and the Pilot Butte power plant were completed in March, 1926.

Advertising Campaign.

Twenty farm units on public land were made available to settlement in November, 1926, 40 additional units were thrown up. These units range in size from 40 to 160 acres.

The reclamation bureau conducted an intensive advertising campaign to obtain settlers. While many inquiries were received most of those who were willing to take a chance on the proposition were eliminated because they did not possess $2,000 in capital or two years' experience in farming as required by the regulations.

Some of the others who fulfilled the requirements were reluctant to take entirely unimproved farms 20 miles distant from a railroad.

LAKE'S LEVEL AGAIN RISES, REPORT SHOWS; HEAVY RAINS CREDITED

Another rise in the level of Lake Michigan was reported yesterday by the United States lake survey department. Lake Michigan at present is 580.5 feet above mean sea level, a gain of .09 foot during August.

Beginning in April with the early spring rains the lake's level has continued to rise throughout the summer. Excessive rainfall and the accompanying rise of the Michigan level gives added proof that the fluctuation in the lake's depth depends largely upon rainfall and not upon the drainage canal diversion, according to Edward J. Kelly, chief engineer of the sanitary district.

Yesterday's report follows: "Lakes Michigan-Huron are .09 foot higher than in July [since 1860 the August level has average .05 foot lower than July] they are 1.02 feet higher than the August stage of a year ago, 0.44 foot above the average stage of August of the last ten years.

The report shows a rise in the level of Lake Superior which is .15 foot higher. On the other hand, Lakes Erie and Ontario show a fall in their respective levels for the last month, Erie being .12 foot lower than in July and Lake Ontario 1.09 foot lower.

FILE 10 CHARGES AGAINST REUSS IN $45,000 THEFT

Ten charges of embezzlement were filed yesterday against Otto Reuss, 45 years old, who confessed after his arrest on Wednesday that he had stolen $45,000 from his employers, the Chicago Mill and Lumber company. The complainant was Walter P. Paepcke, president of the concern.

Reuss was questioned in connection with the disappearance of $68,000 from the office safe, to which as a trusted employé he had access. He denied, however, that he had taken any of the securities representing this amount.

His arrest occurred after his associates began to wonder how he maintained his expensive home at 569 Hill street, Winnetka, six automobiles and four saddle horses on a salary of $7,500 a year.

U.S. Flag from Philadelphia Flies Over Paris City Hall

PARIS, Sept. 6.—(AP)—A United States flag, the gift of the city of Philadelphia, floated over the Paris city hall today. It was hoisted to commemorate the birthday of Lafayette and the anniversary of the battle of the Marne.

NEW DISCOVERS WHOLESALE JOB SELLING IN DIXIE

Affidavits Are Pouring In from Postmasters.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—Evidence in the form of affidavits from postmasters and others in South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee and Mississippi, substantiating in large measure charges of a wholesale traffic in federal appointments in southern states, have been filed with Postmaster General Harry New, it was revealed today by Senator Brookhart [Rep., Ia.] chairman of the senate's special patronage probe committee.

Calls on Postmasters.

The affidavits, which are closely guarded and will not be made public until the committee resumes its investigation after the November elections, were made, according to Senator Brookhart, in response to an order issued by Mr. New, calling upon every postmaster in the four states to say, under oath, whether money was paid for their appointments and who made the demands upon them.

The disclosures in the affidavits have been so surprising, Senator Brookhart continued, that it is probable that Mr. New will be asked to extend his order to include postmasters in at least two other southern states.

Paying for Their Berth.

Some of the affidavits filed by postmasters in Georgia indicate, according to the senator, that jobbers in federal patronage in one or two cases have been receiving incomes of as much as $1,600 monthly from appointees paying for their berths on the installment plan.

Shortly after the senate committee was created a federal grand jury in Mississippi indicted Perry W. Howard, Republican national committeeman from that state and a special assistant attorney general, for violating the statute prohibiting the sale of public offices. It is charged in the indictment on which Howard is to face trial next month, in Jackson, Miss., that he accepted $1,700 to obtain the appointment of a deputy federal marshal.

City of Moscow Goes Into Undertaking Business

MOSCOW, Sept. 6.—(AP)—A municipal undertaking establishment was opened today by the Moscow soviet. Disposing of the dead has been one of the few businesses which the Russian revolution left in private hands. Workers complained of the prices charged by the private establishments.

PROMINENT MEN BACK SWANSON CAMPAIGN PLANS

Representatives of the John A. Swanson Business Men's organization announced yesterday that they are receiving assurances of support for the Republican nominee for state's attorney from many men whose names are well known to the public. Among those listed were:

Clifford W. Barnes, Frederick A. Brown, Gen. Abel Davis, B. A. Eckhart, Eames MacVeagh, B. E. Sunny, Dr. Frank Billings, Rush C. Butler, George W. Dixon, J. B. Forgan Jr., Paul Schulze, and Charles R. Walgreen.

"These men are giving their moral and financial support to this movement," said Albert R. Brunker, head of the organization, "because they consider this the most important issue before Chicago voters at the November election."

School Boys Choose Clothes With College Conservatism

As well as their college-going brothers, the younger lads know the smart cut of the year, the right fabrics, the important little details—and their choice is decisive. For example they choose

Tooth paste starts Baby's bank account with a $3 deposit

Sounds strange, doesn't it? But it really isn't. Figure it out this way: by using Listerine Tooth Paste at 25¢ the large tube, instead of ordinary dentifrices costing twice as much, your average saving per year is $3. With this $3 you can open a savings account for your youngster. Or you can buy yourself gloves, or hosiery. There are countless items to choose from—the choice is yours.

A remarkable tooth paste at a remarkable price

You be the judge

AS makers of Listerine, we learned much about the requirements for firm, healthy gums, and beautiful gleaming teeth.

We felt that there was room for an improvement in the quality of tooth paste — and a real demand for a lower price.

Therefore we created a first class dentifrice suitable for all types of teeth. Listerine Tooth Paste is its name, and its price is but 25¢ for the large tube. Such a price for such a paste is possible only because of ultra-modern methods of manufacture and mass production.

The moment you begin to use Listerine Tooth Paste, you will be conscious of the delightful, fresh, clean and healthy feeling of your mouth and gums. And in a very short time you will note a marked improvement in your teeth—a new gleaming whiteness.

* * *

And remember, Listerine Tooth Paste accomplishes an average saving of three dollars a year per person, assuming that a tube a month per person is used. Think how substantial is the saving, when there are several in a family. Lambert Pharmacal Company, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Cleveland, O., Sept. 6.—This trip of our White Sox may not be so crucial, but it's swell training for the impending big series with the Yankees and Athletics through which the White Sox expect to dictate the American league pennant winning at Comiskey park.

Tommy Thomas kept in shape this afternoon by engaging in a workout against the Cleveland Indians, another club which has nothing to live for except being ornery when the eastern clubs come west Sept. 15. Tommy and his associates won the exercises, 2 to 1.

Except for the desire to keep supple, Tommy and the boys might have called off the last eight innings, for the score was the same at the end of the first inning as it was at the end of the game. It was Thomas' fifteenth win of the year and should have been a shoutout as he allowed only four hits.

Sox Earn Their Runs.

The lone run of the Indians was accomplished through an error, whereas the Sox got theirs through sturdy enterprise at the expense of Miljus. The season's tabulation between the two clubs reached ten and ten as a result of this afternoon's goings on. The two nines will rest tomorrow and will resume Saturday and Sunday. Saturday Adkins will pitch and so will Lefty Miller.

The Sox emerged from the first inning with a 2 to 1 edge despite a grievous error by Mostil and a not so serious boot by Swanson.

Mostil opened the contest with a double off the right field wall, and Shires walked. Reynolds singled to center, scoring Mostil and putting Shires on third. Reynolds stole second. Blackerby struck out, but Kamm sent a sacrifice fly to center, scoring Shires. Swanson grounded out.

The Indians' half started with a walk for Dorman. J. Sewell singled to right center. Mostil surprised the spectators by trying to make the play on Dorman at third, although he didn't have a Chinaman's chance for an out.

Crouse Catches Runner Napping.

The situation was aggravated much when the throw bounded into the dugout. Dorman proceeded home, and Joey went to second. Hodapp fouled to Crouse. Swanson juggled Summa's difficult grounder, Sewell reaching third, and Summa first. Crouse, who several times made a chump out of the Indians on the same play in Chicago, embarrassed J. Sewell with a snap throw to Kamm which caught him a yard from the bag.

In the third and fourth innings, the Sox got the first batsman on base, but on each occasion a double play blighted activities. In the Cleveland fourth, there seemed trouble ahead when J. Sewell led off with a double, Hodapp walked and Summa sacrificed. The situation eased when J. Sewell and Hodapp both sought to occupy third at the same time, a technique which isn't allowed under this year's rules. Hodapp was ruled out. Then Harvel filed to Blackerby. It was just good pitching the rest of the way.

Another Fine Friendship Is Withered

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Sept. 6.—Another of those beautiful May-November friendships of the sport business, like the one between Gene Tunny and old Mr. Will McCabe, so recently dissolved, has now been abrogated, leaving young Mr. Stanley Harris, manager of the Washington ball club, and old Mr. Clark Griffith, proprietor of the same, on terms of acquaintance and mutual respect, but not of filial and paternal devotion as before.

Young Mr. Harris is serving his last season as manager and second baseman of the Washington team and he is making a special effort to do violent things to the New York Yankees in their current series as part of a general, though belated, effort to land his squad in first division for the fifth time in five years. He has been so bold as to say that the present fight between the Yankees and the Philadelphia team may be decided, not by one or the other of the combatants, but by his own otherwise negligible athletes in two games tomorrow and another one Saturday.

In a recent drive of about a month's duration, Mr. Harris' men have won every series they have played against the teams of both the east and the west, with the exception of one four game engagement with the Cleveland Indians in which they broke even at two games apiece. Wednesday they played two games against the Yankees, winning and losing, and they expect to do no worse and perhaps some better in two games tomorrow and then to fight for the fifth game of the group Saturday afternoon.

After the season has closed, Mr. Harris will turn in his flannels to Mr. Griffith, speak a piece about having fought the good fight for five years, including reminders of the two pennants and one world series won under his administration, and prepare himself to go wherever Mr. Griffith shall elect to send him, only trusting, I suppose, that Mr. Griffith would not send an old friend to the White Sox.

However, I do not think Mr. Harris need thrash upon his cot of nights in worry about this because old Mr. Griffith, though he loves the young man less than he did when business was better in Washington, has not exactly come to hate him. He probably will come up to the winter meetings in New York and market him to some gentle proprietor who will make him happy and pay a pleasant price for him in cash, ivory, and soap wrappers.

At any rate, this cooling of an affection which served its day as a topic for tremulant winter league pieces on the sport pages three years ago, is definite and final and those who wish to be disillusioned may start to be now. It was a beautiful devotion while it lasted, with old Mr. Griffith, the tiring magnate, sitting in his office in the gloaming and seeing the Griffith ideals living another span in the career of Stanley Harris, whom he loved as a son and who loved him not as an employer, but as a father.

It was of a piece with the poetic attachment between Mr. Tunney and Mr. McCabe, that fine old stalwart or splendid old chap, as Mr. Tunney used to call him, who climbed down out of the ring in Philadelphia wet from the rain of his own tears and said he had seen his boy win the championship and was ready now to die.

Mr. Griffith loved Mr. Harris so well that he allowed him to acquire stock in the Washington ball club, and I recollect that in the year the Senators won their second pennant that stock paid Mr. Harris a dividend of 160 per cent. Since then, however, Stanley has disposed of his shares, and now that his contract has expired and his popularity in Washington has waned somewhat the father and son relationship has undergone a corresponding readjustment.

I am going to believe in these pater et filius affairs with great hesitancy and caution henceforth, being sentimental by nature and no longer up to the strain of these sunderings for revenue only.

Rain Halts Girls' and Women's Tennis Tourneys

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 6.—(AP)—The Girls' national tennis championship and the women's middle states tennis tournament at the Philadelphia Cricket club were halted today by rain. Today's scheduled matches will be played tomorrow morning.

ATHLETICS AND YANKS APPROACH CRUCIAL AFFRAY

Their Week-End Path Is Beset by Twin Bills.

Cubs Face Reds

THE Cubs will get back to an active rôle in the National league marathon when they assemble at Wrigley field this afternoon to repulse an onslaught from the Reds. After two days of rest McCarthy's flingers, who cracked a bit in seven consecutive games against the Reds and Pirates, are back to normalcy. Root or Blake are the logical candidates for this afternoon.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

After resting up a bit because of the whims of the schedule makers or the weather man, the teams that still survive in the two major pennant scrambles will resume business at the old stand this afternoon. And for a week the traffic will be so heavy that new faces may appear or at least begin to peek down the street that is known as First Place.

The only important wheel that turned in the diamond industry yesterday was the triumph of the Cardinals over the Pirates, who waited until the end of July before indicating they knew there was a championship race under way. The defeat was almost the death knell of Pittsburgh's hopes. The Pirates now trail by seven and one-half games, the same as the Reds. The Giants and Cubs fell back a half lap to four and one-half games in arrears. Five hundred ball from now to the finish in 22 games will practically assure St. Louis the coveted post and its bag of gold.

Yanks and Macks in Twin Bills.

Today the American League race, for months a one team affair but now a two angled scramble because of the slowing down of the Yanks, will take on an important angle because of the maze of double-headers into which the two contenders must throw themselves.

The Yanks, leading by two games where six weeks ago they were out in front by more than a dozen, have a treacherous trail to tread. Because of rainfall yesterday the stuttering Yanks must battle the Senators twice this afternoon. The Senators never are easy for a fellow with ambitions. The Macks also have a twin bill against Boston. An even break for the teams involved in these bargain affairs merely will delay developments in the scramble.

Tomorrow the Yanks will be able to sneak by with only one battle, but the Macks will be called upon for another two ply affair against the Red Sox. That makes two double headers for the Philadelphians in two days, but comprises only part of their worries. On Sunday they must struggle in another two sided affair, this one against the Yanks on the latter's own dirt pile. And on Monday and Tuesday the two contenders are slated for single battles.

Fans Scramble for Seats.

That the above mentioned battles are looked upon as having world's series importance was indicated in New York yesterday when the bugs stormed the club's portals in quest of tickets. Everybody wanted choice seating space for the Sunday double header, but most of the tickets had been disposed of in the mail, so there weren't many available for the thousands who formed a line as early as 7:30 a. m. The line was still a block and a half long when the sale ended and the disappointed ones expressed their discomfiture in such noisy manner that police reserves were summoned.

H. S. Officials May Ban Lightweight Teams

Lightweight basketball in the city public high schools may be abolished today when the board of control, athletic governing body, meets at the City club. Growing prejudice against the teams which require boys to make 130 pounds for the games is almost certain to bring changes, officials indicated yesterday.

BEST ON WESTERN DIAMONDS

Amateurs 'Warm Up'

NEWTON, Mass., Sept. 6.—Almost half of the 150 odd challengers for Bobby Jones' national amateur golf title assembled here today at Brae Burn and played practice rounds on the championship course, where next week's title play will be staged.

Bobby, however, was not present during the day. Jones, Francis Ouimet, who won the national amateur crown in 1914; Watts Gunn, Jones' golfing fellow-townsman, and Roland Mackenzie tried out the Unicorn Country club's course at Stoneham.

BOBBY JONES.

New York, Sept. 6.—(AP)—With Robert T. Jones Jr., amateur champion, in No. 1 position for the third straight year, and George Von Elm, former champion, ranked No. 2, the first ten amateur golfers in the United States were made public today by the United States Golf association. H. H. Ramsay, chairman of the championship committee, announced the annual ranking list for use in seeding the draw for the amateur championship, to be played next week over the Brae Burn course, West Newton, Mass.

In addition to the first ten, a supplementary list of ten was prepared and announced in alphabetical order. From this list additional names will

EARLIER CHICAGO.

DEAR WAKE: I was a newsboy shortly after the Chicago fire of '71 and remember both fires very well. There was a wagon for us newsboys on Randolph between Clark and Dearborn and we called the owner "Coffee John." Finally the authorities asked him to remove his wagon from the street and he took his stand in the vacant lot next to the Schiller theater. Our associates were Mike Kenna, Dan Kerry, and later Jack Flaherty.

Along about this time, my friend, John D. Gilbert wrote the play "Natural Gas" which he sold to Donnelly and Girard. After the play was written he had no name for it. The natural gas excitement was then on in Indiana and that is how it received its name.

T. G.

I remember my grandfather, T. W. Harvey (you see there are other Harveys) telling of how he waded in mud up to his knees out on the west side at Madison and Halsted. He bought two lots at a sale for taxes and all his fellow employés at the lumber yard laughed at him for throwing his money away. Later this was the foundation for a fortune which enabled him to build and maintain a home at 1702 Prairie avenue, in what was known as "Millionaires row." It also enabled him to buy the lumber yard from his employer and organize the T. W. Harvey Lumber company which became one of the largest in the west.

Morton Harvey, A Rolling Stone.

Yes, sir, some 40 years ago way out here in far away Fremont, Neb., we heard Jules Lumbard, recently mentioned in The Wake, sing "Are You Sleeping, Maggie," and other beautiful melodies. Now we hear the saxophone saw and screech, "Yes Sir, That's My Baby Now."

Toronto Swim Nets First 14 $2,500 Each

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 6.—(AP)—Fourteen entrants in yesterday's Wrigley Marathon swim will receive $2,500 each as their share of the $35,000 prize money, under a split-up arrangement announced today by the aquatic committee of the Canadian National exhibition. None of the contestants was able to finish the 15 mile grind.

George Michel of France, last of the field to leave the icy-cold waters of Lake Ontario, gained no more financially than did the other 13 prize winners but was placed at the top of the ranking by the committee.

Ernest Vierkoetter of Germany who was forced to withdraw after swimming 12 miles, a quarter of a mile less than Michel was ranked second, and Louis L. Mathius of New York who was taken out of the water at the same time as the Teuton, third. Mathius had covered only four laps to the German's five when he was forced to quit. The other prize winners, as they were ranked by the committee, follow:

William Erickson, New York.
Mendell Burditt, Toronto.
Myron Cox, Los Angeles.
Seward Holley, Venice, Cal.
Roland H. Tegtmier, Seattle, Wash.
George Young, Toronto.
Orville Hummell, Nauvoo, Ill.
Herbert von Popenfus, South Africa.
Garnet Cochrane, Cobourg, Ont.
Norman Ross, Chicago.
Harold Preston, Smithville, Ont.

Officials of the Canadian National exhibition, sponsors of the swim, announced today that a "consolation race" for a prize of $5,000 will be staged Saturday.

DADE PARK RIDER DIES AFTER FALL

Dade Park, Ky., Sept. 6.—(AP)—Jockey R. Collins was injured fatally here today when his mount, Blossom House, stumbled during the running of the second race, throwing his rider heavily. Collins died en route to an Evansville hospital.

WHITE SOX PARK SCENE OF FIGHT FOR U. S. TITLE

East and West Coast Teams Clash.

AL SILVA.

Nine boys from Oakland, Cal., the best junior baseball players west of the Rocky Mountains, and another nine from Worcester, Mass., survivors of elimination tournaments in the east and middle west, will battle in the first of a three game series that climaxes the American Legion's effort to revive interest in baseball among the nation's youth.

There will be another game tomorrow and if a third is necessary, it will be played Monday.

None of the players on either team is more than 16 years old. Many of them are 15 and Oakland has a star fielder only 14. These youngsters have survived nation-wide competition that attracted more than a thousand teams.

Ten Cents Admission.

If applications for tickets counts for anything, thousands of boys and girls will turn out today to see how the best of their age play the national game. A few days ago announcement was made that 10,000 tickets would be distributed free to school children. Last night it was reported that more than 25,000 had sought them. Children not equipped with a free ticket will be charged ten cents admission today and adults will be assessed 50 cents.

K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, will pitch the first ball. E. S. Barnard, president of the American league; John Heydler, president of the National league; John L. Griffith, Western conference athletic commissioner; A. A. Stagg, athletic director at the University of Chicago, and other leaders of professional and amateur sport will be in attendance.

Battle of Star Pitchers.

Worcester will send Wilson Dunlap Jr., with a record of 21 victories in 22 games, against the boys from the Pacific slope. He has averaged ten strikeouts a game. Trying to match Dunlap's skill will be Al Silva, Oakland's 16 year old mound ace, who pitched his team to the state, regional, and sectional championships. He hasn't lost a game all season and has had only two runs scored against him in 58 innings.

Oakland, in reaching the finals, rolled up 16 consecutive victories, scoring 167 runs against four for the opponents. The western champions are made up of lads from four Oakland high schools. Oakland won the right to play in Chicago by winning the sectional meet at Denver last week.

Worcester clinched its place in the title series by surviving the sectional meet at Louisville. Regional winners from the east, south and middle west competed.

Chicago Is Beaten.

Chicago's candidates for the national championship were eliminated easily. Marine Post won the Illinois sandlot championship by two forfeits and a 9 to 4 victory over Peoria in the state meet at Cubs' park, but was defeated, 11 to 10, in the finals of the regional meet at Comiskey park a week later. This tournament brought together state champions of Illinois, Michigan, Ohio and Indiana. Cleveland was the victor.

Officials of the major leagues donated $55,000 to help the American Legion defray expenses of deciding the national school boy champions. That fund, according to tournament officials has been exhausted. Traveling and hotel expenses of the teams who today will start the title series will be paid out of the receipts of the games at Comiskey park.

Swanky in his dress and complete race track equipment from binoculars to cane and spats, he made quite a splurge in Arlington park's club house.

Looking more like the middle aged well to do banker than the race track speculator he made one bet yesterday.

He bought $5,000 worth of $50 tickets to show on Illegitimate, the even money favorite in the day's feature race.

Illegitimate won. To show he paid $2.08 for each two dollars invested. The $5,000 plunge by the new plunger helped cut the odds.

He stepped up to the cashier in the $50 window on the club house section and collected $5,200 for his original $5,000 investment.

The mutuel ticket sellers said it was the only wager he made all afternoon.

BY FRENCH LANE.

The best western two year olds are not ready to beat the high class older horses. This was demonstrated in the Arlington Heights handicap at Arlington Park yesterday when three juveniles were tossed in with four older handicap performers in a six furlong battle.

The baby racers, each carrying only a feather of some 90 pounds, gave a good account of themselves until the real battle started at the head of the stretch. That's It, a two year old from the Three D's stable, was running head and head with the famous sprinter Illegitimate. Chicleight, another youngster from the Nevada Stock farm, was right with them and threatening at every stride.

Wacker Drive Runs Last.

But when the head of the stretch was reached there was a different story to tell. The youngsters wilted before the mighty drives of Illegitimate and Gracious Gift. That's It, which had made the pace for a time, hung on long enough to grab the show end of the purse, while Chicleight and War Time were badly beaten and wound up with the rear guard.

It was the fourth victory Illegitimate has scored in Chicago this season from the best sprinters that could be mustered against him. He has been beaten but once, running second to Nor'easter at Hawthorne, and in that race he seemed to be a bit outclassed, for after he had made the pace to midstretch Nor'easter came up and beat him as he pleased.

Favorites Fare Well.

After that defeat many came to the conclusion that despite his tremendous speed he was just ordinary as to class, and that was the reason he paid $4.78 in the mutuels yesterday, for on form he could have easily been figured as a 1 to 5 shot in such a field. His time for the six furlongs was 1:12. He got the verdict over Gracious Gift by a length and a half.

It was another perfect racing day at Arlington and the crowd again was large. Favorite players fared fairly well, getting away to a big start when Red Pennant walked home for them in the first race and they scored again when Willie Garner, riding in perfect form, brought Grenadier Guard home in the second race.

Grenadier Guard beat a big field of maiden 2 year olds and there had been the heaviest play of the season here on Calf Roper, a field horse, running in the silks of the Three D stable of Texas.

these amazing
New Brakes
revolutionize driving ease

NEVER before in any car, at any price, has there been such a scientifically efficient braking system as the new Cadillac-LaSalle Duplex Mechanical System of Four Wheel Brakes. These newly designed brakes are powerful, respond to the lightest touch and stop the car with astonishingly little pedal pressure. Only one easy, simple outside adjustment for each brake.

These new brakes represent but one of a host of new luxuries and safety features that have been engineered and built into the new Cadillacs and LaSalles, and with which you should personally acquaint yourself: (1) New Cadillac-LaSalle Syncro-Mesh Silent-Shift Transmission. (2) Security-Plate Glass that cannot fly into fragments in case of a collision. (3) New adjustable front seats. (4) Principles of pneumatic control engineered in chassis and body construction. (5) Chromium Plating, the new metallurgical treatment of exposed nickel parts. (6) Quieter, smoother and more powerful 90-degree, V-type, 8-cylinder engines. The nearest Cadillac-LaSalle dealer will gladly send a demonstrator to your door, if you will telephone him.

LaSalle $2295
The new LaSalle is priced from $2295 to $2875, the new Cadillac from $3295 to $7000, all prices f. o. b. Detroit. The General Motors time payment plan is a convenient way for you to enjoy all that Cadillac and LaSalle offer, while you pay for the cars out of income.

ALL EMERSON HATS ARE SWEAT-PROOF

Why
Emersons are Sweat-Proof

Here is the construction of the Emerson Interlined, Double-Sewn Sweat Band. A waterproofed interlining is first stitched to the sweat leather, then sewn to the hat itself. This patented feature keeps the sweat leather and stitching from coming in contact with the felt, and prevents the silk band and body of Emerson Hats from becoming stained or spotted by perspiration.

Now for a Stylish, Sweat-Proof Emerson Hat

YOU'LL get more than smarter style . . . more than better value . . . more than greater variety, if you make your new fall hat an Emerson. All Emerson Hats are made "sweat-proof" by an exclusive, patented feature . . . the Emerson Interlined, Double-Sewn Sweat Band. Yet the quality of Emerson Hats is the same . . . the finest! They cost no more because of the exclusive sweat-proof feature.

PINCH HITTER'S HOME RUN WINS FOR CARDS, 4 TO 3

Harper's Drive in Tenth Routs Pirates.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 6.—(AP)—George Harper, pinch hitting in the tenth inning, when two runs were needed for victory, came through with a home run that gave the league leading Cardinals a 4 to 3 victory over the Pirates today in the opener of a four game series. Harper's homer came with one out in the tenth after Wilson had opened the inning with a single. It was a long drive into the right field seats.

In the tenth inning Paul Waner staged the same dramatic act to tie the score at two all. Paul sent a drive into the stands, scoring behind brother Lloyd, who started things off by beating out a bunt. The Pirates got another run in the first half of the tenth when Scott singled, went to second on Mitchell's error, advanced to third while Hargreaves was being thrown out, and scored on a single by Grimes.

The first two Cardinal runs were the result of another homer, with Hafey being the batter and Bottomley the runner on base. Hafey's circuit drive was made in the fifth inning.

The victory puts the Cards 4½ games ahead of the Giants, who were idle today. Score:

be drawn if required for seeding purposes.

1. R. T. Jones Jr.
2. G. von Elm.
3. Francis Ouimet.
4. Jess Sweetser.
5. Frank Dolp.
6. Chas. Evans Jr.
7. H. R. Johnston.
8. Watts Gunn.
9. Dr. O. F. Willing.
10. R. Mackenzie.

The second ten, not grouped, however, with regard to ability but according to the alphabet, are: George Dawson, Jesse Guilford, Eddie Held, Eugene Homans, R. Marston, Maurice McCarthy Jr., Ray Moe, Ben Stein, George Voigt, Fred J. Wright Jr.

With Jones and Von Elm slated to head opposite halves of the draw, the stage will be set to bring these two stars together in the finals if the players do their part in disposing of the rest of the most representative field assembled for an amateur championship in years. The first ten includes the eight Walker cup players, with the champion and five former titleholders in that select group, besides Frank Dolp, the western amateur champion, and Dr. Willing, former Walker cup star.

STRIBLING ENDS SQUIRES' TITLE ASPIRATIONS IN 2D

New York, Sept. 6.—[Special.]—Young Stribling made short work of Johnny Squires in the feature 10 round bout at Madison Square Garden tonight, winning from the South African in 44 seconds of the second round when Referee Lou Magnolia intervened because Squires was out on his feet.

About thirty seconds after the bout started Stribling clipped Squires with a cuffing left that had him in distress. From there on Stribling went after his man with lefts and rights and had him covering up his face with his gloves to save himself. Suddenly, Stribling broke through the facial guard and shot in a swift right to the jaw that sent Squires down for the count of five.

Stribling started the second with a rush and in one onslaught lunged forward so hard that he backed Squires to the floor and stood straddle over him, nearly falling forward.

A few more rushes around the ring and Stribling had Squires in the latter's corner where several short lefts followed by a right to the jaw put Squires out on his feet and Referee Magnolia intervened.

DE VOS GIVES WILLIS LESSON IN 10 ROUNDS

Smothers Foe with Lefts and Rights.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Rene De Vos of Belgium last night established himself as a contender for the world's middleweight title by winning the ten round decision over Cowboy Jack Willis of San Francisco.

The fight was the windup of Promoter James C. Mullen's boxing show at Mills' stadium. The two fighters who have defeated some of the best middleweights, drew 5,500 fans and gate receipts of $13,700.

After the first three rounds, it was apparent the Belgian was Willis' master. The Californian's only hope rested in a knockout, and although he tried to connect with right and left hand punches, De Vos eluded them. The Belgian pulled away and let the blows go by or stepped inside and permitted the punches to land on his shoulders or back of his head.

Belgian Takes Lead at Start.

The Belgian went into the lead in the first round when he used his left hand to advantage. Even in this session, De Vos made Willis miss by wide margins. In the second round, Willis tried to land with right uppercuts, but De Vos pulled his head back and smothered his opponent with lefts and rights. In the third round, Willis went to his knees from a slip and not a punch.

Early in the fourth round, they butted heads and blood trickled from a cut on the top of the Belgian's head. In the same round De Vos opened a cut on Willis' lower lip. This round was about even. The Belgian continued to pile up points and won the remainder of the rounds.

De Vos weighed 159¾ pounds and Willis 158 yesterday afternoon.

Bowen Beats Patrice.

In the six round semi-windup, Ray Bowen, the Washington, D. C., lightweight, beat Joey Patrice of the west side. It was a slugging match all the way, Patrice taking a two count in the fourth round. Battling Levinsky local middleweight, won the decision from Jimmy Gardner, also of Chicago, in the four round opener. Ollie Bartlett of Minneapolis won by a technical knockout over Roy Peters of Chicago in the second round of the second fight. They met at 119 pounds.

Danny Delmont, Chicago lightweight, beat Lou Terry, St. Louis; Al Greenfield, local 130 pounder, trimmed Marty Fields, Chicago, and Marty Gallagher, Washington, D. C., heavyweight, won the five round decision from Tom Sayers of Detroit.

DATTO FIGHTS RUTH AT CELTIC PARK TONIGHT

Johnny Datto, the Cleveland, O., featherweight, and Babe Ruth of Louisville, Ky., will meet in the windup of tonight's boxing show at Englewood Celtic park, 74th street and Ashland avenue. They will box ten rounds to a decision at 126 pounds.

Joe Miller of South Chicago, and Joe Corrado, the Evanston middleweight, will meet in the six round semi-windup.

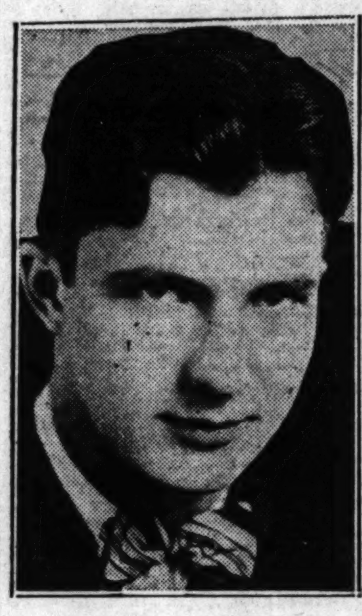
DUNCANSON WINS OVER RILEY IN U. S. ARMY GOLF

Maj. Donald B. Duncanson of the organized reserve corps and Maj. N. W. Riley, quartermasters corps, will represent the Sixth area in the United States army golf championship to be played at Chevy Chase, Washington, D. C., Sept. 17-21. Maj. Duncanson won the area championship at Olympia Fields yesterday, defeating Maj. N. W. Riley, 9 and 8, in the 36 hole final. Both will be sent to the championship round.

WHO'S WHO ON THE GRIDIRON

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

ARTICLE IV.



RUBE WAGNER.

Rube E. Wagner, who should rank with the leading tackles in the middle west this fall, will captain the University of Wiscosin eleven. The Cardinal leader was a strong player a year ago and Coach Glenn Thistlethwaite believes he will be one of the most important cogs in the Badger eleven this season.

Wagner learned his football as a high school player in St. Paul, Minn. He has been a member of the Wisconsin eleven for two years. He weighs 188 pounds and is six feet tall. He also has been a member of the track team, specializing in the shot put and discus throw.

The Cardinal captain intends to coach after closing his college athletic career. He will be graduated in June from the four year course in physical education. He has worked his way through the university since he enrolled as a freshman. At present he is employed in a hotel in Madison where he does odd jobs and waits on table for his room and board. He is a good student.

Prospects for a strong eleven at Madison are exceedingly bright and indications are Wisconsin will be represented by one of its best elevens in years. Nineteen "W" men, including Capt. Wagner, will report to Head Coach Thistlethwaite on Sept. 15. Aside from this nucleus, more than fifty experienced players will be on the squad. At least 75 eligible men will be available.

Aside from Capt. Wagner, the letter men returning are Ed Ziese, Mike Welch, James Davies, and Ebert Warren, ends; Stanley Binish, John Gottstein, and William Ketelaar, tackles; Gordon Connor, Paul Schuette, John Parks, and Herman McKaskle, guards; Larry Shomaker, center; Neil Hayes, quarter back; Joseph Kresky, Gene Rose, and Frank Cuisinier, half backs; and Harold Rebholz and Lewis Smith, full backs.

Players who were on the varsity squad a year ago and who will be available this fall are Peter Arne, Don Dunaway, Bert Moldenhauer, Frank Shaw, and Walter Weigent, half backs; Clifford Conry, center; Roger Garrison and Roger Stevens, guards; Robert Engelke, John Kowalsky, and Art Mansfield, ends; and Jack Linden, full back. Many experienced reserves also will be on hand.

In addition to Thistlethwaite, the members of the coaching staff are Tom Lieb, "Stub" Allison, Irving Uteritz, and Guy Sundt. The freshman team will be coached by Glenn Holmes.

SAN MATEO POLOISTS BEAT GUARDSMEN, 3-1

The Burlingame-San Mateo four Pacific coast polo champions, again demonstrated their superiority by defeating the Oak Brook Guardsmen, 3 goals to 1, yesterday in an exhibition match at the Oak Brook field. George Pope of the visitors broke through the Oak Brook defense twice to score as many goals. Paul Butler scored the lone goal for the Guardsmen.

Du Page polo team, which won the 12 goal championship of Chicago Wednesday by handing the Onwentsia four a 12 to 6 beating, will endeavor to break San Mateo's winning streak this afternoon on the Oak Brook field. The Chicago team will be composed of Baldwin, Corpening, McCormick, and Margetts. Lineup:

BURLINGAME [3].		OAK BROOK [1].
George Pope	1	P. L. Crites
Lin Howard	2	Carl Crawford
Hugh Drury	3	Paul Butler
Ken Walsh	4	H. L. Turner

Goals—Oak Brook: Butler. Burlingame: Pope, Howard, Walsh.

FIREMEN'S NINE PREPARES FOR DETROIT SERIES

The Chicago firemen's nine which tackles a fire and water squad from Detroit, Mich., in a three games series starting next Thursday, is being sent through daily drills in order to be in top shape for their foes.

Retriever Halts for Cool Swim Between Birds

BY BOB BECKER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Morris, Ill., Sept. 6.—Queen, Frank Collins' merry little Irish water spaniel which has retrieved many a mallard from the prairie ponds down here, came along with us this afternoon to pick up a few wild doves for us. Queen went after 'em all right but we learned on her first retrieve that although she likes to pick up birds, a water tank lures her from her job on a hot day.

Here is the way the spaniel put one over on us. We had driven in an old truck across the flat prairie to a water tank fed by a constant flow of artesian water. Ordinarily the wet marshy ground around the tank is a dandy place for doves which come to such a place throughout a hot day.

Frank had the car run in the shade of a thornapple tree about 60 feet from the tank and there we rested and chatted for a few minutes. Suddenly a pair of doves hove into sight. Frank grabbed his 20 gauge, ran out in the open and made as pretty a double as we have ever seen, the second bird taken at long range finally dropping more than 110 yards on the top of a knoll.

Queen, all smoked up by the shooting, raced away to retrieve. Out of condition, because it was her first work of the season, and panting like a lizard in the hot sun, Queen galloped in with the first bird. Away she went for the second. But the exertion was pretty strenuous on a hot day and cool water looks good to a spaniel when a summer sun is overhead. So Queen, coming back with bird number two, rushed to the water tank, leaped into the cool water, let go of the dove which floated and then proceeded to enjoy a cool swim. A couple of times around the tank and then she picked up the bird, climbed out and trotted up to Frank to deliver the bird, "delayed in transit."

STANFORD ELEVEN TO PLAY ARMY IN YANKEE STADIUM

New York, Sept. 6.—(AP)—The Yankee stadium, never greatly favored by the larger college elevens as a site for football games, has landed one of the greatest plums of the coming season. Army athletic officers announced that the Stanford-Army game, scheduled for New York on Dec. 1, would be played at the home of the Yankees, where a seating capacity of almost 100,000 is available.

ARGENTINE POLO SERIES PUT OFF UNTIL SEPT. 22

New York, Sept. 6.—(AP)—The Argentine-United States polo series for the championship of the Americas has been postponed for the third time because of the illness of the South American team's ponies.

The latest change shifts the start of the three game series at the Meadow Brook club, Westbury, Long Island, from Saturday, Sept. 15, to Sept. 22. The latter date is tentative, however, and further postponement may be necessary. Originally, the matches were to have started on Labor day.

Q YACHTS OPEN RACE FOR LUTZ TROPHY TODAY

Series Will Extend Over Three Days.

Chicago's "Q" class racing fleet rings down the finale on the season's cup racing when they open the Lutz trophy series at Jackson Park harbor this afternoon. Four of the Universal design speedsters will sail the first of three races under the auspices of the Jackson Park Yacht club.

The yachtsmen will sail the second of the series tomorrow afternoon, and close the season's cup racing with the third on Sunday.

Second Cup Race of Year.

The Lutz cup series will be the second for the local "Q" boats this year. The earlier triad, the Virginia Trophy series, which was sailed July 4th, was won this year by the Karas brothers' champion "Q" boat, Siren, of the Chicago Yacht club, twice winner of the Mackinac race.

The weather, however, which was light, was exactly to Siren's liking, and militated against the chances of her chief rival, the O'Rourke brothers' Intruder.

Heavy Weather Promised.

A promise of heavy weather this week end will give Intruder the edge, since most of her victories have been won when the breezes were strong. In addition to Siren and Intruder, Hadwiger's Virginia, and Jedzry-Kowski and Kallgren's Princess will also compete.

BANKS' BILLION MERGER STIRS UP TALK OF MELONS

With the billion dollar merger of Chicago's two largest banks to be approved today by the directors of the Continental National Bank and Trust company and the Illinois Merchants Trust company, La Salle street gossiped yesterday on the terms of the big deal.

There were rumors of "melons" for the stockholders of both banks as the result of adjustment of assets, with some reports that the Illinois Merchants stockholders would receive $100 a share and the Continental National stockholders around $30 a share. It was said these distributions might result from the Illinois Merchants turning in its building at $15,000,000 and the Continental building being sold.

Depends on Building Sale.

However, it was pointed out that such distributions probably would depend on the future sale of the Continental building. As to the terms of distribution of stock of the combined institutions to the stockholders of both banks, brokers pointed out that both the book values and the market prices suggest that Illinois Merchants stockholders will receive two shares for one and Continental National stockholders share for share.

The book value of Illinois Merchants stock is 302 and its market price is around 1,300. But the bank building is carried at only one dollar whereas a valuation of $15,000,000 would add $100 a share to book value, making it 402. The book value of Continental National stock is 216, including its building at $10,000,000, and its market price is around 695. These values would suggest a two-to-one ratio with little adjustment. On the present basis of capital stock, this ratio would mean the new bank would have capital stock of $65,000,000 and surplus of $60,000,000, although this would be changed by any distribution of assets.

As to the personnel of the chief officers of the new bank, La Salle street understands that George M. Reynolds, now chairman of the Continental National, will become chairman of the executive or finance committee, while Arthur Reynolds, now president of the Continental, will become chairman of the board, and Eugene M. Stevens, now president of the Illinois Merchants, will become president.

Marshall Field a Leader.

Aside from the officers of both banks, two of the leading figures in arranging the consolidation have been Marshall Field and Donald R. McLennan. Mr. Field is one of the largest stockholders of the Illinois Merchants bank and also a director, while Mr. McLennan is a director and large stockholder in the Continental National. Both are slated to continue as directors in the new institution. Mr. Field for several years has been senior partner in Field, Glore & Co., Chicago investment bankers, but it is said he may assume an executive position in the bank in the near future.

Judge Denies U. S. Priority in Claim Against Railway

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 6.—(AP)—Finding of Howard S. Abbott as master in chancery disallowing the government's contention of priority in claims totaling $3,713,927 against the Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad were affirmed by Judge Wilbur F. Booth of the Circuit Court of Appeals here today. In his findings Mr. Abbott dismissed government claims totaling $799,390, allowed one for $100 and held that in the other cases the government as a claimant would have to take its chances along with private claimants. Commissioner Abbott decided that the government lost its priority when it engaged in private business. Most of the claims against the railroad grew out of the government operation of the road during the world war.

NEW YORK CURB TRANSACTIONS

Thursday, Sept. 6, 1928.
[By the Associated Press.]

NEW YORK CURB HIT BY CHOPPY TRADING WAVES

New York, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Opposing forces carried prices in divergent directions in the busiest day since last spring on the New York curb market today. Several industrials and oils were pushed upward, largely by pool operations, while selling caused by profit taking and an increase in the call loan rate sent a number of industrial and utilities to lower levels.

Gulf of Pennsylvania led the oils with a 5 point gain, part of which was lost toward the close. Tidal Osage sold at one time 3 points up, while Humble, Imperial, and Vacuum made point gains, only to lose them later. The Standards, save for Ohio, were steady. The buying was inspired by a rumored world-wide restriction plan and expectation of better earnings by refineries.

Fox Theater A was the feature of the industrials, going up 2 points to within a fraction of the years high in a turnover of 130,000 shares. Steel shares were strong, in sympathy with the group on the big board, Acme rising 4 points to a new high, while Truscon increased its gain and Midland improved. Industrial Rayon was again a strong feature, shooting up nearly 16 points to a new high at 109¾. Balaban and Katz increased its gain on reports of impending acquisition by Paramount. Eastern Rolling Mills, International Printing Ink, Kimberly Clark, Pittsburgh Plate Glass, and U. S. Asbestos went to new highs in gains of 1½@3½ points.

Radio shares were again traded in heavy volume, Zenith shooting up 7½ points to a new high, while De Forest nearly equaled its previous top in continued accumulation. Canadian Marconi, Freshman, and Spanish and General eased. In the chain stores, Grant and Pender shares gained 3@5 points, while Neisner Bros. dropped nearly 5 points.

Weak spots in the industrials were Columbia Graphophone, which dropped 4⅝ points in selling on the good news when a 35 per cent dividend was announced in London. Bancitaly suffered a like drop, while Bohn Aaluminum, Grasselli Chemical, Libbey Owens, Niles Bement Pond, and Wheatsworth fell 2 and 3 points. Checker Cab encountered profit taking.

Mines steadied under the leadership of Phelps Dodge, which equaled its previous high at 148 in a 6 point rise. Noranda overcame early weakness and New Cornelia improved. Newmont, however, was in supply.

Profit taking carried a number of utilities downward 1@3 points, including American and Foreign Power, Electric Bond and Share.

25 STORY FLATS FOR 54TH ST. AND HYDE PARK BLVD.

BY AL CHASE.

Work is to start within six weeks on a twenty-five story semi-coöperative apartment building at the southeast corner of Hyde Park boulevard and East 54th street. This much was learned from Peden, Kahn & Murphy, attorneys for the Hyde Park-54th Street Building corporation, which has just taken out papers of incorporation at Springfield. The attorneys, however, declined to give the name of the architect.

The county recorder's office, however, disclosed a bit more about the project. The site, 80x142, was purchased by the corporation from the estate of Emil O. Langer. The corner is improved with an old residence, occupied for many years by the late Mr. Langer, a pioneer in the Hyde Park district who died two years ago.

Woman Takes Title to Melody Farm.

Mae Holliman took title yesterday to Mellody farm, former home of J. Ogden Armour, from the Continental Trust company, giving back a trust deed for $1,500,000. This is the second step in the sale of Mellody farm which was reported on June 5th as being sold to a syndicate of wealthy Chicago men.

The famous Armour estate, it is understood, is to be cut up into small estates instead of being subdivided in the usual way into lots. The syndicate owners, it is understood, will have title held in the name of Mae Holliman until such time as they care to divulge their identity.

To Show "Sub" from the Air.

Airplanes will be used to show prospective customers the new development of the Frank A. Mulholland company's subdivision at 79th and Cicero avenue, which opens next Sunday. A fleet of busses will furnish free transportation to and from the property, starting at 63d and Cicero, all day long. A $1,000 prize will be given for the best name submitted before sundown Sunday.

Victor E. and Oscar A. Carlson, plastering contractors of La Grange, have bought the two story business building at 4648-50 South 5th avenue, lot 50x160, from Frank J. Manning. Francis W. Peterson was attorney for all parties.

Pennsylvania Gas & Electric Corporation

6% Gold Debentures, Series A

Dated March 1, 1926 — Due March 1, 1976

INTEREST PAYABLE WITHOUT DEDUCTION FOR NORMAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX NOT TO EXCEED 2%

BUSINESS AND TERRITORY: Pennsylvania Gas & Electric Corporation owns and/or controls through subsidiaries a group of properties supplying a diversified public utility service in more than 98 communities having an aggregate population estimated to exceed 650,000. The communities served are either important industrial cities or are the centers of prosperous agricultural regions.

Electric light and power service is supplied in 13 communities in eastern North Carolina, centering about Kinston and New Bern. Manufactured gas is supplied at retail in 39 communities in Pennsylvania, including York and Pittston, 8 communities in New York, 5 communities in North Carolina, in Petersburg, Va., and in a suburban district tributary to Washington, D. C. Manufactured gas is also supplied at wholesale in Addison and Elmira, N. Y. Natural gas is furnished at wholesale in and near Oil City, Pa., and at retail in 7 nearby communities. Manufactured ice is supplied in Norfolk and Portsmouth, Va., Winston-Salem, N. C., Columbia, S. C., and 9 other cities in Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina.

SECURITY: The 6% Gold Debentures, Series A, are the direct obligation of the Corporation and constitute its only funded debt. These Debentures are followed by 30,000 shares of Cumulative Preferred Stock, 97,637 shares of Class A Participating Stock and 150,000 shares of Class B Stock, all of the last named, except Directors' qualifying shares, being owned by American Electric Power Corporation.

CONSOLIDATED EARNINGS: For the year ended May 31, 1928, the consolidated earnings of Pennsylvania Gas & Electric Corporation and its subsidiaries, including those of properties recently acquired, were as follows:

Gross Earnings (including non-operating revenue)	$5,877,125
Operating Expenses and Taxes (including current maintenance and taxes other than Federal Income Taxes)	3,919,248
Net Earnings	$1,957,877
Balance of Net Earnings (before depreciation, depletion and Federal Taxes) after deducting annual interest charges and dividends on preferred stocks of subsidiary companies, amortization and net earnings applicable to common stocks of subsidiary companies held by the public	1,175,140
Annual Interest Requirements on 6% Gold Debentures (including this issue)	342,000

The balance of net earnings as shown above was thus more than 3.43 times annual interest requirements on all Debentures outstanding with the public, including this issue.

It is expected that definitive debentures will be available for delivery on or about September 18, 1928.

BROKERS' LOANS MOVE UP AGAIN, U.S. REPORT SAYS

BY O. A. MATHER.

In spite of the uproarious bull stock market of the last week, the federal reserve board's weekly report on loans to brokers and dealers in securities by the New York federal reserve member banks showed an increase of only $54,061,000 last night.

This showing proved a pleasant surprise to speculators for the advance, as visions of an increase of $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 caused considerable nervousness in the stock market yesterday. However, their pleasure was tempered by remembrance that the reserve board's figures for last month showed a decline in loans, whereas data of the New York Stock exchange showed a large increase. The wide discrepancy raised doubts of the value of the reserve board's data.

Larger than Last Year.

But, taking the figures for what they may be worth, some interesting changes are shown. Such loans now stand at $4,283,209,000, an increase of $1,082,910,000 over a year ago. Nearly half of the total amount and practically all of the year's expansion results from the use of funds of corporations and individual lenders. The use of bank credit has increased rather moderately.

Corporations and other lenders now are extending $1,860,707,000 for stock market loans, which is $938,807,000 more than a year ago. The New York banks are lending $906,779,000, or $139,295,000 less than a year ago, and interior banks are lending $1,521,723,000, or $283,398,000 more than a year ago. Therefore the use of purely bank credit has increased only $144,103,000, or a little more than 4 per cent. Other lenders increased their loans.

New York Loans Grow.

The September payments of interest and dividends resulted in corporations reducing their loans by $46,512,000 and at the same time the interior banks drew down $13,440,000 in the last week. But the New York banks more than made up these withdrawals by increasing their own loans by $114,013,000.

There were two other bits of reassuring news relating to the credit situation. The New York federal reserve bank last night announced no change in its 5 per cent rediscount rate. There were further indications that the outgo of gold practically has ceased, as gold exports for the week ended Sept. 5 were only $227,000 and imports were $351,000. On the other hand, the treasury announcement that its new financing will bear 4½ per cent interest held little hope of any immediate and decided easing in money rates.

Call for Credit Grows.

Expansion of credit demands over the Sept. 1 period is shown in the weekly report of the federal reserve system, also issued last night. Loans and open market bills bought increased $41,344,000 and $2,497,000 respectively. Government securities declined $2,579,000 and deposits fell $19,105,000. Note circulation rose $50,029,000. Gold and total reserves declined $9,660,000 and $17,597,000 respectively. The ratio of reserves to liabilities fell to 68.6 from 69.5 per cent a week ago.

It appears, however, that most of the credit expansion took place in the New York district, as loans and bills there increased $57,680,000 and $2,071,000 respectively. Deposits fell $15,586,000. Reserves declined $57,446,000 and the reserve ratio dropped to 69.6 from 74.3 per cent last week. At Chicago loans declined $25,549,000, but bills increased $2,126,000. Deposits rose $5,700,000. Reserves increased $34,272,000 and the reserve ratio rose to 79.1 from 75.1 per cent a week ago.

Add 8 Per Cent to Market Value.

Last month the market value of 100 leading issues listed on the New York stock exchange increased $2,219,946,000, or 8⅜ per cent, according to a compilation by Frazier, Jelke & Co., brokers. At the end of the month these issues were given a quoted appraisal of $27,589,512,000, as compared with $26,185,369,000 at the end of May, the previous reported high level. On Jan. 31 of this year these same stocks were valued at $22,508,298,000, the increase in 7 months being over five billion dollars.

All of the twelve groups showed gains during August, the biggest increase being reported by the utilities, $531,621,000, or 11.7 per cent, the smallest proportional increase by the oils, 2.2 per cent. The rails gained only 3.12, but merchandising shares jumped 15.7 per cent.

Provide Daily Limit for Silk Market Fluctuations

New York, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Fluctuations in the price of silk futures on the National Raw Silk Exchange, which opens next Tuesday, will be limited to 50 cents a pound from the previous day's closing. This compares with a limit of two cents a pound on cotton futures on the New York Cotton Exchange and five cents a pound on rubber futures on the Rubber Exchange of New York. The wider fluctuation permitted on the National Raw Silk Exchange is due to the higher price of raw silk, which is now quoted around $5 a pound, while cotton and rubber are around 19 cents a pound.

DRY GOODS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—(AP)—COTTON GOODS—Steady today in the gray goods division where higher asking prices and the imminence of a government cotton report led to conservatism in some quarters. Buying has been of fair volume for the week thus far. August silk imports reached 62,930 bales, comparing with 38,670 in July; deliveries, 50,821, against 40,931, and stored at the month end, 50,975, against 38,866 bales in July. Burlap markets were dull locally but prices seemed easier. More business is developing in worsted lines of men's wear for spring, and in fall lines of worsted and woolen dress fabrics.

BOND MARKET IS LARGER, BUT TRADERS WARY

New York, Sept. 6. — (AP) — A somewhat troubled credit situation caused traders to stick close to shore in the bond market today. While the volume of sales was larger than in some time it represented chiefly small transactions in a wide variety of issues. Rails were the main support of the market, although some utilities, oils and other industrials were firmer.

Secondary rails were more in demand than the first grade issues. Chicago and Northwestern general 4s, Chicago, Terre Haute and Southeastern 5s, Mobile and Ohio 4½s, New Orleans and Northern 4½s and Seaboard Air Line 6s were lifted 1 to nearly 3 points. Other gains in the railroad group were chiefly fractional. St. Paul 5s, Great Northern 7s, Frisco 4s A and Pennsylvania 6½s were among the issues to seek lower levels.

Oils and utilities led the rise in the industrial group, with California Petroleum 5s, Philips Petroleum 5¼s, Pure Oil 5½s, and Simms Petroleum 6s prominent in the advance. Public Service of New Jersey 4½s encountered profit taking, but Brooklyn Union Gas 5s, Utah Power and Light 5s, International Telephone 4½s and others advanced a point or more. Barnsdall 6s, Dodge Brothers 6s and some other recent favorites closed unchanged.

G. R. Boyles New Official of Lake View State Bank

The election of George R. Boyles as vice president of the Lake View State bank was announced yesterday. Mr. Boyles resigned as an examiner for the Chicago Clearing House association to take the new post. He was connected with the clearing house organization for 17 years and previous to that was employed by the First National bank. Gerald B. Hadlock, a former national bank examiner and at present auditor of the State Bank of Chicago, was elected an examiner of the clearing house to succeed Mr. Boyles.

Two Concerns Start to Pay Preferred Dividends

Preferred stock dividends were started by two corporations yesterday. Directors of the American Community Power company declared an initial disbursement of $1.50 a share quarterly on the preferred, and the same amount on the preference stock. The Consolidated Automatic Merchandising corporation declared an initial dividend of 43¾ cents on the preferred stock for the period from Aug. 1 to Sept. 15, or at the annual rate of $3.50 a share. Directors of Parke Davis & Co. declared a special dividend of 10 cents a share in addition to the regular quarterly disbursement of 25 cents.

GRIGSBY-GRUNOW UP AGAIN IN CHICAGO; CALL RATE IS RAISED

Chicago stocks soared in active trading yesterday, although tightening of the call money rates late in the session caused a slight falling off from the highs of the day.

Radio issues continued as the dominant feature, Grigsby-Grunow leading on a jump of 16 points to a new high of 240. After that the stock closed at 239, a net gain of 15 points for the day. Zenith Radio followed with a gain of 7⅝ to 115⅝. Reports of favorable action of stockholders of both companies circulated in the financial district. Sonatron Tube sold up 2½.

Acme Steel declined 6½ and Super Maid and A. M. Castle were up 2½ and 2¼, respectively, and Winton Engine and Nachman Spring each closed with advances of 2 points. Vorclone, Godchaux Sugars, and Pines Winterfront climbed 1⅜ each. Henney Motors moved 1½ higher, as did Spiegel-May-Stern. Bastian-Blessing reflected reports of increased sales for the five months ending Aug. 31 with monthly increases ranging from 10 to 50 per cent. Studebaker Mail Order and Swift International advanced fractionally.

Kalamazoo Stove sold off 2 points and Borg-Warner eased 1½. North American Car finished a point lower. On small sales, Great Lakes Dredge declined 5 points and losses of from one to 3 points were felt by McQuay-Norris, Campbell, Wyant & Cannon Foundry, Auburn Automobile, Modine Manufacturing and Bunte Bros. Coleman Lamp gained 2½ and Central & Southwest Utilities and National Electric Power "A" each advanced a point.

Bendix corporation stockholders approved the plan to simplify the capital structure. The company will eliminate 65,000 shares of class "A" stock. In place of its present capitalization of 225,000 shares of $10 par stock, an authorized issue of 600,000 shares of $5 par capital stock will be made.

Stockholders will receive two shares of new stock for each share of present stock and there will be 450,000 shares outstanding and 150,000 shares in the treasury. The new stock will be placed on a $2 annual basis, equivalent to $4 on the old stock. The company will redeem on Nov. 1, $100,000 of an issue of $1,100,000 of five year notes due 1932.

General Motors Officials Discuss Airplane Making

Youngstown, Sept. 6.—"We have discussed the airplane business, but have no thought of entering this line of production as yet," said Floyd A. Allen, assistant to Alfred P. Sloan Jr., president of General Motors, here to address the Rotary club. "Business is good, and the outlook is favorable. We see no let down in the demand for automobiles. We have largely solved the seasonal demand and production problems. Our schedules are so arranged we can keep our men employed the year round. Our problem now is no longer production but consumption."

Mr. Clayton E. Freeman, President of both of the companies mentioned below, has summarized his letter regarding the business as follows.

HISTORY & BUSINESS

"W. T. Grant Company (Delaware Corporation) owns all the capital stock of W. T. Grant Company (Massachusetts Corporation), referred to below as "the Company," which operates a chain of 199 department stores, located principally in the eastern part of the United States, from Maine to Texas, the majority being in the New England states, in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. In these stores, the Company sells household furnishings, wearing apparel, hosiery, toys, hardware, etc. All merchandise is priced at $1.00 and under, except in the millinery and radio supply departments, and in the women's apparel departments maintained in nine of the stores. The Company specializes in articles of a staple and necessary character, which by reason of their low price enjoy a popular demand, resulting in rapid inventory turnover.

The business was started by Mr. W. T. Grant with the opening of one store in Lynn, Mass., in December 1906. From the beginning the enterprise has been successful and growth has been remarkably rapid. In each year of operation sales have been greater than in any preceding year, the volume in 1927, $43,743,929, having been over seventeen times the total for 1914, $2,565,296. Sales for the six months ended July 31, 1928 amounted to $22,397,592 as compared with $17,877,666 for the six months ended July 31, 1927, an increase of 25.28%.

EARNINGS

Every year since 1920 has shown an increase in net profits. Consolidated net profits of W. T. Grant Company, (Del.), and W. T. Grant Company, (Mass.), and net profits of the Massachusetts Company prior to acquisition of its stock by the Delaware Company, after all charges, including reserves for Federal taxes and for depreciation, for the five fiscal years ended January 31, 1928, as certified by Messrs. Ernst & Ernst, have been as follows:

1924	$1,360,837.44	$2.68
1925	1,399,872.05	2.76
1926	1,825,273.54	3.60
1927	2,126,731.22	4.19
1928	2,329,454.05	4.59

Net profits for the six months ended July 31, 1928 exceeded those for the corresponding period of the previous year by more than 26%.

Cash dividends have been paid in each year since the inception of the business in 1906. The present dividend rate of W. T. Grant Company (Delaware) is $1.00 per share per annum payable quarterly January, April, July and October 1."

Illinois Power and Light Corporation

First and Refunding Mortgage Gold Bonds

Series C, 5%, Thirty Years
Due December 1, 1956

Price 96 and Interest, Yielding Over 5.25 Per Cent

The Corporation agrees to pay interest without deduction for any normal federal income tax up to 2% and to reimburse the holders of these bonds, upon application within sixty days after payment, for the California personal property tax not exceeding four mills per dollar per annum.

The following information is taken from official sources:

The corporation owns and operates electric power and light, gas, heat and city railway and bus properties in a large number of the most populous and prosperous municipalities in Illinois and controls other utilities of which the most important are Des Moines Electric Light Company and The Kansas Power and Light Company. It also controls an extensive system of trunk line railroads in Illinois with a terminal in St. Louis and a profitable steam railroad which enters East St. Louis. The corporation and its controlled companies render service to over 470 municipalities. The electric power and light properties serve without competition over 259,000 customers.

As officially reported, for the year ended July 31, 1928, gross earnings of the system from operation, including earnings of recently acquired properties for the full year, were $34,541,783; net income available for corporation bond interest, $12,931,115, or over 2.28 times the annual interest of $5,651,511 on the $102,713,100 of mortgage bonds of the corporation outstanding, including this issue. Approximately 80% of the net earnings are derived from electric power and light, gas and miscellaneous sources other than transportation. For over twenty-three years the principal companies constituting this system have steadily increased in earning power and have paid dividends on their preferred stocks, without interruption.

The First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds, in opinion of counsel, are secured by direct mortgage or collateral lien on properties appraised at a value substantially in excess of the total mortgage bonds outstanding and are a direct first mortgage or lien free of prior encumbrance on properties, including some of the most important power and light properties of the system, which alone produce net earnings greater than the annual interest requirements on the First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds outstanding.

We recommend these bonds for investment and shall be pleased to send a circular describing the issue in detail.

ERIE DIRECTORS SHOW CHICAGO IS ON RAIL MAP

BY HARPER LEECH.

Although there are many Chicagoans who do not even know that Chicago is a station on the Erie, it seems that the Erie is more aware of Chicago than are any of the four great trunk lines which find their way here from New York.

The railroad corporation manuals list 15 Erie directors, 11 New Yorkers and four Chicagoans: William Wrigley Jr., B. A. Eckhart, M. D. Follansbee and G. E. Marcy.

This city has a greater representation in the councils of the Erie than of any eastern trunk line. Is this not another reason why far seeing railroad students have a right to expect big things from that road?

It has had a battered history, but nothing that has happened to it from its early adventures with Uncle Daniel Drew, Jim Fiske and Jay Gould ever has detracted from the fundamental soundness of the Erie as a great traffic route. When first built it was a world's wonder, and its history is a vital chapter of American transport.

B. & O. Has One.

The B. & O. through fast passenger service in recent years has acquired an increasing share of Chicago attention. But the B. & O. has only one Chicago director according to the last list—Frederic H. Rawson. There are five New York directors, four from Baltimore, one from Cleveland—Newton D. Baker—and one Philadelphian.

Although the Century is its pride and runs between New York and Chicago, only one Chicagoan, James Simpson, appears to hold a place on the directorate of the New York Central. Cleveland and Cincinnati also are recognized by one director each, but 13 directors are New Yorkers, including three Vanderbilts.

Philadelphia holds a similar position in the Pennsylvania directorate. Neither New York nor Chicago has a place on that board. There are 13 directors from the Quaker city, two from Pittsburgh, one from Radner, Pa., and one from Narberth, Pa.

Yes, It's Pennsylvania.

The Pennsylvania lives up to its name in its directorate. In the case of the Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh is of course the greatest traffic center—but if three of these roads got traffic from Chicago and Chicago connections only in proportion to Chicago's representation in their high councils, there would be a sad story to tell of the trunk lines.

The composition and residence of their directorates, like the distribution of their stock ownership and their banking connections, reveals what an influence history and tradition have in the railroad set up, as compared to younger industries which have grown up since the railroads helped to pull America away from the Atlantic seaboard, a feat they have never accomplished for themselves.

AWAIT COTTON REPORT

Cotton received better support, the undertone being stronger and the news moderately bullish. Traders await the government crop report, due at 11 a. m. on Saturday. Averaging estimates by 73 members of the New York cotton exchange, the result predicts, is for 14,316,000 bales. Private reports issued during the day suggested a condition of 56.50-60.5, with 14,154,000 to 15,400,000 bales.

There were rains in the Atlantic states, which brought a little buying.

Reports from New Bedford suggested a possible settlement of the strike there that has been on for 21 weeks. The International Spinners' federation estimates the world's consumption of American cotton the past year at 15,407,000 bales, against 15,780,000 bales last season. Consumption of all cotton was 25,540,000 bales, against 25,881,000 bales last year.

Liverpool was firmer early but closed lower. Futures in Chicago closed 10 to 13 points higher and other markets 12 to 17 points up. Spots gained 10 points with New York, 19.35c; New Orleans, 18.80c, and Houston, 18.70c. Prices follow:

TOPICS OF FINANCE, TRADE AND INDUSTRY

Control of the capital stock of Peieris, Buhler & Co., textile factors whose clients include leading mills in America and abroad, will be acquired by the Commercial Investment Trust corporation, under a contract signed yesterday. Robert G. Blumenthal becomes president of Peieris Buhler & Co., succeeding Herbert P. Howell, who resigns to become president of the new Commercial National Bank and Trust company. Commercial Investment Trust corporation is a holding company which finances the distribution of more than 60 manufactured products.

E. J. Kulas, president of Otis Steel, sees excellent prospects for continued strength in the steel market and expects firmer prices to prevail. He said the company's plants were at capacity with the largest accumulation of orders in months. Billings for August were $3,218,145, best month in five years, excepting March, 1928.

Arrangements have been concluded by Campbell, Peterson & Co., for a syndicate of Wall street men to acquire the liquidometer company, inc., Long Island City, makers of long distance direct reading liquid gauges.

The Atlas Store corporation, operating a nation-wide chain of retail radio stores, announce the purchase of $260,000 of a 7 story structure in central downtown Cincinnati. This building will contain a retail salesroom, and also will be used as a central office and warehouse for the Cincinnati district, which now embraces a number of stores in Cincinnati, Hamilton, and Norwood, O.

Stocks of raw silk on Sept. 1 were 50,975 bales, against 38,866 on Aug. 1, the Silk Association of America reports. Imports in August were 62,930, a total of 101,796 bales being available during the month. Approximate [illegible] American mills in August [illegible] bales.

Motor Wheel corporation had [illegible] month's business in August, [illegible] 65 per cent ahead of August, [illegible] earnings for eight months this year [illegible] estimated at $2,000,000, which would [illegible] $450,000 greater than for the [illegible] 1927.

Continued high rate of [illegible] duction has contributed to [illegible] activity in the Pittsburgh district, [illegible] prices firm. August sales of steel [illegible] exceeded those of both July this [illegible] and August, 1927.

Pennsylvania railroad is building at [illegible] Altoona shops ten passenger [illegible] Southern Pacific railroad is in the market for twenty-five passenger cars and the Chesapeake and Ohio is making inquiries for two diners.

Active buying of copper featured the metal market the last week, total tonnage being the largest for any week since the buying wave in May, Engineering and Mining Journal reports. Prices for copper were unchanged. Lead and particularly zinc have been quieter after the comparative activity of the two previous weeks. Tin has been neglected in the last two days of the week, while silver has been weak.

To many executives of Chicago and the Middle West, greater achievements and a larger measure of success have come from association with a bank having a close personal understanding of their problems.

Through almost 60 years of service to business concerns whose products reach the world's markets, this Bank has acquired in unusual degree that caliber and experience which are recognized as desirable in a banking connection.

BEARS SLAPPING BULLS ABOUT IN STOCK MARKET

YESTERDAY'S AVERAGES

	High.	Low.	Last.	Net chge.
25 railroads	125.65	124.53	124.86—	.67
25 industrials	281.39	278.14	279.62—	1.15
50 stocks	203.52	201.33	202.24—	.91

New York, Sept. 6.—[Special.]—Wall street is in a whirl again with 4,000,000 share days the rule rather than the exception. The bears made a better showing against the bulls in today's lively session, but no real weakness appeared. Numerically there were more net losses on the day than gains, but the gains generally were much the larger.

The day's turnover approximated 4,500,000 shares, with the heaviest general trading in the early part of the session, when many of yesterday's leaders slumped sharply for losses ranging from 2 to more than ten points. The last hour and a half saw a majority of issues recovering, but a great number of them failed to get back to their closing prices of yesterday.

Call Money Upsetting Factor.

Nervousness over the federal reserve brokerage loan figures made public after the market's close was one of the most unsettling influences of the day. The call money market was another upsetting factor. The raising of the rate from 7½ per cent, at which level renewals were made, to 8 per cent was an unpleasant surprise. The banks called about $20,000,000 of loans.

The big fighting centered around United States Steel, which in large volume dealings soared in the afternoon to a new high at 156½, then dropped back to close at 154½, up 1½ net; Curtiss, which gained 10⅝ net; Wright, up 6 points, Briggs Manufacturing, at a new high with a gain of 3½ points; Radio, down 5⅝; General Motors, down 3⅛, and Chrysler with a loss of 1⅝.

Demand Is Widespread.

The steel and oil shares were flung into the breach today when the market threatened to falter. As the session wore on demand spread to American Can, American Linseed, Briggs Manufacturing, Barnsdall A, Bayuk Cigars, Fox Film A, the airplane stocks, Brunswick-Balke-Collender, Loose Wiles, Lorillard, Purity Bakery, Sloss Sheffield, Vanadium, Tidewater association, Keith, Republic Steel, Case Threshing, Commercial Investment Trust, Atlantic Gulf and West Indies and other issues. The net gains in this group ranged from 2 to 8 points.

The motor shares were under strong bear pressure during most of the session and practically all of them quit with substantial net recessions. The rubbers and coppers also suffered and the power stocks were fairly hard hit today. Most of the rails slumbered, but practically all of them that were at all active finished in the minus line.

Abitibi Power Provides for $45,000,000 Payment

MONTREAL, Que., Sept. 6.—The proceeds of the recent $50,000,000 first mortgage 5 per cent bond issue of Abitibi Power and Paper company have been turned over to the company by the underwriters, and out of the funds received provision has been made for the redemption of over $45,000,000 of outstanding bonds of Abitibi and its subsidiaries. The substitution of a 5 per cent bond for bonds bearing interest rates from 5½ to 7½ per cent will effect a substantial saving to the company in interest charges each year. In addition, preferred stocks of subsidiary companies to the extent of some $11,500,000 have been called for redemption out of the proceeds of the earlier issues of 6 per cent preferred stock of Abitibi.

Standard Oil of California.

A. W. H., Quincy, Ill.—Standard Oil Company of California reported net income of $40,210,953 for 1927, as compared with $55,122,014 for 1926.

This was equal to $3.19 a share earned on its no par capital stock in 1927, against $4.37 a share earned in 1926.

After payment of dividends there was a surplus of $7,151,445 for the year 1927, compared with $29,929,650 for 1926.

SUGAR.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—(AP)—SUGAR—Raw: Easier again today. No sales confirmed below 4.08c for spots, duty paid, despite an impression that business was done at either 1-32 or ⅛c below that. Only sale confirmed, 21,000 bags of Cuban at 4.08c, but at the close nearby sugars were offered at 4.05c, without buying interest. Raw futures sold into new low ground for the season, closing with net losses of 2@5 points, after opening unchanged to 2 points lower. Prices:

A LACKNER, BUTZ ISSUE
Ritz Lake Park Garage
(Property leased for 15 Years to the Ritz Chicago Garage Co.)
$290,000 6¼% First Mortgage Real Estate Bonds secured by land and building. Maturities 3 to 10 years—Price par and interest to yield 6¼%.
SECURITY: First mortgage on land owned in fee and a 3-story and basement garage building being constructed at 5021-25 Lake Park Avenue, Chicago. The land is "L"-shaped, with a frontage of 46 ft. on Lake Park Avenue, a width in the rear of 139 ft., and a maximum depth of 167 ft., and has a total area of approximately 17,000 sq. ft. The building will be of reinforced concrete, fireproof construction, with stalls for 300 cars.
LOCATION: Lake Park Avenue, near Hyde Park Blvd., in the well-known Hyde Park District. In close proximity to numerous high-grade apartment buildings, residential hotels, and co-operative ownership buildings, ranging from 3 to 19 stories in height. There is a strong demand in this section for a modern garage building.
VALUATION AND INCOME: Independent appraisals set the value of land and building at $442,000. The entire property has been leased for 15 years to the Ritz Chicago Garage Co. at a net rental of $45,000 per year, which is approximately 2.4 times the greatest annual interest charge on the issue.
We recommend these bonds for investment.

FOREIGN ORDERS, CANADIAN DELAY ADVANCE WHEAT

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Prospects for wet weather in the Canadian northwest which may delay the movement was responsible for an increase in interest on the buying side of wheat. While prices were fractionally lower early, there was an advance of 1@1¼c from the low point. The finish was about the top with net gains of ⅛@⅝c. Corn received fair support and closed ⅝c higher on September and ⅛@¼c higher on the deferred futures, while oats were unchanged to ¼c higher and rye was ¼@½c lower.

There was a somewhat better class of commission house buying in wheat and while the trade was not large, hedging pressure from the northwest was less in evidence. Offerings were not large. The bulge was checked by selling against offers. Winnipeg gained ⅝@⅞c for the day, although the greater part of the crop comment was bearish, and some high estimates as to the yield in the prairie provinces were said to be in circulation. It is claimed that 70 per cent of the wheat there is already cut and practically all of the 336 cars received at leading points on Wednesday were new grain. Country deliveries were placed at 2,710,000 bu against 257,000 bu last year.

Export Demand Improves.

Foreign demand for cash wheat was better with sales of 750,000 to 1,000,000 bu in all positions, largely Manitobas. Liverpool was easy early, but rallied and closed unchanged to ¼d higher, and is due ⅝@½d higher based on the action of the Chicago market. Cash wheat here was steady to ½c higher as compared with the September, and offerings to arrive from the country were small.

Strength in cash corn with No. 2 white going to a premium of 1c over yellow attracted considerable attention and led to sufficient buying to carry the September delivery up 1¼c over the early low. Open interest in the nearby future is 23,698,000 bu, and has shown a reduction of only 13,000,000 bu since July 31. Shipping sales here aggregated 182,000 bu, in addition to the business done by the leading interest.

December Corn Firmer.

Commission houses were fair buyers of the deferred deliveries of corn, and there was less pressure on the market, with the advance checked by selling against offers. Weather conditions over the belt were generally favorable, and some grain is being cut in Ohio.

Cash interests were on the buying side of September oats, and offerings from scattered longs were readily absorbed. There was also buying of September against sales of December.

Scattered liquidation was on in September rye, and there was also pressure from houses with Duluth connections. No export business was reported at the seaboard.

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET NEWS

A call for a report on all open trades in September corn equaling and exceeding 100,000 bu at the close Sept. 6 was sent out by L. A. Fitz, in charge of the grain futures administration, Chicago.

The open interest at the close on Wednesday night was 23,698,000 bu, compared with 26,757,000 bu a week ago. At the close on Sept. 1 it was 23,401,000 bu.

* * *

Wheat prices have been around the present level for about a month. The break following the issuance of the government crop report in August brought prices down to the lowest in the season. From that point there has been a rally. Prices are holding surprisingly well, considering all the depressing influences. An impression exists in the trade that there will be a continuation of present conditions until after the government report is issued next Monday. That in connection with the movement of wheat in the northwest may change the ideas of the traders and lower prices, according to the popular belief.

* * *

Industries are said to be more anxious for cash corn, although they are not buying heavily, but are looking around for supplies. Increased inquiry for white corn is reported by the largest holders and good sales have been made of late. Cash prices have strengthened in the last few days and it is not so easy to buy old corn, it is said. A large operator at Buffalo who has been buying corn at 90c in western Iowa and shipping all rail from that market to Buffalo was inquiring for corn here yesterday, reporting that country offerings had fallen off.

* * *

December corn is meeting fair support around 75c and trade seems to be divided as to the immediate course of prices. For several days pressure on December has been lighter, but bulges to around 75½c bring in fair selling.

* * *

A considerable part of the wheat trade is in buying September and selling December at 5c spread and buying December and selling May at 7c spread. When these differences are changed slightly it brings an unspreading movement.

CASH BUTTER HIGHER

Although butter prices advanced ½c to 48½c to 49c, the highest of the season so far, futures advanced ¼c early and reacted and closed unchanged at 46¼c. Sales were 21 cars and receipts 6,943 tubs. Production at 156 plants last week fell off to 7,081,582 lbs, compared with 7,220,123 lbs. last year.

Shorts bought November eggs and advanced them ½c to 32½c. Sales were 554 cars and arrivals 7,490 cases.

CASH·GRAIN NEWS

Export sales of 750,000 to 1,000,000 bu wheat, largely Manitobas, were reported in all positions, but the demand from abroad for other grains was slow. Local handlers sold 80,000 bu wheat, 132,000 bu corn, 76,000 bu oats, and 16,000 bu barley to the domestic trade, with 100,000 bu wheat to go to store. Deliveries on September contracts were 705,000 bu wheat, 30,000 bu oats, and 30,000 buy rye.

Offerings of cash wheat were not large, and the basis here was steady to ½c higher, with No. 2 red 26@28c over, No. 2 hard 2@2½c over, and No. 1 northern 1½@2c over September. Spring wheat at Minneapolis gained 1@2c on the future. Cash corn basis was steady to 1c higher, with white showing the most strength; No. 2 mixed 6@7c over, yellow 7½@8c over, and white 8@9c over September. Basis on cash oats steady, with No. 2 white 1½@2½c over and No. 3 white ½@2c over September.

WORLD'S WHEAT CROP

World's wheat production for 1928 in 26 countries is estimated at 2,552,719,000 bu, an increase of 1.6 per cent over the 2,512,120,000 bu in the same countries in 1927, when that amount equaled about 71 per cent of estimated world total outside of Russia and China. First estimate of production in Jugo-Slavia amounting to 105,380,000 bu, compared with 56,568,000 bu last year, brings total European crop reported to date for 17 countries up to 1,223,349,000 bu, compared with 1,170,173,000 bu in last year, when they produced over 90 per cent of estimated total European crop outside of Russia. This figure for Jugo-Slavia indicates a much higher yield than usual and higher than has been previously reported in present territory. Future revisions are expected to lower rather than raise estimate.

IMPROVED TONE IN LARD

The lard market has taken on an improved tone of late. September has been well liquidated and new buying is coming into the market, in addition to purchases by professionals. Packers and profit takers are the main sellers; there has been no pressure on the market for several days. Hogs were strong to 10c higher, with the top $13.05 and receipts at western points small as compared with a week and a year ago. Domestic trade has improved both in lard and meats.

At the close lard futures were 5c to 10c higher with December and January leading while short ribs were unchanged and bellies 10c higher. Liverpool lard was 3d to 6d higher. Exports of lard were 75,835 lbs. and of bacon, 131,000 lbs. Prices follow:

Another advance carried top steers up to $18.25 yesterday, showing $1.25 gain in ten days and $2.00 advance since the middle of July. Prevailing quotations are $3.00 above a year ago. Prices during September, 1927 advanced $1.50@1.75.

Prime 1,309 lb steers topped at $18.25, with 1,210 lb averages at $18.15 and 973 lb yearlings at $18.00. In between and cheaper grades of cattle are selling 25@40c above a week ago. Butcher stock ruled steady to strong. Calves sold strong to higher, selected vealers reaching $18.50. The supply of feeder cattle met quick clearance at recent advances.

With small receipts in sight for the rest of the month, better grades of hogs moved up largely, 5@10c, top reaching $13.10, within 15c of the highest of the year. Brisk competition among smaller packers offset the comparatively small shipping orders and few good grades were in the 9,000 left at the close. Owing partly to the Monday holiday, receipts at Chicago this week will be second smallest since 1920 at about 81,000.

Brisk competition forced top western range lambs up to $15.75 yesterday in face of a reported larger movement of supplies from the west for the next few weeks. Prices are highest since middle of July and $1.25@1.50 above the low spot of the season established two weeks ago. Natives to city butchers sold up to $15.35. Receipts this week promise to run close to 100,000 despite the Monday holiday. There were only two weekly totals above 100,000 during 1927. In 1926 nine weeks were credited with totals over 100,000, eight of them being in September and later.

First Mortgage Fee 6% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds

Dated: August 29, 1928 Due: September 1, 1936

THE COLONIAL TRUST COMPANY, PHILADELPHIA, TRUSTEE

We summarize as follows from a letter from the president of the corporation owning the mortgaged property:

SECURITY: These bonds are secured by a first mortgage on land owned in fee and situated on the west side of Frankford Avenue between Orthodox and Margaretta Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., together with a modern, fire-proof store and theatre building to be erected thereon.

The building will be of steel frame, will have three stores facing Frankford Avenue and a 3050-seat theatre fully equipped and furnished, including an organ. The theatre will be modern in design and equipment, and interior decorations will follow along the lines of atmospheric treatment. Completion of the building is guaranteed to the bondholders.

VALUATIONS: Land and building, when completed, have been appraised as follows:

Jesse Jay Schamberg, Real Estate, Philadelphia	$1,860,000
Benjamin Barron, Realtor, Philadelphia	1,795,000

Based on the lower of these two appraisals there is an equity of $595,000 above the amount of this bond issue.

LEASE: The theatre is leased for twenty years to the Stanley Company of America, one of the leading motion picture operating companies in the East, owning or leasing about 255 theatres on the Atlantic seaboard. The minimum net annual rentals will be more than sufficient to meet the greatest combined annual interest and sinking fund requirements with respect to the bonds outstanding.

LEGALITY FOR TRUST FUNDS: These bonds are the direct obligations of James J. Clifford, and in the opinion of Messrs. Wolf, Block, Schorr and Solis-Cohen, of Philadelphia, these bonds are a legal investment for trust funds under the laws of Pennsylvania. Payment of both interest and principal charges on the dates due has been assumed by the present owners of the property, Mercantile & Theatres Properties, Inc.

Price: Par and accrued interest to net 6%

BROAD
and
FINANCING

IT IS very obvious that each industry possesses certain definite characteristics. Differences in operations performed and services rendered are reflected in differences in organization, in financial structure and financial requirements.

The careful judging of investment values demands a full appreciation of these differences. Certain financial facts mean different things in the appraisement of the securities of two different industries.

A broad experience covering many lines of industrial activity and embracing close contacts with many different business fields, is therefore a necessary qualification of an investment counsellor. It furnishes an invaluable background for a careful and discriminating weighing of investment credits.

For approximately 35 years, A. G. Becker & Co. has been associated with the financing of different industries. The experience built up in this way is always available to investors, banks and corporations.

The Taming of Elizabeth

By WINIFRED BOGGS

SYNOPSIS.

The young Elizabeth is the adored daughter of Tim and Elizabeth Darcy. When she is 4 years old she runs away from home to avoid punishment for getting into mischief. She is brought home promptly by a neighbor, Miss Smiley.

At 17 Elizabeth runs away again, this time from school and to the home of her Aunt Dolly in London. Dolly, who is almost as flighty as the young Elizabeth, sympathizes with her niece, much to the irritation of her stepson, Stephen Whitby.

After the death of her parents Elizabeth goes to live with her aunt. During the war they keep themselves busy and also amused by performing in amateur theatricals for the benefit of wounded soldiers. Stephen, home on leave, is asked by his stepmother to bring Mark Lennox, a young playwright, to one of their performances.

Shortly after the end of the war Mrs. Whitby dies suddenly and Elizabeth learns to her consternation that her aunt had frittered away the money left by her husband, and had also disposed of some of Stephen's inheritance. Afraid to face Stephen after this revelation, Elizabeth decides to go to Mark Lennox and ask him to get her a job on the stage. Stephen finds her with Mark and, although his business has failed, he offers to help her. She refuses his help and advice and takes a part in Mark's new play. On the opening night she gets stage fright and runs off, leaving an understudy to take over her part. Miss Smiley, who happens to be in London visiting her cousin, Mrs. White, sees Elizabeth on the street and takes her to Mrs. White's house. The latter offers her a job as cook, and Elizabeth accepts. But she fails in this job, too, and then lands a post as companion to an old lady in the country. Julian Vesington, the old lady's grandnephew, makes all the arrangements with Elizabeth.

Elizabeth grows fond of Mrs. Vesington, who showers attention upon her young companion, but the girl misses youthful companionship and scents a mystery about the house. The atmosphere of the house finally gets on her nerves and she grows restless and morbid. She wants to get away, but Mrs. Vesington will not release her. She realizes she is being held a prisoner. Her letters to Stephen are unanswered. She manages finally to escape.

INSTALLMENT LIX.

APRIL LADY.

Mrs. Smike, listening at the keyhole, was further confirmed in her suspicions.

"Widow?" echoed Stephen. "What widow?"

"Yours! O, you needn't play the innocent with me. I hope you'll be very happy together, I'm sure. I'm going to give you a wedding present. A mustard pot!" Elizabeth added with a snort.

Stephen continued to stare with his mouth open. The only widow he could think of for the moment was Mrs. Smike. He looked at the sideboard, "We've got three mustard pots already," he said confusedly.

"And when are you going to be married?"

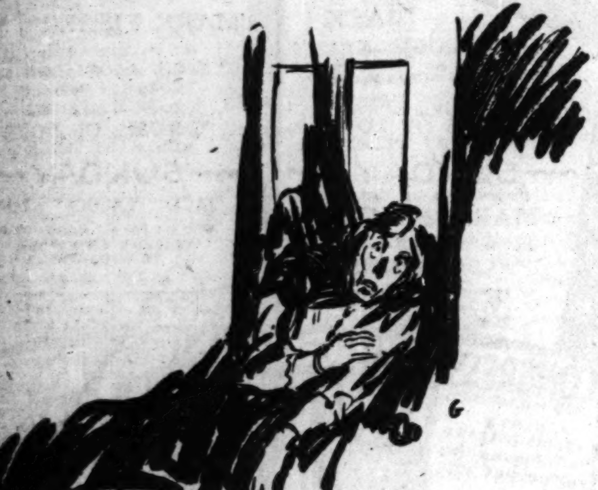
He put his hand to his head, "Married! Me?"

"Ho! So that's it, is it?" thought Mrs. Smike.

"Why pretend, Stephen? And let me tell you this, if you think I'm going on being your ward after you're married, you're mistaken, that's all."

"So she 'as her pride same as the rest of us," muttered Mrs. Smike, "the hussy!"

"Mrs. Vestington read it out of her nephew's letter, he'd heard all about your widow, how lovely and chic she was, how madly in love you were. Well, let you—that's what I said!"



Mrs. Smike, listening at the keyhole, was further confirmed in her suspicions.

Stephen dropped into a chair. Of all the astonishing infants . . . yet perhaps not quite all infant. "Elizabeth," he declared earnestly, "I swear to you there never was any such person. Vesington must have been drunk when he wrote, made the whole thing up for some fantastic reason——"

"Not a word of truth in it, never a word of truth," echoed Elizabeth, her voice unsteady, while something that had been cold and bitter in her breast woke into warm, joyous life, "O, Stephen, don't you see? She made it up—Mrs. Vesington. She wanted me all hers, cut off from everything and everybody. I am so glad there is no widow . . . for your own sake."

"You're not half as glad as I," he began, making a sudden move toward her, but Mrs. Smike had literally blown into the room, "I will not have such a young person here a moment longer," she began. "Are you going to get her things to cover her nakedness, or aren't you, because——"

Elizabeth stamped her bare little feet at the intruder. "How dare you, woman? I have most of my unders on, and Mr. Whitby's dressing gown goes at least three times round me——"

"I'm not a young female, I——"

"Is she often like this?" asked Elizabeth curiously.

"Er—no."

"I suppose she must have been drinking," said the girl. "How very unpleasant. Of course you must leave. One can never trust them once they take to it."

The eavesdropper uttered a stifled scream.

"Now, child, tell me where I had better go for your clothes. The best place?"

"It's very expensive," she warned him. "I mean the twenty-five pounds would not go far, and now you're not well off I should hate you to waste any of your own money."

"Really, Elizabeth, you amaze me! There is nothing I long to do more than waste some of my money. I happen to be a very rich man, my dear. Now where shall I go?"

"Time you did go!" came from Mrs. Smike.

"Go to hell!" said Stephen between his teeth.

"I always knew you were no gentleman," came the shrill retort, "always walking instead of riding to your business, and not even spats on Sundays!" They heard her descend to her own regions, and gave a sigh of relief.

"O, poor Stephen, what you must have had to put up with all this time," exclaimed Elizabeth. "Well, if you really are rich you might go to Delius. They used to make for me there."

She wrote down sizes and requirements for him, and sat down in the heated room to wait his return. So he was not going to be married . . . at least not that he knew of! She curled up on the sofa, very drowsy, very happy. She was glad that Stephen was rich—for his own sake. She wondered what sort of a garment he would bring her. Fortunately, Delius would restrain him from selecting something suitable for a maiden aunt. It seemed that she had but closed her eyes when she awakened to find Stephen, flushed and surrounded by quantities of boxes and parcels, in the room.

She gaped in amazement. "What on earth are all these parcels?"

"Open them and see!"

She uttered little cries of joy and amazement as parcel after parcel revealed its ravishing contents. "But all these . . . a regular trousseau . . . what for?" she gasped out at length.

"It was such fun buying them," said Stephen apologetically, "once started I found I could not stop—not that they tried to stop me."

"You must have been a woman in a previous life," retorted Elizabeth, her eyes very bright. There was a mauve chiffon with silver lace embroidered on smoky old rose. "O, it's divine, divine," she cried, holding it against her. "My favorite color, too."

"It was the color of the one you wore that night at Moat Grange," he said. "I—I thought you didn't look so bad in it, young Elizabeth, and ——"

"Shoes and stockings to go with it. And, O Stephen, the unders, too. How did you know about that?" She eyed him suspiciously.

He laughed. "A very grand dame who sold me the things made the suggestion, and she seemed to know her business. This is another I liked." He folded back the tissue paper to reveal an exquisite lemon creation. A smart outdoor costume and hat lay across a chair.

"It's the good dream after the nightmare . . . but I shall wake and find it's too good to be true!" she cried. "It's your money and I am only your ward person, and I don't think I ought to accept any of them." There were tears in her voice.

"Then I shall find the widow and present her with the lot!" he retorted.

"No! No!" Elizabeth had gathered them into a heap and stood guard over them. "Even a coward will defend its young," she added laughingly.

"What an April lady," said Stephen, "half tears, half laughter. Which is it to be?"

Yankee Party to Hunt for 'Sea Serpents'

Crane-Field Museum Group Sails Soon.

A dozen scientists, headed by Cornelius Crane, will sail from Boston Oct. 15 to search the remote regions of the Pacific ocean for the world's only "sea serpents," Stephen C. Simms, director of the Field museum, announced yesterday.

The expedition, officially named the Crane Pacific Expedition of the Field museum, will sail in the new brigantine-rigged yacht Illyria, owned by Mr. Crane. The vessel, which has just been completed in Italy, is 147 feet long and carries a 300 horsepower auxiliary engine.

Along East Indian coral reefs the scientists will seek a variety of large poisonous marine snakes which abound there and which sometimes reach the proportions of the sea serpents described by early voyagers on the Pacific.

In the Galapagos islands giant land tortoises and marine iguanas will be hunted. The huge monitor lizards of Komodo, said to resemble monsters of prehistoric times, giant frogs and salamanders, and strange poisonous land snakes peculiar to the western Pacific islands are likewise to be bagged. Among mammals members of the expedition hope to obtain specimens of the ochidna of New Guinea, a spiny-coated anteater which lays eggs like a reptile, but nourishes its young with milk.

Rare birds and fishes are included in the list of objectives. There is the gigantic cassowary of the Moluccas, birds of Paradise, and "mound builders," large birds which lay their eggs in mounds of earth like reptiles.

The voyage is to be 30,000 miles long, and stops will be made in the principal groups of South Sea islands, on the Asian coast and Alaska. After circumnavigating the Pacific ocean the Illyria will proceed along the western coast of Africa to the Panama canal and back to Boston.

Cornelius Crane, leader of the party, is a son of Richard T. Crane Jr., a trustee of Field museum. Karl P. Schmidt, assistant curator of reptiles at the museum, will head the scientific group. Others in the party are Dr. Albert W. Herre of Leland Stanford university; Dr. W. L. Moss of the Harvard Medical school; Charles R. Peavy, Mobile, Ala.; Sidney N. Shurtleff, Boston; Sydney Heap, Churchstoke, England.

Much of the cabin space of the Illyria has been fitted as a laboratory. There the specimens may be treated as soon as they are caught. The ship will maintain radio communication with home stations.

100,000 Candles Blaze in Eucharistic Rites on Field in Sydney

SYDNEY, Australia, Sept. 6.—(AP)—More than 100,000 men filled the Sydney show grounds tonight for one of the most impressive spectacles of the Eucharistic congress. In an atmosphere of complete solemnity Bishop O'Doherty of Galway preached a sermon.

During the benediction by Cardinal Cerretti, papal envoy to the congress, the electric lights around the field were dimmed and each man held aloft a lighted taper. This was supposed to symbolize the living faith. The effect of the ceremony was somewhat marred by a high wind.

Children will be the center of the program tomorrow. It is expected that 20,000 boys and girls will assemble in the show grounds while Cardinal Cerretti celebrates pontifical high mass.

Men's Garden Club Opens Show Today at Hotel Sherman

Entries from 2,000 garden lovers are expected at the two-day flower show of the Men's Garden club, which opens at 1 p. m. today in the Hotel Sherman. Amateur exhibits from 54 clubs will be supplemented by those from parks, nurseries and commercial houses, and will include varieties of dahlias, gladioli, water lilies, annuals and perennials. August Koch, chief horticulturist for the West parks, famous as an expert in water lilies, will have charge of that exhibit.

"We want to show that Chicago's climate has advantages for plant growth over many sections commonly thought more favorable," explained L. W. Nack, club president. "Flowers and vegetables as fine as any in the world can be produced in Chicago back yards." Last year Mr. Nack, a business man, won the $1,000 prize in THE TRIBUNE's garden contest.

Clubwomen Add Politics to Program of Institute

Politics will be added to the official program of the Chicago and Cook County Federation of Women's clubs, comprising 80,000 members, when the annual institute is held on Oct. 9 and 10 in the Auditorium hotel, it was announced yesterday. Both sides of the state and national campaigns will be presented, according to Mrs. Edward Bailey, who will preside at the institute.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 for each question accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send name and address with your question to "The Inquiring Reporter," Chicago Tribune. For today's question A. W. Dorsey, 7009 Ridge boulevard, Chicago, Ill., was awarded $5.

The Question.

Are you lucky? Did you ever win anything?

The Answers.

George Easton, Oak Park Manor, accountant—Win anything? Say, fellow, I've been winning all my life. No, I never won a fortune, but that perhaps may be just around the corner. The ponies owe me nothing, and that you know is something. Who knows but that I may be fortunate enough to win a good wife. Yes, luck still is with me, for I am and have been lucky.

Nell G. Williams, 4027 West Madison street, store manager—No, I never had what you might call luck, but my hat still is in the ring. I've taken many raffle tickets for benefits and that sort of thing, but I guess I'm not the lucky kind. I'm hoping to win something some day.

Joe Ferguson, 4922 Madison street, garage owner — Once upon a time I held a winning ticket on a cow near Birmingham, Ala., but I didn't know of my good luck until I left there and gave the ticket away. The other fellow won. No, indeed, I'm not favored by Lady Luck.

Phyllis Carlucci, 817 Forquer street, salesgirl—Yes, I guess you can call me a lucky girl, for you see I have fine parents and especially fine sisters and brothers. Isn't that luck? And then I have won really worthwhile things at bazaars. Once upon a time, not so long ago, I won $65 on a Kentucky Derby.

George McCauley, 4836 Madison street, mechanic—I remember winning a ride in an airplane for only one penny. I took the ride and came safely home after a fine time. But I'm afraid I don't belong in the lucky class. You see, I'm not given to taking chances.

Fleet of Busses Will Bring Cripples to the Chicago Schools

Children physically handicapped will be carried to and from school in fleets of specially constructed busses beginning Oct. 1, Supt. William J. Bogan announced yesterday.

These busses, which will transport from thirty to forty-five children each, are equipped with beds and toilet facilities, as well as comfortable chairs for those who are able to sit up. Forty-three such vehicles are to be delivered to the board of eduaction.

Attendance at the four schools for crippled children yesterday was 1,200, a 14 per cent increase over last year. Dr. Frank G. Bruner, director of special schools, attributed the growth to a realization by parents of the advantages of such schools.

"Records for the last ten years show," Dr. Bruner said, "that about half of the crippled children who attend the special schools are returned to regular schools cured of their infirmities after three or four years. In addition to their studies they are given medical treatment."

Additional special divisions were opened yesterday for pupils who are deaf, ænemic, defective in speech, or subnormal mentally.

Attendance at senior high schools yesterday showed an increase of more than 5,500 over Tuesday. The enrollment was 73,551, as against 67,470 for the corresponding day a year ago.

At noon yesterday Supt. Bogan announced that seats had been provided for all students. President H. Wallace Caldwell of the board of education instructed Architect John C. Christensen to rush work on new buildings in districts where schools are most overcrowded.

Mr. Caldwell said the building fund is adequate, but the board will seek legislation to enable it to increase its educational fund in proportion to the increase in registration. Night classes at 30 schools will be opened Sept. 17.

THEATER

NEGOTIATIONS having to do with the American Opera's being installed for next month in the Majestic have, seemingly, fallen through; for a revision of the plans for that theater has to do with the coming September 30 of "The Red Robe." This, as by now is generally known, is an operetta with a libretto based on the dramatization of the late Stanley Weyman's cape-and-sword tale called "Under the Red Robe." Back in the late 'Nineties, William Faversham acted the hero, Miss Viola Allen was the heroine, and J. E. Dodson, who in those times was held to be just one grand little actor, was Richelieu. William Woolf has the Faversham rôle in the operetta. . . . Otherwise, the schedule noted here Wednesday will be observed: "A Night in Spain" will be sent on its way at the end of next week, and the Greenwich Village Follies transferred September 16 from the Grand Oper-House, where Ed Wynn will require the stage.

The Theater Guild of New-York drops "R. U. R." from its Chicago schedule, and puts in "Volpone," which in the Guild's revival is still among the interesting things to be observed in Manhattan. The change has been made, so far as I'm able to understand, because "R. U. R." has been acted in Chicago. It was shown in 1923 in the Cort; and it is my belief that not many persons bought tickets. . . . "R. U. R." had been placed in the fifth and sixth weeks, starting October 22.

"Broadway" is to be the first play of the new season in the Central, starting the 15th. Vincent Dennis is to have the rôle of the hoofing ham, Roy Lane, acted here a year ago by Wallace Ford. . . . And I note with interest that the management of the Central has tied up George M. Cohan's "The Baby Cyclone" for use later.

Another of last season's talked-about plays, Maugham's "The Constant Wife," is to be used the 17th for the start of the season by the "stock" in the Ambassador.

And out in the Kedzie, whose season is in its third week, "Lilac-Time" is to be revived Sunday afternoon. This was held to be great stuff in the days when we were all a bit dizzy with the war; and it is recalled that Miss Jane Cowl, who helped to write it, had 'em crying for weeks and weeks in what was then called Cohan's Grand. . . . Underlined for the Kedzie are "Parlor, Bedroom, and Bath," the 16th; "The Show-Off," the 23d; and "Lightnin'," the 30th.

The Actors' Theater, which started out about six years ago a venture fostered and financed by the Actors' Equity, has been absorbed by the Messrs. Shubert. That firm is to retain the label, and to back it in experiments with new plays. . . . Of the past activities of the enterprise, the most successful was "Saturday's Children," which ran forty weeks in New-York.

Jack Haley, a bright and successful clown in the Chicago cast of "Good News," is mentioned as one of the principals in a new piece by the authors of that popular diversion. The new piece is to be shown New Year Eve in New-York; and it is expected that "Good News," which has been on view there a year, will last until Christmas.

"Davy Jones' Locker" is something new: Richard Barry is the author, and says it is a melodrama; and the principal rôle is to be acted by Charles Bickford, not known in Chicago. However, you have my assurance that he is a good actor.

Unitarians Will Dedicate Unique Windows Today

When the Third Unitarian church at 5521 West Lake street is reopened on Sunday morning, the congregation will dedicate an unique series of memorial windows. One of the windows will reproduce a microscope and retort, symbolizing the spirit of science. The pastor, the Rev. Walton E. Cole, declares that this unusual symbol was used because his church believes that religion must come to terms with modern life.

"Religion," he said, "must be as honest as science, as appealing as art, and as vital as every day life."

Carrying out this idea of modern religion, other windows will represent industry, the arts, education, world brotherhood, and justice. One of the medallions represents the rising sun, symbolizing the dream of a world in which the hopes of man will be realized.

Best U.S. Brains in Business, Says British Savant

Spoofs English Scorn of "Being in Trade."

GLASGOW, Scotland, Sept. 6.—(AP)—The fact that the best brains of the United States are attracted to business and the second and third best to professions may be a partial explanation of American industrial supremacy, in the opinion of Prof. C. W. Valentine of the University of Birmingham. He spoke before the British Association for the Advancement of Science. He said that in England conditions were exactly the reverse of those in the United States.

Prof. Valentine urged the removal of "the hard dying social stigma which attaches to being in trade" in England. He said there was need for higher education for captains of industry.

Some of these captains, he said, would be risky selections as corporals in a real army.

He suggested elimination of the "secrecy complex," which he said afflicts British and European employers. He said that this had been done in the United States, where the financial status of one's business is not regarded "like one's underclothing, an unfit subject for discussion."

Tongues of prehistoric men could not form words and the initial communication between members of the human race was mostly by gestures, said Sir Richard Paget, specialist on the development of inventions, to the British Association for the Advancement of Science, today.

Sir Richard, who combines scientific research with his work as a barrister and a member of parliament, said that primitive man sang, grunted or roared to express emotion, just as the higher animals do now.

To illustrate his ideas of the evolution of speech, the speaker used a pipe, an organ reed and a cork plunger. With this apparatus he was able to produce numerous sounds of human quality, including some recognizable words.

Sir Richard said that in addition to his animallike vocal productions, primitive man used pantomime of face and limbs to convey his ideas to others. As he pantomimed with his hands, his tongue naturally followed these motions. Then our ancestors developed crafts and then hands became too busy for speech.

This stage, said the speaker, led man to rely upon gestures of the face and tongue and lips. Finally the time came when the hands were retired and the tongue took their place.

Man then found that if he sang, roared or grunted while using his lips and tongue for gestures, there was a mysterious effect on the vocal part of the conversation. It got so that the mouth pantomime could be recognized by ear, and could even be understood in the dark or when the pantomimist was out of sight of the listener. Then humanity had speech.

Canada Unlikely to Ordain Women Presbyterians

WINNIPEG, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Ordination of women as ministers of the United Church of Canada is unlikely in the near future, it appeared at today's session of the church's general council. Thirty-two presbyteries voted in favor of ordaining them, 34 opposed, 23 advised delay and 23 made no report.

Passing the Buck, or Holding It, in Handling Children

Mrs. Gladys Huntington Bevans

"Well," I said to a man I know who had just been given command of his first torpedo boat destroyer, "now you're a captain. How do you like the responsibility?"

"O," he said, "I've had the responsibility of the ship before, when my rank was lower. The only difference is that before I could pass the buck if anything went wrong. Now that I'm captain I have to hold the buck. No excuses—no explanations can even be thought of. I'm accountable for what happens, whether an officer or adverse circumstances are at fault. I hold the buck."

Do you pass the buck or do you hold it?

Are you a mother who does not deal first hand with her children in matters of discipline, but instead passes the responsibility on to her husband?

If you are, then you are making a great mistake. Leaving out of the question the great injustice that you are doing your husband, you are doing a real wrong to yourself and your children.

Most of the hours of their day are spent with you or under your care. What comes up between you and them you are the one to settle. It is your business—no one else's.

Occasionally you and your husband have to work together over a particularly serious or puzzling matter of discipline—but never in the sense of "I shall certainly tell your father about it when he comes home," or, "Wait till your father hears of this."

Not only in the present, but as your children grow up, you want to be a factor in their lives—an understanding factor, intelligently influencing them. And how can you be that if you have no power, if you have no control over them? How can you be that if they do not respect and admire you? And how can they possibly respect and admire their mother if she is putty in their hands and weakly passes her responsibility on to some one else?

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Canned Apples.

Again I would like to beg my readers not to write to me for canning recipes. I have too many things to do to be working much on this subject, and there are persons who are working weeks and months on this alone. What they have done has been printed in thirty or forty page bulletins to be had free, and I have nothing of the sort to send out. I have some reason to believe that some persons who never read recipes, or my column, write to me for recipes, especially for those on canning and pickling, and usually without enclosing a stamped and addressed envelope, besides asking me to rush reply.

Bulletin 1471, with the title "Canning Fruits and Vegetables at Home," is the one to which I have already called attention. It is free, and can be had of the bureau of publications, department of agriculture [you should capitalize the main words on an envelop], Washington, D. C. In that department there are persons who do nothing else but canning. They know a lot more about it that I do. Why not get the best and fullest information possible?

But I would call your attention to the fact that apples can be canned advantageously at this time of year, when they are so spicy, and when their sourness has such a delicious freshness, much greater than that of stored apples.

For canning, get apples which have not had the least bit of time to wilt or change by further ripening. Do not pare them, but cook them skins and all, although it is best to cut them up. When they have cooked tender strain or sieve them when you should with the best apples for the purpose get a nice fluffy purée. Have this purée hot and fill it into hot and sterile jars; then process it for twenty minutes in an oven at a temperature of 250 degrees.

This gives a ready prepared, unsweetened apple sauce to serve at any time with roast pork or other pork dishes or with roast duck or goose or with any sort of sausage. It may be heated up with some pork or bacon fat and served with potato pancakes. If you want to use it for an apple pie of the Marlborough order you can, and there are many apple desserts for which it is ready.

FARM AND GARDEN

BY FRANK RIDGWAY

Talk of killing frost started the other day when the thermometers dropped, but perhaps there is no good reason for becoming alarmed for another month or so. The average killing frost date is Oct. 18. The earliest killing frost came Sept. 20, but that was in 1896, thirty-two years ago.

Most of the field and vegetable crops that were given a normal start in this section should have a chance to mature this fall. It will pay growers, however, to watch weather reports and be ready to gather their crops that are susceptible to frost injury.

Tomatoes are easily damaged by frost. Light frosts may do nothing more than wilt the leaves and leave the fruit unharmed. Unripened tomatoes need not be lost if they are caught by only the first light frost and are gathered before a killing frost comes along.

Green tomatoes are easily stored and kept for use in midwinter. There are gardeners in this section who pick them just before they are damaged by a killing frost and keep them until they are red ripe for use during the Christmas holidays. They find that the Rosea, Mr. Baer, and other varieties keep well when pulled green, wrapped individually in a piece of tissue paper or newspaper. Pack them loosely in single layers so that the tomatoes do not touch and keep them in a dark, cool place.

Don't risk leaving the tomatoes on the vines too late. The tissue skin of the tomato is easily injured. Frostbitten green tomatoes soon decay in storage.

Chicagoans Still in New England Find Rain Alters Program

BY THALIA ——.

Labor day on the Massachusetts north shore marked the beginning of the waning of the season's activities there. It rained on Sept. 3, disappointing the many who planned to attend the 32d annual horse show of the Myopia Hunt club at Hamilton, and the program had to be postponed until tomorrow. Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Cushing and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Mitchell of Lake Forest were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Warren of Boston at their summer place, Barberry Hill, at Pride's Crossing, for the holiday week-end, and a large dinner party for their benefit was one of the entertainments given by their hosts. The Mitchells previously had been visiting the Lucius P. Ordways at Long Island.

Another Chicagoan sojourning in that vicinity is Miss Edith Cummings, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Amory of Boston, at Beverly Farms.

The Arthur G. Leonards have had as their guests at their residence at Gloucester, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Evans of Chicago, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Leonard Jr., have returned to Wilmington, Ill., after spending the summer with the senior Leonards. Mrs. Charles H. Fargo was at the New Ocean House at Swampscott for a late season stay last week.

◆

Mr. and Mrs. David Adler are giving a dinner this evening at Shoreacres for the Marquis of Dufferin and Ava, who is a week-end guest at the Adler's place in Libertyville.

The Swedish Arts and Crafts exhibit will open with a tea on the afternoon of Saturday, Sept. 15, in the new Anderson building in Lake Forest. Mrs. Walter Brewster will act as chairman of the reception committee and will be assisted by Mrs. Charles Schweppe, Mrs. Alfred Granger, Mrs. Alfred Hamill, Mrs. William E. Clow Jr., and Mrs. William Mitchell Blair. The exhibit will run through to Sept. 22.

To the Graham Aldis' twins goes the distinction, unprecedented as far as my research in such matters goes, of having a book dedicated to them. And they're only about 4 months old. Of course, it's their mother's book, which is to be on the bookstands today, and the dedication takes the form of the following rhyme:

TO PEGGY AND RUTH.

When one stops crying
The other begins
And nobody can ever find
Enough safety pins—
O, they said we'd have a baby, but
A BABY ISN'T TWINS.

The new books entitled "Here, There, and Everywhere," by Dorothy Aldis, whose first tome of children's verse, "Everything and Anything," was a great success. The twins, by the way, were a great attraction at the Aldis' Sunday morning tennis games this summer, and they are reported by even such prejudiced critics as mothers of other cherubs to be "perfectly darling."

◆

The north shore squad of debutantes is having such a lot of attention and parties that it probably will be most difficult for the ones among them who are going back to school in a few weeks to change the tenor of their thoughts from beaux to books. Miss Helen and Miss Margaret Dawes gave a dinner party last evening at the residence of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus C. Dawes in Evanston, for Miss Jean MacLeish, Miss Betty Knode, and Miss Elizabeth Warren, afterwards taking their guests to the Glenview club to dance. Tomorrow night many of the young things who are to attend Miss Knode's debut tea to be given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver M. Knode in Winnetka, are invited to the dancing party Mr. and Mrs. Nathan William MacChesney are to give at Knollwood for their sons, Alfred Brunson MacChesney III., who is a Yale student, and Gordon, who goes to Chestnut Hill academy. Miss Knode is to give a large supper party a week from Sunday evening.

◆

Mrs. Charles H. Chadwick of 209 Lake Shore drive graciously postcards the news that she and Mr. Chadwick have been motoring through the Tyrol to Budapest and back into southern France, and that they will be back by the end of the month. Mrs. Chadwick spent July in a sanatorium at Baden-Baden.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sherman Ruxton of 943 Judson avenue, Evanston, announce the birth of a son, William Sherman Ruxton Jr., on Aug. 28 at the Evanston hospital. Mrs. Ruxton was Miss Henrietta Wurts before her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Rowley of Lake Forest [Dorothy Curtis], have gone to Billings, Mont., to visit Mr. Rowley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rowley. They plan to take a motor trip through Yellowstone Park before returning about Sept. 20.

Mark Skinner Willing, who has been traveling in Mexico this summer, has joined Mrs. Willing at their summer place, Wyndbrae at Jefferson, N. H.

Mrs. W. W. Gurley of 1416 State parkway is leaving Bretton Woods this week for New York City, whence she plans to come west.

Miss Jane Cochran Becomes Bride of Edwin M. Ashcraft III

The marriage of Miss Jane Cochran, daughter of Mrs. George Perkins Crocker of Williamsport, Pa., to Edwin Maurice Ashcraft III. of Evanston took place last night at the Trinity Episcopal church in Williamsport. The wedding was attended by a large gathering of people including out-of-town guests from New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, and Harrisburg. The bride's father was the late Garrett Cochran who died during the world war, and for whom the Williamsport American Legion Post is named, and she is the granddaughter of the late J. Henry Cochran, formerly prominent in Pennsylvania politics.

◆

The church was decorated for the ceremony with pink gladioli and ferns, and the bride wore a Parisian gown of white satin embroidered in pearls, a rose point veil hanging from a pearl beaded cap, and carried a muff of white orchids and lilies of the valley. The attendants, Miss Mary Bean of Milwaukee, Miss Jane Rightor of Helena, Ark.; Miss Almira Steedman of St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Ann Ashcraft, Miss Mary Leary of Birmingham, Ala.; Miss Meriam Howell, Miss Avis Ann Cochran, Miss Ida Hays McCormick, and Miss Margaret Beebe, wore robes de style of ibis pink soire and green, and pearl beaded Juliet caps, and muffs of peach colored rosebuds. E. E. Hansen of Elkhart, Ind., was best man for Mr. Ashcraft, and the ushers were Van G. Kirk of Glencoe, Curtis Dawes, John Wing, and Fayette Shepard of Evanston, Henry Cutler of Wilmette, P. R. Shumway and James A. Younglove of Winnetka, William T. Priestley of New York, Avery Sherry of Milwaukee, and Robert Cochran, the bride's brother.

Mr. Ashcraft and his bride departed for a wedding trip in the east and are to reside after Oct. 15 at 1130 Asbury avenue, Evanston. Mr. Ashcraft, who was graduated from Exeter academy and is a member of the class of 1929 at Princeton, where he was active in the Triangle club, is transferring this year to Northwestern university, where he is to take a law course.

Mr. and Mrs. Crocker gave a dinner party on Wednesday evening for the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Ashcraft Jr. of Evanston, and the other out-of-town guests, who included Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Rushton and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stevens of Evanston, and Mr. Ashcraft's bachelor dinner was on that evening, too, at the Country club.

WEDDING

The marriage of Miss Frances Smith, daughter of Mrs. Sara H. Smith of North Manchester, Ind., to William F. Conlon of the Parkway hotel took place last Saturday and was followed by a breakfast at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York City. Mrs. Conlon is a graduate of Manchester college and studied abroad at the University of London and the University of Geneva. Mr. Conlon attended the Chicago-Kent college of law.

MARRIED.

Mrs. Edwin Maurice Ashcraft III.

Women Volunteer to Tag for Charity Next Monday

More workers than usual have volunteered, it was reported yesterday at the headquarters of the Chicago Federated Charities, for tag day next Monday. Supplies will be distributed today at the First National bank to more than 2,000 women and girls.

Miss L. Ellen Babcock, president of the Federated Charities, expressed the hope that the desired $100,000 for the 42 organizations included in the federation would be contributed.

Frat Rushing Banquet.

The Chicago Alumni chapter of Delta Tau Delta wil have its annual rushing banquet this evening at the St. Clair hotel. Dr. Frank Wieland will preside as toastmaster.

Camp Algonquin Fits Children for Tasks at Schools

Readin' and writin' and 'rithmetic days are back again for about half a million children who this week trouped into Chicago's schools, few perhaps showed more fitness to take up the winter's work than the hundreds who spent happy vacations at Camp Algonquin.

Tanned of cheek and sparkling of eye, those boys and girls, despite their years in the tenement districts, found new strength. They are better trained, too, in appreciation of hills, ravines, great trees and river scenes.

While most of the children have returned to school, mothers and younger children are enjoying the beauty of these September days at the camp. The haven which has given outings to hundreds of families all summer, will be closed soon, but the need for contributions remains. These summer outings, though over, must be paid for, and funds started for next year.

Friends, remembering that the need continues, send their gifts. Those received yesterday for both TRIBUNE funds are:

CAMP ALGONQUIN FUND.

Plan Church Celebration.

The sixtieth anniversary of the founding of Calvary Episcopal church, 3158 West Monroe street, will be held next week, the Rev. Henry R. Neely, rector, announced yesterday. Bishop Sheldon M. Griswold will consecrate the building on Sept. 14. Assisting will be the Rev. W. B. Stoskopf of the Church of the Ascension, and the Rev. F. J. Tromp, St. Ambrose's church, Chicago Heights. The sermon will be preached by Dr. George Craig Stewart, rector of St. Luke's church, Evanston.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, Sept. 6.—[Special.]—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blackwell of this city and Arrowhead Farms, Huntington, L. I., will present their daughter, Miss Beatrice Blackwell, at a dance on Saturday night at the Smithtown country club, St. James, L. I.

Mrs. Vanderhoef Heckscher will introduce her daughter, Miss Nancy Heckscher, at a dance at the Creek club, Locust Valley, L. I., next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. S. Oakley Vanderpoel and her children are returning tomorrow on the Aquitania after passing the summer in Europe.

Mrs. Townsend Phillips has taken an apartment at 277 Park avenue for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Thorn Kissel, who passed most of the summer in Le Touquet, France, arrived on the Ile de France and for the autumn have gone to October house, their country home in Peapack, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scott Rokenbaugh passed the summer in Marienbad and are now motoring in Switzerland. They will return to New York early next month and will go to Avalon, their country place in Bayshore, before returning to New York for the winter.

"Youthful Bloom

. . . which MELLO-GLO reproduces, does not wear off so quickly," says beautiful Laura Lacaillade, of 226 W. 55th St., New York City, in praise of this new, wonderful French process face powder. "MELLO-GLO does not leave the skin dry or clog the pores. It keeps the ugly shine away and spreads so smoothly that not a single pore is visible."

Sorority Frolic.

The late summer frolic of the Sigma Alpha sorority will be held this evening in the main ballroom of the Hotel Belmont. Miss Anne Moran of 3628 Janssen avenue is one of the hostesses in charge.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—[Special.]—Acting Secretary of the Navy Theodore Douglas Robinson has returned from Herkimer, N. Y., where he spent a brief vacation with Mrs. Robinson and their daughters.

Mrs. John R. Williams, mother of Mrs. Joseph Leiter, returned from a short visit in New York after spending the midsummer at Hot Springs, Va.

Mrs. Clarence M. Busch, national president of the League of American Penwomen, was guest of honor at a luncheon given today by Mrs. William Laird Dunlop Jr.

Mrs. Rawlins Hume announces the marriage of her daughter, Julie, to Du Wayne Gerald Clark, son of Mrs. Frank Clark of San Francisco, this morning. The ceremony was performed at 11 o'clock in Bethlehem chapel of the Washington cathedral, the Rev. E. Prini N. Wroth, rector of Christ church, Georgetown, officiating, in the presence of only the members of the two families. Mr. and Mrs. Clark will be at home at 2100 Nineteenth street on the completion of their wedding trip. Mr. Clark is an attaché of the foreign commerce bureau, department of commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis G. Wood of Chicago, accompanied by Mrs. Edson T. Wood of Indianapolis, are at the Mayflower for the remainder of the week after motoring through New England.

Bright Sayings of the Children

The Tribune will pay $5 for each childish saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unavailable contributions. Write on one side of the paper. Address bright sayings to Aunty Bee, The Tribune, Chicago.

This morning Walter, a little neighbor, came bounding into my kitchen to tell me that the doctor had brought him a new baby sister.

"Well, and are you glad you have a little sister?" I asked.

"Bet yer life!" he said grinning. "She can dry the dishes now, instead of me." S. A. G.

◆

Eddie has a little sister who is just crawling. One day I heard a cry, and running in, found that Eddie had just collided with the baby.

"Eddie, I said, "why don't you look where you're going?"

"Mother," he said, "she won't stay where I isn't." MRS. H. E. W.

Peggy Joyce, Lord Northesk Scheduled to Land Today

New York, Sept. 6—[Special.]—Peggy Hopkins Joyce and Lord Northesk are scheduled to arrive on the Aquitania tomorrow. Both repeatedly have been quoted as confirming reports that they are to be married. Peggy has been married four times.

BEAUTY ADVICE

Remove powder and rouge with beauty oils

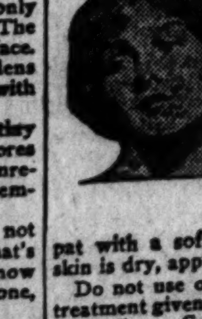
WHEN powder and rouge are applied to a clean skin only part remains on the surface. The rest enters the tiny pores of the face. There it accumulates and hardens with the skin's secretions, and with dirt and dust.

You must remove these tiny masses each day to prevent pores from growing larger. Dirt unremoved infects the pores and blemishes result.

Washing the surface does not cleanse the skin successfully. That's why, no matter how often you now wash your face, unless rightly done, your skin may still be muddy.

Cleanse your skin this way to keep its texture fine, its color radiantly fresh. For this purpose use Palmolive, a soap embodying the priceless beauty oils of palm and olive that penetrate and cleanse thoroughly.



Adopt the following rule and practice it every morning and every night—do not fail.

First massage the balmy Palmolive lather gently into the skin. Then rinse thoroughly with warm water (not hot), then with cold, and pat with a soft towel till dry. If skin is dry, apply cold cream.

A Razzing Romeo Spurred This Girl On to Betterment

by Antoinette Donnelly

"Nine months ago I weighed 110 pounds," Dorothy writes. "Due to laziness and overeating, I gained 20 pounds in six months. The other day you said that a girl who was overweight might get by with her sweetheart, but not with a stage manager.

"I did not get by with it with my sweetheart. He razzed me and reminded me of it so much that I became ashamed of myself. I put myself on a strict reducing régime.

"Every morning I arose one half hour earlier than usual. I got into a bathing suit and for one-half hour I went through good, hard exercise. After this a cold shower was taken. Then a very light breakfast. I walked eight blocks to the 'L' station. I had been in the habit of riding, of course. I got off the 'L' two stations before I had to and again walked eight blocks to my office. I did not eat one bit of lunch, but walked briskly my whole lunch hour. When going home in the evening I followed the same rule as I did in the morning, again walking sixteen blocks. Upon arriving at home I ate a light dinner and before retiring I went through another half hour of exercise.

"At the end of three months I had shed the 20 pounds. Believe me, I thanked the boy friend for razzing me into reducing. He gave me to understand that I am to remain slender after we are married or I will be razzed until I get down to business and reduce. I know that I will stay slender this time. Not only to avoid the razzing, but how awful you feel and look with 20 extra pounds! I don't know what put my vanity to sleep for so long.

"I guess if every woman had some one on her heels all the time to goad her on there wouldn't be so many hippos, would there?"

There's nothing like a love interest to help a girl recover her girlish silhouette. It's a stronger urge than vanity. But if you can press both into your service there ought never be any new weight to conquer, ought there?

The exercise and the walking and the light breakfast and dinner I heartily approve of—but for the average person I'd advise something at noon, something light, as a salad, a soup (not cream), or fruit.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

LIDIA: WAX PREPARATIONS for the removal of superfluous hair are not permanent in their effect. They are temporary measures of relief. They may be used on the face, arms, and legs, and if you follow the directions closely there is no danger of pulling off any of the skin.

M. E. K.: OILY SKIN IS MORE susceptible to pimples and blackheads than any other type of skin. Eliminate rich and greasy foods, or at least eat them very sparingly. Next, use an astringent regularly, to reduce the pores and overcome the oiliness of the skin. Send a stamped addressed envelope for suggestions for pimples, also for an astringent.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

The Tribune will pay $1 for every letter published on "The Most Embarrassing Moment of My Life." Address Embarrassing Moments, Chicago Tribune. Write on one side of the paper. No manuscript returned.

Horrors!

My boss weighs 255 pounds. One Saturday he came to the office arrayed in white knickers, white shirt, and white coat.

When he stepped out of the office—as we thought—the estimator yelled at me, "What do you think of C. A. this morning?"

Just then C. A. stepped out of the vault and said, "Yes, all I need is a trunk." B. K.

Thought Crazy.

My most embarrassing moment was on being initiated into a sorority at an outdoor initiation. I was taken to the park and ordered to ask a lady, sitting on a bench, if I could smell the lilacs on her hat. She looked daggers at me, while I performed the rite, no doubt thinking I was crazy, as the crowd had left me alone.

Embarrassed? Whew! C. T.

PATTERNS BY CLOTILDE

(Registered U. S. Patent Office.)

WOMAN'S AND MISSES' DRESS.

This attractive two piece dress has the neck line finished with an applied band with an attached tie, and the two piece skirt with grouped plaits at the center front is attached to a camisole bodice. For the afternoon tea or bridge it will be stunning made of billiard green georgette crêpe, dainty figured chiffon, or dove gray flat silk crêpe, while for the street navy blue georgette crêpe, printed silk crêpe, or challis will be smart.

The pattern, 3447, comes in sizes 16 and 18 years and 36, 38, 40, and 42 inches' bust measure. Size 36 requires 3¼ yards of 40 inch material with ½ yard of 40 inch contrasting.

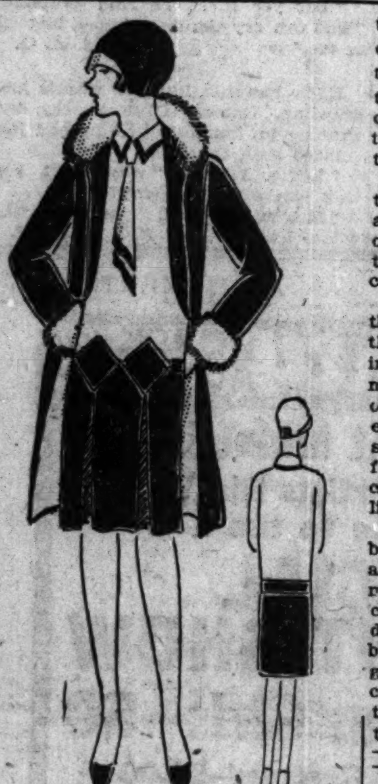
This Ensemble's for Young Miss 10 to 14



BY CORINNE LOWE.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Here today is a very short suit of diamonds! We refer, of course, to those two diamond-shaped pieces of self material that do so much toward contributing individuality to this ensemble designed for the girl of from 10 to 14. Yes, undoubtedly, the two of diamonds takes this fashion trick!

As was said earlier in the week, the ensemble idea is growing apace among the younger generation and one of the favored media for the costume of this type is velvet. Next comes velveteen, and next tweed.

Delightful, indeed, for church, for the Saturday matinée or for any of the other formal occasions that arise in the life of the sub-sub-deb is the model under consideration. It is made of either black velvet or black velveteen combined with crêpe, and the straight line coat is set off with white fox. Inverted plaits are introduced under those diamond motifs at the waistline.

The white blouse is notable for a boyish collar edged with black crêpe and repeated by a tie of the same material, also banded in black. The coat is lined with the crêpe. Incidentally, do not let us forget that black and white costumes for the girl of this age are not considered inconsistent with the ideals of simplicity that govern our American attitude toward the very young.

Gives Gypsy Tea Tonight.

The Illinois club will have a gypsy tea this evening at the Auditorium hotel. Miss Julia M. Deal, president of the club, will be hostess.

Two Methods Found Necessary To Rid Home of Insect Pests

TO effectively rid your home of flying pests, such as flies, mosquitoes, fleas, etc. —and of crawling pests, such as ants, roaches, bed-bugs, etc. —two different methods should be used.

Black Flag Liquid is best suited to kill flying pests. For flies and mosquitoes buzz around in the room, where you can hear them, see them. How easy, then, to spray Black Flag Liquid. As the fine mist fills the room, the buzzing stops. The insects drop down—not merely stupefied. But dead—dead as doornails!

Spraying liquid is not so convenient when dealing with roaches, bed bugs, fleas, etc. For you can't see these pests. They scurry to cover when you enter the room. Just blow Black Flag Powder with a gun into their hiding places. When the pests crawl out, they breathe in Black Flag's secret ingredient. And it deals out death to them—quickly, surely! Powder also kills fleas on dogs.

Black Flag, both Liquid and Powder, are absolutely deadly to all household insect pests. (Money back if it doesn't prove so.)

Black Flag Liquid is half the price of other liquids. Black Flag costs only 25 cents for half a pint. Others cost 50 cents. Black Flag Powder, packed in glass to prevent spoiling —is 15 cents, and up.

A FRIEND IN NEED

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

Radio Tubes Needed.

"I wonder if one of your readers has two C-299 peanut tubes no longer wanted. I have been sick for a year and unable to work. A friend has given me a home made radio, but the tubes are burnt out and I cannot afford to buy others. I have four children and we have all we can do to provide necessities for them. G. F."

Can you supply the tubes which will enable this invalid and his family to enjoy their radio again? With such a large family and the additional expense of illness, it is hard indeed to provide even the things they need.

Dressmaker's Request.

"Would you see if some one has an adjustable dress form no longer needed? I am anxious to have one and cannot afford to buy it.

"MRS. I. H."

Perhaps you are investing in a new dress form or have no further use for the one you now own. This dressmaker would be extremely happy and grateful to receive one.

White Cloths Needed.

"I am caring for a woman who is suffering with cancer and she needs a great many white cloths which we can't supply. Do you think your readers might have any old pieces to send us? J. T."

Your household linens which have become too worn for further use as such could be made very useful in this sick room. Won't you gather together any pieces you may be able to spare and send them to this unfortunate woman?

Before You Sign Another Lease.

If you can afford to pay $100 or more per month rent, you should own your home and thereby save a substantial sum each month toward acquiring real property and not a series of rent receipts. In the meanwhile you are living in an apartment in a fireproof building with every convenience and home comfort, with congenial neighbors who are home owners. We cordially invite you to inspect our 8th 100% co-operative apartment building, located in the beautiful South Shore Country Club District. The apartment homes contain 5 and 6 large, light outside rooms, with full bath for each bedroom. Many special features may be seen in our model apartment decorated and furnished by John A. Colby & Sons. Apartment equities from $5,900 to $9,300. Terms if desired. Fireproof garage space for each apartment in the building. There are 175 apartment home owners in our seven other buildings who will gladly tell you of the many advantages in owning your own apartment home.

NORTH.

SEEING IS BELIEVING.

Built facing a 15 acre garden, formal and natural. Hundreds of evergreen trees, flowers, birds, floating swans, beautiful private walks. A restricted community of high class people. Close to schools, shops, and churches. Close to street cars, bus, North Western steam line. In the heart of the city, 7100 North, 2400 West, 2438 to 2464 Estes-av., in West Rogers Park.

4, 5, and 6 room apartment homes. Large, light, airy rooms. Loads of closets; paneled, canvased, and glassed walls; many electric plugs, beautiful electric fixtures, large reception rooms and galleries, prize winning kitchens, beautiful cabinets, electric refrigeration; $175 Universal stove; colored tile bath, wall above tile and ceiling canvased; Venetian mirror, vitreous china lavatory, linen cabinet; bedrooms, twin bed size, four electric plugs, and cross ventilation.

Think of it! Swimming pool, handball court, putting green, gymnasium. You have dreamed of it, but never expected to see its realization.

And all this sounds expensive. It would be, but by 100% co-operative ownership, where there is no loss of income, no vacancies, no profits to pay, etc., this is possible. Think of it! If you are paying $95 or more for five rooms you are spending more than it would cost you to live at Indian Boundary Park.

Investigate! That is how 180 families decide to make their homes at Indian Boundary Park. They came, 180 representative business men—lawyers, builders, bankers, architects, salesmen, and executives—and after investigating proved to themselves that this was to be their home.

Surely you must be curious enough to see this dream colony. A furnished apartment home is open for inspection and courteous guides will conduct you on a tour of inspection. Drop in when you are out driving. Open from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. Take Western to Fitch [7100 north], and west on Fitch one-one-half blocks.

LOANS

The cost of money borrowed for a necessity should be no greater than the cost of money borrowed for convenience sake nor for an opportunity.

We would never encourage a home owner to obtain funds on his home for use in a speculative venture, but where it is convenient or necessary to use funds for a constructive purpose it is sometimes advisable to borrow money on a second mortgage.

Where there is need and when the time comes the average home owner does not know where to go.

Whatever the need The Chicago Morris Plan Bank, acting as agent for a substantial loan fund, has money to loan and facilities to offer to home owners whereby they can arrange for a second mortgage at a reasonable cost and upon convenient terms.

We make loans for a period of one to three years, with interest at 6% per annum and a commission of 3½% for one year, 6½% for two years and 9% for three years, and the monthly payments may be as low as 2% plus accrued interest each month.

The entire plan developed by The Chicago Morris Plan Bank as agent for the handling of second mortgages is geared down to meet the requirements of the home owner of this vicinity. We will be glad to have you come in and find out all about the proposition which we are offering in this direction.
